The Case Against Capital:

The Case against Floating Exchanges Paul Einzig, 1970-06-18 Against Capital Punishment Herbert H. Haines, 1996 Prospects for the future Sentencing in Capital Cases United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary.
Subcommittee on Criminal Justice, 1978 The Case Against the Democratic House Impeaching Trump Alan Dershowitz, 2019-01-01 New York Times bestselling author One of America's most respected legal scholars a Democrat explains why impeachment proceedings against Donald Trump would be a bad idea for America In the 2018 New York Times bestseller The Case Against Impeaching Trump Alan Dershowitz lamented how American political discourse has devolved into hypocrisy and the criminalization of political differences in the rush to impeach President Trump Arguments to impeach Trump failed Dershowitz's shoe on the other foot test or his political golden rule Democrats must do unto Republicans what they would have Republicans do unto them and vice versa Since then we've only become more divided and the impeachment power wielded by the Democratic majority in the House of Representative threatens to further polarize the country The Case Against the Democratic House Impeaching Trump includes and expands upon Dershowitz's 2018 book It puts recent political events including the hyper partisan Kavanaugh hearings the unrestrained power of the Mueller investigation and the generally intolerant current political discourse into context American democracy Dershowitz argues is suffering from political hypocrisy And two years of impeachment proceedings brought by the House and the media circus that would undoubtedly surround them is clearly not the answer This book is Alan Dershowitz's plea for honest dialogue for arguments that would be made even if the shoe was on the other foot The International Library of Essays on Capital Punishment, Volume 1 Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-12-05 This volume provides up to date and nuanced analysis across a wide spectrum of capital punishment issues The essays move beyond the conventional legal approach and propose fresh perspectives including a unique critique of the abolition sector Written by a range of leading experts with diverse geographical methodological and conceptual approaches the essays in this volume challenge received wisdom and embrace a holistic understanding of capital punishment based on practical experience and empirical data This collection is indispensable reading for anyone seeking a comprehensive and detailed understanding of the complexity of the death penalty discourse The Case Against "free Trade" Ralph Nader, 1993 This book examines the notion of free trade and the issues raised by adopting the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT and the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA Essays by Ralph Nader Jerry Brown William Greider Margaret Atwood Mark Ritchie Wendell Berry Pat Choate and others Taxing Capital Income Henry J. Aaron, Leonard E. Burman, C. Eugene Steuerle, 2007-07-02 The question of whether to tax income from wealth has sparked debate since our country's inception Does taxing capital income ensure the progressivity of our system or merely discourage saving Would switching our tax code to one that taxes only consumption be more efficient or only burden middle and low income people And if we were to radically reform the way America taxes its citizens how could we ensure that vital revenue would not be lost Some analysts would even argue that under our present byzantine tax system we don t really tax capital income at all In this volume eminent economists analyze the problems associated with taxing capital income and propose policy solutions which are then challenged by their peers in informed commentary It may not settle the debate but policymakers scholars and the public will find a wealth of information and ideas to consider To Establish Rational Criteria for the Imposition of Capital Punishment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1978 Retribution Thom Brooks,2019-10-30 Retribution is perhaps the most popular contemporary theory about punishment and has enjoyed enduring appeal as the oldest even most venerable penal theory with its strong ancient roots Retribution is understood in many different ways but the standard view of retribution is that punishment is justified where it is deserved and an offender should be punished in proportion to his desert In this volume retributivism is examined from various critical perspectives including its diversity relation with desert the link between desert and proportionality retributivist emotions and the idea of mercy The theory of retribution has been the subject of a revival of interest in recent years and the essays selected for this volume are the leading works on retribution from the dominant international figures in the field Capital Punishment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1981 Imposition of Capital Punishment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures,1973 European Community Law on the Free Movement of Capital and EMU Sideek Mohamed,2023-09-20 This book deals with the EC rules on the free movement of capital and economic and monetary union EMU In the context of capital freedom the author performs a critical analysis supported by case law of the problems connected with the abolition of capital controls within the European Community and between the European Community and third countries The book highlights some of the negative consequences of capital freedom such as the scope for tax evasion and money laundering EC rules on EMU such as the rules on convergence criteria Stability and Growth Pact the euro and the continuity of contract and others are also presented in a detailed and critical manner Confronting Capital Punishment in Asia Roger Hood,Surya Deva,2013-11-07 With the strengthening focus worldwide on human rights there has been a rapid increase in recent years in the number of countries that have completely abolished the death penalty This is in recognition that it is a violation of the right to life and the right to be free from cruel inhuman and degrading punishment There has simultaneously been pressure on countries that still retain capital punishment to ensure that they at least apply the United Nations minimum human rights safeguards established to protect the rights of those facing the death penalty This book shows that the majority of Asian countries have been particularly resistant to the abolitionist movement and tardy in accepting their responsibility to uphold the safeguards The essays contained in this volume provide an in depth analysis of changes in the scope and application of the death penalty in Asia with a focus on China India Japan and Singapore They explain the extent to which these nations still fail to accept capital punishment as a human rights issue identify impediments to reform and explore the prospects that Asian countries will eventually embrace the goal of worldwide abolition of capital punishment

When Things Don't Fall Apart Ilene Grabel, 2018-01-12 An account of the significant though gradual uneven disconnected ad hoc and pragmatic innovations in global financial governance and developmental finance induced by the global financial crisis In When Things Don't Fall Apart Ilene Grabel challenges the dominant view that the global financial crisis had little effect on global financial governance and developmental finance Most observers discount all but grand systemic ruptures in institutions and policy Grabel argues instead that the global crisis induced inconsistent and ad hoc discontinuities in global financial governance and developmental finance that are now having profound effects on emerging market and developing economies Grabel's chief normative claim is that the resulting incoherence in global financial governance is productive rather than debilitating In the age of productive incoherence a more complex dense fragmented and pluripolar form of global financial governance is expanding possibilities for policy and institutional experimentation policy space for economic and human development financial stability and resilience and financial inclusion Grabel draws on key theoretical commitments of Albert Hirschman to cement the case for the productivity of incoherence Inspired by Hirschman Grabel demonstrates that meaningful change often emerges from disconnected erratic experimental and inconsistent adjustments in institutions and policies as actors pragmatically manage in an evolving world Grabel substantiates her claims with empirically rich case studies that explore the effects of recent crises on networks of financial governance such as the G 20 transformations within the IMF institutional innovations in liquidity support and project finance from the national to the transregional levels and the rebranding of capital controls Grabel concludes with a careful examination of the opportunities and risks associated with the evolutionary transformations underway

A Wild Justice: The Death and Resurrection of Capital Punishment in America Evan J. Mandery, 2013-08-19 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Drawing on never before published original source detail the epic story of two of the most consequential and largely forgotten moments in Supreme Court history For two hundred years the constitutionality of capital punishment had been axiomatic But in 1962 Justice Arthur Goldberg and his clerk Alan Dershowitz dared to suggest otherwise launching an underfunded band of civil rights attorneys on a quixotic crusade In 1972 in a most unlikely victory the Supreme Court struck down Georgia's death penalty law in Furman v Georgia Though the decision had sharply divided the justices nearly everyone including the justices themselves believed Furman would mean the end of executions in America Instead states responded with a swift and decisive showing of support for capital punishment As anxiety about crime rose and public approval of the Supreme Court declined the stage was set in 1976 for Gregg v Georgia in which the Court dramatically reversed direction A Wild Justice is an extraordinary behind the scenes look at the Court the justices and the political complexities of one of the most racially charged and morally vexing issues of our time
