The Challenge Of Africa:

The Challenge for Africa Wangari Maathai, 2009-04-07 In this groundbreaking work the Nobel Peace Prize winner and founder of the Green Belt Movement offers a new perspective on the troubles facing Africa today Too often these challenges are portrayed by the media in extreme terms connoting poverty dependence and desperation Wangari Maathai the author of Unbowed sees things differently and here she argues for a moral revolution among Africans themselves Illuminating the complex and dynamic nature of the continent Maathai offers hardheaded hope and realistic options for change and improvement She deftly describes what Africans can and need to do for themselves stressing all the while responsibility and accountability Impassioned and empathetic The Challenge for Africa is a book of immense importance

The Challenge of Africa K. A. Busia, 2023-05-08 In the mid twentieth century the challenges raised by Africa's emergence into the modern world touched on every aspect of national and international life One of the most significant was raised by Africa's quest for her own culture encompassing not only the heritage of her distant and mysterious past but also the most recent developments in her history In The Challenge of Africa originally published in 1962 reissued here with a new introduction the foremost African sociologist of the time offers a constructive humanitarian and genuinely democratic approach to the problems Africa faced in this search Professor Busia discusses the political educational and economic challenges inherent in the very nature of modern African nationalism But he argues the basic challenge is moral to maintain and adapt the social and spiritual heritage that Africa has preserved throughout her history It is in the light of this challenge that he analyses the moral problems posed by Africa's entry into the modern international community the demand for the resolution of the race relations problem the insistence that the injustice of colonial systems be erased the challenge to provide right and just governments for the peoples of Africa the claim to cultural freedom In the international context African nationalism not only represents moral indignation against injustice and wrong it is also a claim for equality All nations must share in building a peaceful world community and this requires the cooperation of all races Lastly Professor Busia contends if East and West joined together to serve the needs of Africa they might in cooperation rediscover their own brotherhood and so save humanity

The Challenge of Africa Kofi Abrefa Busia, 1982 The Challenge for Africa Wangari Maathai, 2009-01-01

Maathai argues that Africans need to revive their sense of identity their cultural inheritance and a shared sense of common purpose to face the challenges posed by endemic corruption the legacies of colonialism and the Cold and civil wars poverty and most urgently climate change Endless images of nameless starving children aimed at guilt tripping westerners have been internalised leading to a demoralised passive inertia among millions of citizens Elections may have spread but the true fabric of democracy is often still tragically absent Only once the continent has rediscovered its own cultural inheritance can it take active responsibility for its own future Ultimately what Africa needs is a revolution in leadership but this cannot be ushered in by western governments well meaning NGOs or even Bono and Sharon Stone it must happen within African civil society itself

As in Unbowed Maathai's voice is decisive, authoritative and unsentimental

Africa and the Challenges of the Twenty-first Century Sall, Ebrima, 2015-10-19

The Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa CODESRIA held its 13th General Assembly 5-9 December 2011 in Rabat, Morocco. The theme of the scientific conference was Africa and the Challenges of the Twenty-first Century. Some of the reasons that influenced the choice of this theme were to do with how Africa should position itself in the new global political and economic order in the context of an increasingly complex neoliberal globalisation. Changes in intercultural relations at the global level, climate change, poverty, rapid urbanisation, the ICTs revolution, the emergence of a multi-polar world and the phenomenon of emerging powers of the South are some of the realities of our world that are widely and extensively discussed by both academics and policy makers. This book contains the statutory lectures of the 13th General Assembly. Each one speaks to major challenges that Africa and the Global South are facing in this second decade of the Twenty-first Century: neoliberal globalisation, capital flight, the land question, gender relations with a particular focus on patriarchy and universalism.

The Challenge of African Economic Recovery and Development Adebayo Adedeji, Patrick Bugembe, O. Teriba, 2014-01-09

A special session of the UN General Assembly was held in Abuja, the new Nigerian capital, in May 1988. This volume reproduces the major papers, lines of discussion and conclusions of the conference.

US Strategy in Africa David J. Francis, 2010-02-25

This book outlines the construction, interpretations and understanding of US strategy towards Africa in the early twenty-first century. No single issue or event in the recent decades in Africa has provoked so much controversy and unified hostility and opposition as the announcement by former President George W. Bush of the establishment of the United States Africa Command AFRICOM. The intensity and sheer scale of the unprecedented unity of opposition to AFRICOM across Africa surprised many experts and led them to ask why such a hostile reaction occurred. This book explores the conception of AFRICOM and the subsequent reaction in two ways. Firstly, the contributors critically engage with the creation and global imperatives for the establishment of AFRICOM and present an analytical outline of African security in relation to and within the context of the history of US foreign and security policy approaches to Africa. Secondly, the book has original chapter contributions by some of the key actors involved in the development and implementation of the AFRICOM project, including Theresa Whelan, the former US Deputy Assistant Secretary for African Affairs. This is not only an attempt to contribute to the academic and policy-relevant debates based on the views of those who are intimately involved in the design and implementation of the AFRICOM project, but also to show in their own words that America has no clandestine agenda for Africa. This book will be of interest to
