Story Behind The Story 26 Stories By Contemporary Writers And How They Work:

Story Behind the Story Peter Turchi, Andrea Barrett, 2003-12-30 In a splendid display of show and tell 26 writers tell a story and lift the curtain to reveal how they did it This big beautiful anthology of short fiction is for readers writers and anyone curious about the mysterious processes of literary minds All contributors have been recent faculty members of the prestigious Warren Wilson Low Residency Program including such literary favorites as Margot Livesey Charles Baxter Robert Boswell Jim Shepard Antonya Nelson David Shields and the editors themselves Each writer was asked to submit an original story accompanied by an essay describing the challenges of the story and how they were met Since writers resist herding the editors were happily surprised by the wide range of essays fiction writers when given the space think about their work very differently We learn about the genesis of a story how story evolves what was eventually relinquished and why and how a story surprisingly might insist on changing Arranged alphabetically by author and beginning with Richard Russo's cogent introduction this volume is a treasure throughout

Understanding Richard Russo Kathleen Drowne, 2014-07-21 In Understanding Richard Russo Kathleen Drowne explores the significant themes and techniques in Richard Russo's seven novels one memoir and two short story collections including the 2002 Pulitzer Prize winning novel Empire Falls Known for assembling large casts of eccentric characters and developing sweeping multigenerational storylines Russo brings to life the hard hit rural manufacturing towns of the Northeast as he explores the bewildering painful complexities of family relationships Drowne first recounts Russo's biography then explores his novels chronologically and concludes with a chapter dedicated to his shorter fiction and nonfiction As Drowne invites readers to appreciate more fully this accomplished chronicler of American small towns she shows how the empathy that Russo creates for his protagonists is amplified by the careful detail with which he realizes their worlds In her approaches to Mohawk The Risk Pool Nobody's Fool Empire Falls and Bridge of Sighs Drowne traces the primary recurring concern of Russo's work the plight of deteriorating rural communities and the dramatic impact of that decline on their blue collar inhabitants and families Russo's characters have jobs not careers and Russo's family relationships are not just nuclear but multigenerational Drowne shows that in such a web of powerlessness and attachment Russo explores relationships between emotionally scarred sons and their abusive absent or neglectful fathers as well as the frustrated relationships with mothers who yearn for their sons to turn out differently than their fathers Drowne also highlights Russo's talent for realistic but highly eccentric characters worn out construction workers and odd jobbers barflies has beens and ne'er do wells whose lives are emblematic of both the dignity and the desperation of crumbling Rust Belt towns And out of his melancholic surroundings and struggling characters Drowne shows how Russo consistently reveals a remarkable literate humor Her study offers readers an insightful point of entry into one of America's finest contemporary comic writers a so called bard of the working class and a chronicler of small town America

Literary Trails of the North Carolina Mountains (Volume 1 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition) , A Kite in the Wind Andrea Barrett, Peter Turchi, 2011-04-15 A Kite in the Wind is an anthology of essays by 20 veteran writers and master teachers While the contributors offer specific practical advice on such fundamental aspects of craft as characterization character names the first person point of view and unreliable narrators they also give extended thoughtful consideration to more sophisticated topics including imminence or the power of a sense of beginning creating and maintaining tension lushness and the deliberate manipulation of information to create particular effects The essays in A Kite in the Wind begin as personal investigations attempts to understand why a decision in a particular story or novel seemed unsuccessful to define a quality or problem that seemed either unrecognized or unsatisfactorily defined to understand what despite years of experience as a fiction writer resisted comprehension and to pursue haunting even unanswerable questions Unlike a how to book the anthology is less an instruction manual than it is an intimate visit with twenty very different writers as they explore topics that excite intrigue and even puzzle them Each discussion uses specific examples and illustrations including both canonical stories and novels and writing less frequently discussed from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries by both American and international authors The contributors share their hard earned insights for beginning and advanced writers with humility wit and compassion The first section of the book focuses on narration with particular attention paid to various kinds of narrators the second on strategic creation and presentation of character the third on some of the roles of the visual beginning with establishing setting and the fourth on structural and organizational issues from movement through time to the manipulation of information to create mystery and suspense Contributors include Wilton Barnhardt Andrea Barrett Charles Baxter Karen Brennan Maud Casey Lan Samantha Chang Robert Cohen Stacey D Erasmo Judy Doenges Anthony Doerr C J Hribal Michael Martone Kevin McIlvoy Alexander Parsons Frederick Reiken Steven Schwartz Dominic Smith Debra Spark Megan Staffel Sarah Stone and Peter Turchi

Novel Preaching Alyce M. McKenzie, 2010-02-01 In this lively and accessible book Alyce McKenzie explores how fiction writers approach the task of writing novels how they develop their ideas where they find their inspiration and how they turn the spark of a creative notion into words on paper that will captivate the masses McKenzie's study shows how preachers can use the same techniques to enhance their own creativity and to turn their ideas into powerful well crafted sermons Novel Preaching offers a wealth of advice from successful fiction writers including Isabelle Allende Frederick Buechner Julia Cameron Annie Dillard Natalie Goldberg Stephen King Toni Morrison Joyce Carol Oates and Melanie Rae Thorn and also includes a number of sample sermons from McKenzie herself

(Don't) Stop Me if You've Heard This Before Peter Turchi, 2023-01-24 In Don't Stop Me If You've Heard This Before Peter Turchi combines personal narrative and close reading of a wide range of stories and novels to reveal how writers create the fiction that matters to us Building on his much loved Maps of the Imagination The Writer as Cartographer Turchi leads readers and writers to an understanding of how the intricate mechanics of storytelling including shifts in characters authority the subtle manipulation of images careful attention to point of view the strategic release of information and even digressing from the apparent story can create powerful effects Using examples from Dickens Chekhov and Salinger and Twain to more contemporary writers including Toni Morrison Alice Munro E L Doctorow Jenny Erpenbeck Adam Johnson Mohsin Hamid Jai Chakrabarti Yoko Ogawa Richard Powers Deborah Eisenberg Olga Tokarczuk Rachel Cusk and Colson Whitehead Turchi offers illuminating insights into the inner workings of fiction as well as practical advice for writers looking to explore their craft from a fresh angle beyond the fundamentals of character and setting plot and scene While these essays draw from decades of teaching undergraduate and graduate students they also speak to writers working on their own In Out of the Workshop into the Laboratory Turchi discusses how anyone can make the most of discussions of stories or novels in progress and in Reading Like a Writer he provides guidelines for learning from writing you admire Perhaps best of all these essays by a writer the Houston Chronicle has called one of the country's foremost thinkers on the art of writing are as entertaining as they are edifying always reminding us of the power and pleasure of storytelling

Maps of the Imagination Peter Turchi, 2011-06-01 Maps of the Imagination takes us on a magic carpet ride over terrain both familiar and exotic Using the map as a metaphor fiction writer Peter Turchi considers writing as a combination of exploration and presentation all the while serving as an erudite and charming guide He compares the way a writer leads a reader through the imaginary world of a story novel or poem to the way a mapmaker charts the physical world To ask for a map says Turchi is to say Tell me a story With intelligence and wit the author looks at how mapmakers and writers deal with blank space and the blank page the conventions they use or consciously disregard the role of geometry in maps and the parallel role of form in writing how both maps and writing serve to re create an individual's view of the world and the artist's delicate balance of intuition with intention A unique combination of history critical cartography personal essay and practical guide to writing Maps of the Imagination is a book for writers for readers and for anyone interested in creativity Colorful illustrations and Turchi's insightful observations make his book both beautiful and a joy to read

A Muse and a Maze Peter Turchi, 2014-11-11 With his characteristic talent for finding the connections between writing and the stuff of our lives most notably in his earlier hit Maps of the Imagination The Writer as Cartographer Peter Turchi ventures into new and even more surprising territory In A Muse and a Maze Turchi draws out the similarities between writing and puzzle making and its flip side puzzle solving He teases out how mystery lies at the heart of all storytelling And he uncovers the magic the creation of credible illusion that writers share with the likes of Houdini and master magicians In Turchi's associative narrative we learn about the history of puzzles their obsessive quality and that Benjamin Franklin was a devotee of an ancient precursor of sudoku called Magic Squares Applying this rich backdrop to the requirements of writing Turchi reveals as much about the human psyche as he does about the literary imagination and the creative process With the goal of giving writers new ways to think about their work and readers new ways to consider the books they encounter A Muse and a Maze suggests ways in which every piece of writing is a kind of puzzle The work argues that literary writing is defined at least in part by its embrace of mystery offers tangrams as a model for the presentation of complex characters compares a writer's relationship to his or her narrator to magicians and wizards offers the maze and the labyrinth as alternatives to the more common notion of the narrative line and concludes with a discussion of how readers and writers like puzzle solvers not only tolerate but find pleasure in difficulty While always balancing erudition with accessibility Turchi examines the work of writers as various as A A Milne Dashiell Hammett Truman Capote Anton Chekhov Alison Bechdel F Scott Fitzgerald Antonia Nelson Vladimir Nabokov Charles D Ambrosio Michael Ondaatje Alice Munro Thomas

Bernhard and Mark Twain elaborating and illuminating ways in which their works expand and deliver on the title's double entendre A Muse and a Maze With 100 images that range from movie stills from Citizen Kane and Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid to examples of sudokus crosswords and other puzzles from Norman Rockwell's famous triple self portrait to artwork by Charles Richie and from historical arcana to today's latest magic A Muse and a Maze offers prose exposition images text quotations and every available form of wisdom leading the reader step by step through passages from stories and novels to demonstrate with remarkable clarity how writers evolve their eventual creations A Splendid Ecstasy Emma S. Etuk, 2010-04-21 There is no available information at this time Poets & Writers, 2008 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-12 Deepening Fiction Sarah Stone, Ron Nyren, 2005 A section on the writing life includes candid discussions of writer's block talent habit rejection publication and endurance to help aspiring professionals develop sustainable lives as writers Jacket Book Review Digest, 1927 Reports of the President and the Treasurer John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, 2006 Includes biographies of fellows appointed reappointments publications musical compositions academic appointments and index of fellows Latina Self-portraits Bridget A.
