The Catacombs Of St Callixtus History Archaeology Faith:

The Catacombs of St. Callixtus Antonio Baruffa,1992

The Catacombs of St. Callixtus Fabio Pasqualetti,1994

Foucault's Heterotopia in Christian Catacombs E. Smith,2014-10-16 The catacombs of Rome have captured imaginations for centuries This innovative study takes a fresh look at these underground spaces and considers how art space texts and practices can tell us more about the catacombs and the people who dug and decorated them

The Binding of Isaac in Art of Late Antiquity Bonnie L. Kutbay,2024-12-20 From the third through the sixth centuries the binding of Isaac saw a flourish of representation in Christian Byzantine and Jewish art These images engaged the viewer in a religious experience that highlighted sacrifice salvation and liturgy and reflected an increased visual richness of sacrificial and liturgical concepts In contrast to earlier scholarship on the sacrifice of Isaac that offered general descriptions of the period and digressions on isolated images this book presents the interpretation of specific works depicting the binding of Isaac by his father Abraham across time examining the iconography style social context and purpose of the sacrifice in the artworks

Sacred Stimulus

Galit Noga-Banai,2018-06-01 How did early Christian Rome deal with the fact that Christ was never there Sacred Stimulus is about the effect Jerusalem had on the formulation of Christian art in Rome during the fourth and fifth centuries It deals with the visual Christianization of Rome from an almost neglected perspective not in comparison to pagan art in Rome not as reflecting the struggle with Constantinople but rather as visual expressions of the idea of Jerusalem and its holy sites and traditions

The Bone Gatherers Nicola Frances Denzey,Nicola Denzey Lewis,2007 Bone Gatherers is a Beacon Press publication

The Early Modern Invention of Late Antique Rome Nicola Denzey Lewis,2020-09-03 A new look at the Cult of the Saints in late antiquity did it really dominate Christianity in late antique Rome

Mystery and Secrecy in the Nag Hammadi Collection and Other Ancient Literature: Ideas and Practices Christian H. Bull,Liv Lied,John D.

Turner,2011-10-28 Drawing on a wide array of sources this anthology sets out to analyze the concepts of mystery and secrecy that occur in the ritual and rhetoric of antique Mediterranean religion with an emphasis on Gnosticism Christianity and Paganism

The Acts of Paul and Thecla Jeremy W. Barrier,2009 Sometime in the second century an early Christian text began to circulate called the Acts of Paul and Thecla Since then the tale of the apostle Paul along with his strong heroine co worker named Thecla has received much attention as an independent source of information about earliest Christianity for what it might tell us about the role of women in ministry and the relationship women may have had to Paul in his missionary activities In this volume Jeremy W Barrier provides a critical introduction and commentary on the Acts of Paul and Thecla to serve as a user friendly starting point for anyone interested in entering into the many discussions and academic writings surrounding the Acts of Paul and Thecla Apart from a critical text with English translation followed by textual notes and general comments the author also offers an extensive introduction to the text

The Roman Martyrs Michael Lapidge,2018 The Roman Martyrs contains translations of forty Latin passioness of saints who were martyred in Rome or its near environs during the period before the peace of the Church c 312 Some of the Roman martyrs are universally known SS Agnes Sebastian or Laurence for example but others are scarcely recognized outside the ecclesiastical landscape of Rome itself Each of the translated passiones is accompanied by an individual introduction and commentary the translations are preceded by an Introduction which describes the principal features of this little known genre of Christian literature and are followed by five Appendices which present translated texts which are essential for understanding the cult of Roman martyrs This volume offers the first collection of the Roman passiones martyrum translated into a modern language They were mostly composed during the period 425 675 by anonymous authors who were presumably clerics of the Roman churches or cemeteries which housed the martyrs remains It is clear that they were composed in response to the explosion of pilgrim traffic to martyrial shrines from the late fourth century onwards at a time when authentic records protocols of their trials and executions had long since vanished and the authors of the passiones were obliged to imagine the circumstances in which martyrs were tried and executed The passiones are works of fiction and because they abound in ludicrous errors of chronology they have been largely ignored by historians of the early Church Although they cannot be used as evidence for the original martyrdoms they nevertheless allow a fascinating glimpse of the concerns which animated Christians during the period in question for example the preservation of virginity or the ever present threat posed by pagan practices As certain aspects of Roman life will have changed little between the second century and the fifth the passiones shed valuable light on many aspects of Roman society not least the nature of a trial before an urban prefect and the horrendous tortures which were a central feature of such trials The passiones are an indispensable resource for understanding the topography of late antique Rome and its environs as they characteristically contain detailed reference to the places where the martyrs were tried executed and buried

The Early Christian World Philip Esler, 2017-07-20 Since its publication in 2000 The Early Christian World has come to be regarded by scholars students and the general reader as one of the most informative and accessible works in English on the origins development character and major figures of early Christianity In this new edition the strengths of the first edition are retained These include the book's attractive architecture that initially takes a reader through the context and historical development of early Christianity the essays in critical areas such as community formation everyday experience the intellectual and artistic heritage and external and internal challenges and the profiles on the most influential early Christian figures The book also preserves its strong stress on the social reality of early Christianity and continues its distinctive use of hundreds of illustrations and maps to bring that world to life Yet the years that have passed since the first edition was published have seen great advances made in our understanding of early Christianity in its world This new edition fully reflects these developments and provides the reader with authoritative lively and up to date access to the early Christian world A quarter of the text is entirely new and the remaining essays have all been carefully revised and updated by their authors Some of the new material relates to Christian culture including book culture canonical and non canonical scriptures saints and hagiography and translation across cultures But there are also new essays on Jewish and Christian interaction in the early centuries ritual the New Testament in Roman Britain Manichaeism Pachomius the Great and Gregory of Nyssa This new edition will serve its readers for many years to come

Calvinism and the Arts Christopher Richard Joby, 2007 It is often thought that the French Reformer John Calvin 1509-1564 had a negative attitude towards the arts particularly visual art However in Calvinism and the Arts: A Re-assessment Dr Joby argues that in Calvin's writings and in the development of the Reformed tradition more generally it is possible to discern a more positive attitude than has hitherto been recognized He makes a start by examining exactly what type of visual art Calvin rejected and what type he affirmed He goes on to consider how Calvin's epistemology and eschatology can be used to argue for the placing of certain types of art notably histories and landscape paintings within Reformed churches and then devotes separate chapters to reflecting on how music architecture and church decoration within the Reformed tradition provide further arguments for the use of these works of art In the final section he looks at specific histories and landscapes from the Dutch Golden Age and considers how the form and content of both of these types of art provide us with further ontological and epistemological arguments which inevitably lead to the conclusion that their continued exclusion from Reformed churches is no longer tenable

Eating and Believing David Grumett, Rachel Muers, 2011-11-03 What are the links between people's beliefs and the foods they choose to eat In the modern Western world dietary choices are a topic of ethical and political debate but how can centuries of Christian thought and practice also inform them And how do reasons for abstaining from particular foods in the modern world compare with earlier ones This book will shed new light on modern vegetarianism and related forms of dietary choice by situating them in the context of historic Christian practice It will show how the theological significance of embodied practice may be retrieved and reconceived in the present day Food and diet is a neglected area of Christian theology and Christianity is conspicuous among the modern world's religions in having few dietary rules or customs Yet historically food and the practices surrounding it have significantly shaped Christian lives and identities This collection prepared collaboratively includes contributions on the relationship between Christian beliefs and food practices in specific historical contexts It considers the relationship between eating and believing from non-Christian perspectives that have in turn shaped Christian attitudes and practices It also examines ethical arguments about vegetarianism and their significance for emerging Christian theologies of food

Christianity in Ancient Rome Bernard Green, 2010-04-15 of the Pope Book Jacket

Prudentius, Spain, and Late Antique Christianity Paula Hershkowitz, 2017-01-05 This book provides an innovative approach to the Hispano-Roman Christian poet Prudentius and his poetry It is a breakthrough in Prudentian scholarship which unifies the differing disciplines of history archaeology literature and art history in arguing that Prudentius and his envisaged Spanish audience cannot be fully understood in isolation from their environment in late fourth and early fifth century Spain Paula Hershkowitz focuses on Prudentius' Peristephanon his collection of verses celebrating the deaths of martyrs and places these poems within the context of Prudentius world uniquely employing material visual and textual remains as evidence for its religious social and cultural affiliations It also draws on this material evidence to contextualise Prudentius awareness of the significance of the visual as a means of promoting beliefs against the background of this crucial formative period in religious history when many of his Spanish audience were not yet fully committed to the Christian faith      Jewish Glass and Christian Stone Eric C. Smith,2017-11-15 In recent years scholars have re evaluated the parting of the ways between Judaism and Christianity reaching new understandings of the ways shared origins gave way to two distinct and sometimes inimical religious traditions But this has been a profoundly textual task relying on the writings of rabbis bishops and other text producing elites to map the terrain of the parting This book takes up the question of the divergence of Judaism and Christianity in terms of material the stuff made used and left behind by the persons that lived in and between these religions as they were developing Considering the glass clay stone paint vellum and papyrus of ancient Jews and Christians this book maps the parting in new ways and argues for a greater role for material and materialism in our reconstructions of the past      Picturing the Bible Jeffrey Spier,Kimbell Art Museum,Steven Fine,Kimbell art museum (Fort Worth, Tex.),2007-01-01 Published on the occasion of the exhibition organized by the Kimbell Art Museum and shown there November 18 2007 March 30 2008      Lietuvos sakralinė dailė Dalia Tarandaitė,2003      Archaeology, Ideology and Urbanism in Rome from the Grand Tour to Berlusconi Stephen L. Dyson,2019-01-31 Reviews the complex relationship between Rome s rich archaeology changing cultural and ideological agendas and its urban development      ARCHAEOLOGY & THE NEW TESTAMENT Edward D.
