Henty, 2010-10-08 An Amazon Review This book was exciting from the very beginning until the very end I thought it was one of the best books I've ever read It is about a Rebu Prince who lost his kingdom his father his family and his home to the Egyptians in battle and was taken captive to Egypt There he was made a slave with his friend Jethro But he was not sad there for he was chosen by the high priest of the temple of the god Osiris Amuba the Prince made a friend at the priest's house called Chebron The main part was when they were outside trying to shoot a hawk who was killing all the water fowl They both fired their bow and arrows Since the prince had been in a battle he hit the hawk but Chebron who had never been in a battle before missed and killed the sacred cat In Egypt if you kill a cat you will be killed From that point on in the story things get exciting People die battles happen the Prince and his comrades flee In the end Chebron is saved because of the heroics of his friends I rate this book a 5 star If you want any kind of book just read this one The Cat of Bubastes G.
