The Challenge Of Islam Encounters In Interfaith Dialogue:

The Challenge of Islam Douglas Pratt, 2005 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts Jacket The Challenge of Islam Professor Religious Studies Adjunct Professor Theology and Interreligious Studies Douglas Pratt, Taylor & Francis Group, 2018-03-31 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt, 2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so

Contemporary Christian-Muslim Dialogue Douglas Pratt, 2021-02-28 This book introduces and examines the work of two significant 21st century Christian Muslim dialogue initiatives Building Bridges and the Christian Muslim Theological Forum and gives close attention to five theological themes that have been addressed in common by them An overview and analysis including inception development outputs and significance together with discussion of the select themes community scripture prophecy prayer and ethics allows for an in depth examination of significant contemporary Muslim and Christian scholarship on issues important to both faith communities The result is a challenging encounter to arguably a widespread default presumption of irredeemable mutual hostility and inevitable mutual rejection with instances of violent extremism as a consequence Demonstrating the reality that deep interreligious engagement is possible between the two faiths today this book should appeal to a wide readership including upper undergraduate and graduate teaching as well as professionals and practitioners in the field of Christian Muslim relations Muslims, Christians, and the Challenge of Interfaith Dialogue Jane I. Smith, 2007-10-11 Christian Muslim dialogue going on in America for many decades has become more intentional and serious since the events of September 11 2001 This volume looks at the history of encounter between the two religions the types of dialogue that are taking place both locally and nationally and the hope that conversation brings for better interfaith understanding No book has been written on this topic before The book combines the history of Christian Muslim relations the rise of Islam in America with an emphasis on groups and individuals who have participated in dialogue and different kinds of dialogue Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges, 2015-07-30 Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims Divided into two parts the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions The second part highlights case studies from around the world Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven Firestone Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian Muslim encounter case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students researchers and interfaith professionals The Future of Interfaith Dialogue Yazeed Said, Yazid Said, Lejla Demiri, 2018-08-30 Provides insightful discussions of the exegetic and discursive process begun by the open letter A Common Word Between Us and You

Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume s contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century Encountering the Stranger Leonard Grob, John K. Roth, 2013-01-03 In an age when collisions of faith among the Abrahamic traditions continue to produce strife and violence that threatens the well being of individuals and communities worldwide the contributors to Encountering the Stranger six Jewish six Christian and six Muslim scholars takes responsibility to examine their traditions understandings of the stranger the other and to identify ways that can bridge divisions and create greater harmony The Character of Christian-Muslim Encounter, 2016-01-12 The Character of Christian Muslim Encounter is a Festschrift in honour of David Thomas Professor of Christianity and Islam and Nadir Dinshaw Professor of Inter Religious Relations at the University of Birmingham UK The Editors have put together a collection of over 30 contributions from colleagues of Professor Thomas that commences with a biographical sketch and representative tribute provided by a former doctoral student and comprises a series of wide ranging academic papers arranged to broadly reflect three dimensions of David Thomas academic and professional work studies in and of Islam Christian Muslim relations the Church and interreligious engagement These are set in the context of a focussed theme the character of Christian Muslim encounters and cast within a broad chronological framework Contributors excluding the editors are Clare Amos John Azumah Mark Beaumont David Cheetham Rifaat Ebied Stanis aw Grod SVD Alan Guenther Damian Howard SJ Michael Ipgrave Muammer skendero lu Risto Jukko Alex Mallett Juan Pedro Monferrer Sala Lucinda Mosher Gordon Nickel J rgen Nielsen Claire Norton Emilio Platti Luis Bernab Pons Peniel Rajkumar Peter Riddell Umar Ryad Andrew Sharp Sigvard von Sicard Richard Sudworth Mark Swanson Charles Tieszen John Tolan Davide Tacchini Herman Teule Albert Walters

Muslim-Christian Engagement in the Twentieth Century Charles Fletcher, 2014-10-21

Christian Muslim dialogue grows increasingly important but little is known about individual Muslim dialogical thinkers Born in Palestine in 1921 Ismail al Faruqi was a leading figure in the development of conversation and debate across faiths in North America in the second half of the twentieth century and was actively engaged in inter faith study and dialogue Al Faruqi founded the Islamic Studies programme at Temple University Pennsylvania where several distinguished Muslim intellectuals have taught such as Seyyid Hossein Nasr Mahmoud Ayoub and Hasan Hanafi Along with Kenneth Cragg and Wilfred Cantwell Smith al Faruqi was an active participant in Muslim Christian dialogues in the 1970s and the 1980s Charles Fletcher here presents the first study dedicated to Ismail al Faruqi s theory and practice of interfaith dialogue Analysing al Faruqi s sometimes provocative ideas on the comparative study of religion dialogue and practical engagement the author provides an illuminating study of the life and thought of this important scholar Tracing the development of al Faruqi s ideas and practice of inter faith dialogue Fletcher shows how Muslim intellectuals engaged in such attempts viewed their role as representatives of the worldwide Muslim community With perceptive insights into the history of contemporary Muslim Christian dialogue this book will be invaluable for all those interested in inter faith relations comparative religious studies North American Muslims and Islamic studies

Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges, 2015-07-30

Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims Divided into two parts the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions The second part highlights case studies from around the world Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven Firestone Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian Muslim encounter case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students

researchers and interfaith professionals Interreligious Dialogue Models Alwani Ghazali, Muhammad Kamal, 2023-12-15 How did the Prophet Muhammad pbuh converse and engage with other religious believers Did he start off with prejudice and mistrust Or was he convivial and open minded This book analyses six models of the dealings in the lifetime of the Prophet Muhammad pbuh specifically but not restricted to the siblings of Abrahamic religious believers The six models of dialogue analysed in the book are dialogue with Ashamah Najashi of Abyssinia delegation of Najran Christians different Jews of Yathrib and emperors of Byzantine and Sassanid The analysis applies Ibn Khaldun s d 1406 historical approach which the author termed as Khaldunian Hermeneutics due to the similarity between his ideas to that of Johann Gustav Droysen d 1884 a German philosopher in historical hermeneutics As such the analysis goes beyond the dialogue content taking into consideration the immediate and larger contextual settings and changes of the contexts due to the passage of time It critically considers the suitability of each model due to the difference in times and contexts The book serves as a reference for Muslim dialogue advocates and practitioners to provide substantial evidence of the dialogue application by the role model of Muslims the Prophet Muhammad pbuh whom they hold very dear to their hearts World Religions in Practice Paul Gwynne, 2017-05-30 A new and expanded edition of a highly successful textbook on world religions with a comparative approach which explores how six major religions are lived and expressed through their customs rituals and everyday practices A new edition of this major textbook exploring the world s great religions through their customs rituals and everyday practices by focusing on the lived experience This comparative study is enriched and broadened with the inclusion of a sixth religion Daoism Takes a thematic comparative and practical approach each chapter explores a series of key themes including birth death ethics and worship across all six religions at each time Broadens students understanding by offering an impartial discussion of the similarities and differences between each religion Includes an increased range of student friendly features designed to allow students to engage with each religion and extend their understanding Terrorism: Bridging the Gap with Peace and Conflict Studies Ioannis Tellidis, Harmonie Toros, 2016-01-08 This book opens up the discussion of the interrelation between terrorism studies and peace and conflict studies The aim is to examine the instances and circumstances under which both fields can benefit from each other Even though it is often accepted that terrorism is a form of political violence it is also quite frequent that research on the topic is dismissed when it is approached with conflict analysis frames More importantly policy approaches continue to inhibit obstruct and reject frameworks that are concerned with the transformation and resolution of terrorist conflicts partly because they see the state as the ultimate referent object to be secured At the same time peace and conflict studies seem to be excessively focused on problem solving approaches which overemphasise the role of parity during negotiations and misdiagnose the distribution of power both within conflicts as well as within conflict management resolution and or transformation approaches This book was published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Terrorism New Approaches to Human Dignity in the Context of Qur'ānic Anthropology Rüdiger

Braun,Hüseyin I. Cicek,2017-05-11 In recent years the challenge of relating one's own theological concept of man and his destiny to secular topics such as the inviolability of human dignity has generated a dynamic discourse about how Islamic anthropology can help cultivate and perfect the individual self and social humanisation This anthology brings together contemporary Muslim and non Muslim approaches to the secular notion of human dignity with reference to the Islamic tradition in general and the anthropology of the Qur'an in particular The collection presents approaches to Islamic theological anthropology across a range of fields especially with regard to the narrative of Adam and Iblis which occurs in all monotheistic traditions It focuses on the specific grammars of anthropological narratives at the levels of the canonical text of the Qur'an itself Section I and the interpretations that focus on its performative discourse Section II Further to this the normative implications of the human images that are derived from the canonical text and its interpretations are discussed in Section III The dynamic interdependencies between the hermeneutics of the Qur'an theological anthropology and legal philosophy particularly in the European context are a promising field of research that not only allows a deeper insight into the multiperspectivity and indexicality of theological anthropology but also has the potential to facilitate the long overdue discursive cooperation and rapprochement between Muslim and non Muslim scholarship Fight with extremism and freedom of religion concerns

Gulnar Hasanova,2014-04-27 The main goal of the author in writing this critical book is to support peace in the world This book covers some topical issues One conclusion the author arrived at in this research is that extremism is a pan cultural phenomenon not being endemic to a select group of nations or societies and none of the religions affirm or encourage violence and there is no link between religion and extremism If there is no link between religion and extremism the term religious extremism is just a mask created by extremists for giving the status of holiness to their own activities The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today

Paolo Diego Bubbio,Philip Andrew Quadrio,2011-01-18 The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today is a collection of texts authored by philosophers with an interest in contemporary philosophy of religion its merits and its limitations The collection has been stimulated by such questions as What ought philosophy of religion be and How ought philosophy relate to religion today In pursuing such questions the editors have asked the contributors to offer their insights and reflections on issues that they see as important to contemporary philosophy of religion with the goal of producing a collection of texts offering the reader a variety of perspectives without privileging any particular philosophical religious or irreligious orientation The book covers such themes as the relationship between religion and modernity faith in keeping with reason contemplation the merits and limitations of the atheism and the relationship between philosophy religion and politics Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham,Douglas Pratt,David Thomas,2013-11-21 The ways in which religious communities interact with one another is an increasing focus of scholarly research and teaching Issues of interreligious engagement inclusive of dialogue more specifically and relations more generally attract widespread interest and concern In a religiously pluralist world how different communities get along with each other is not just an academic question it is very much a focus of socio political and wider community attention The study of religions and religion in the 21st century world must necessarily take account of relations within and between religions whether this is approached from a theological historical political or any other disciplinary point of view Understanding Interreligious Relations is a reference work of relevance to students and scholars as well as of interest to a wider informed public It comprises two main parts The first provides expositions and critical discussions of the ways in which the other has been construed and addressed from within the major religious traditions The second presents analyses and discussions of key issues and topics in which interreligious relations are an integral constituent The editors have assembled an authoritative and scholarly work that discusses perspectives on the religious other and interreligious relations that are typical of the major religious traditions together with substantial original chapters from a cross section of emerging and established scholars on main debates and issues in the wider field of interreligious relations

Theological Issues in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Charles Tieszen, 2018-06-08 Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue addresses the main theological topics of discussion that appear in Christian Muslim engagement Many of these topics originate in the medieval period and the earliest encounters between Christians and Muslims Even so the topics persist in contemporary contexts of dialogue and engagement Christians and Muslims still discuss whether or not God should be understood as strictly one or as a Trinity in Unity and debates over the nature of revelation or prophethood remain Theological reflection therefore must continue to be brought to bear on these topics in light of their history and in view of their applicability to growing contexts of inter religious engagement Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue is a comprehensive theological sourcebook for students learning about Christian Muslim relations and practitioners engaged in Christian Muslim dialogue
