

A movie poster for 'The Storm Warriors' featuring three actors in a fiery, action-packed setting. The background is a bright orange and yellow fire. In the center, a woman with long dark hair, wearing a patterned top, stands with her arms outstretched. To her left, a man with long dark hair and a serious expression looks forward. To her right, another man with short dark hair and a surprised expression looks forward. Several small, dark, winged figures are flying in the air around the central figure. The title 'THE STORM WARRIORS' is written in a stylized, serif font on the left side of the poster.

T&T Clark Handbook of Asian American Biblical Hermeneutics Uriah Y. Kim, Seung Ai Yang, 2019-05-30 The first reference resource on how Asian Americans are currently reading and interpreting the Bible this volume also serves a valuable role in both developing and disseminating what can be termed as Asian American biblical hermeneutics The volume works from the important background that Asian Americans are the fastest growing ethnic racial minority population in the USA and that 42% of this group identifies as Christian This provides a useful starting point from which to examine what may be distinctive about Asian American approaches to the Bible Part 1 of the Handbook describes six major ethnic groups that make up 85% of Asian population by country of origin China Philippines Indian Subcontinent Vietnam Korea Japan and outlines the specific concerns each group has when its members read the Bible Part 2 of the Handbook examines major critical methods in biblical interpretation and suggests adjustments that may be helpful for Asian Americans to make when they are interpreting the Bible Finally Part 3 provides 25 interpretations by Asian American biblical scholars on specific texts in the Bible using what they consider to be Asian American hermeneutics Taken together the Handbook interprets the Bible both with and for the Asian American communities Storm Warriors Brian Craig, 1991

An Unsinkable Titanic: Every Ship its own Lifeboat John Bernard Walker, 2021-05-19 In An Unsinkable Titanic Every Ship its own Lifeboat John Bernard Walker embarks on an innovative exploration of maritime safety rethinking the tragic legacy of the Titanic disaster Walker employs a critical analysis intertwined with historical narrative presenting a meticulous examination of ship design safety protocols and human behavior in the face of nautical calamity His blend of factual reporting and vivid storytelling not only illuminates the flaws in contemporary maritime practices but also critiques societal complacency regarding safety standards making the text a vital contribution to maritime literature and a poignant study of resilience in the face of disaster John Bernard Walker a seasoned maritime historian and naval architect draws from his extensive background in marine engineering and his passion for naval history to craft this compelling work His unique perspective is shaped by years of research and deep personal interest in the Titanic saga motivating him to advocate for fundamental changes in how we approach maritime safety Walker s expertise lends credence to his arguments and inspires a sense of urgency in addressing the ongoing challenges that the maritime industry faces today This book is highly recommended for scholars maritime professionals and history enthusiasts alike as it not only offers a rich tapestry of historical insight but also serves as a wake up call for contemporary maritime practices An Unsinkable Titanic invites readers to reflect on the importance of responsibility preparedness and the constant quest for innovation in safeguarding lives at sea
