Participation and Beliefs in Popular Religiosity

Francesco Zaccaria, 2009-12-16 Many academic disciplines have contributed to the study of popular religiosity but the definition of this phenomenon and of its relation with official religion still remains a problematic topic This book offers an empirical theological investigation of popular religiosity by exploring among Italian Catholics the relation between popular religious participation processions pilgrimages vows et cetera and religious beliefs The investigated beliefs are beliefs about God about human suffering in relation to God about Jesus Christ and about the church The results indicate that popular religious participation influences some of these beliefs This study contributes to an empirically based picture of a complementary relation between popular religiosity and official religion within the Catholic Church in Italy

Our Lady of Guadalupe Jeanette Rodríguez, 2010-07-05 Our Lady of Guadalupe is the most important religious symbol of Mexico and one of the most powerful female icons of Mexican culture In this study based on research done among second generation Mexican American women Rodríguez examines the role the symbol of Guadalupe has played in the development of these women She goes beyond the thematic and religious implications of the symbol to delve into its relevance to their daily lives Rodríguez s study offers an important reinterpretation of one of the New World s most potent symbols Her conclusions dispute the common perception that Guadalupe is a model of servility and suffering Rather she reinterprets the symbol of Guadalupe as a liberating and empowering catalyst for Mexican American women

The Oxford Handbook of Global Religions Mark Juergensmeyer, 2006-10-12 This is a reference for understanding world religious societies in their contemporary global diversity Comprising 60 essays the volume focuses on communities rather than beliefs symbols or rites

It is organized into six sections corresponding to the major living religious traditions the Indic cultural region the Buddhist Confucian the Jewish Christian and Muslim regions and the African cultural region In each section an introductory essay discusses the social development of that religious tradition historically The other essays cover the basic social facts the community s size location organizational and pilgrimage centers authority figures patterns of governance major subgroups and schisms as well as issues regarding boundary maintenance political involvement role in providing cultural identity and encounters with modernity Communities in the diaspora and at the periphery are covered as well as the central geographic regions of the religious traditions Thus for example Islamic communities in Asia and the United States are included along with Islamic societies in the Middle East The contributors are leading scholars of world religions many of whom are also members of the communities they study The essays are written to be informative and accessible to the educated public and to be respectful of the viewpoints of the communities analyzed

State and Society in 21st Century China Peter Hays

Gries, Stanley Rosen, 2004-08-02 Written by a team of leading China scholars this book explores the dynamics of state power and legitimation in twenty first century China and the implications of changing state society relations for the future viability of the People's Republic Key subjects covered include the legitimacy of the Communist Party state society relations ethnic and religious resistance rural and urban contention nationalism popular and youth culture prospects for democracy The "Axial Age" and the Invention of a Shared Future La Civiltà Cattolica, 2022-02-08 A collection of 13 articles from the October 2021 edition of La Civiltà Cattolica the highly respected and oldest Catholic journal published from Rome Our October issue has the latest in our popular series of articles on Pope Francis meetings with local Jesuits during his travels From Myanmar and Thailand to Japan to Peru and Panama the pope takes time to meet his brother Jesuits The latest meeting was in Bratislava Slovakia Along with an account of the meeting our editor in chief Antonio Spadaro has penned another of the journey to Hungary and Slovakia We have two articles on Afghanistan one by our Russian correspondent Vladimir Pachkov SJ who considers the future for Afghanistan amid the renewal of the Great Game The second by our popular American correspondent Drew Christiansen who delivers again with a summary of US domestic opinion We have a piece by Irish theologian Brian O Leary The Mysticism of Ignatius of Loyola that continues our contribution to the Ignatian Year Combatting Throwaway Culture by Wilfred Sumani from Hekima College Kenya reminds us we grow all the food we need to feed the global population but almost a third is lost or wasted So how do we combat this Giovanni Cucci continues his series on the virtues in Thomas Aquinas on Justice Federico Lombardi provides a concise review of the new Vademecum for cases of sexual abuse and the reform of canonical criminal law La Vida Sacra James Empereur, Eduardo Fernández, 2006-10-12 La Vida Sacra Contemporary Hispanic Sacramental Theology is an original insightful approach to the sacraments from the perspective and actual practice of Latinos over the centuries It offers a distinctive take on the actual belief and enculturation of the sacraments in the Latino experience and context Due to the growing presence of Hispanics in this country churches are looking for new and innovative ways to fit them into their congregations The existence of Hispanics and more importantly the value of their religious experiences are being gradually accepted in theological societies Eduardo Fernández and James Empereur's new book fills the need for a more comprehensive and richer context for sacramental theology As the newest book in the Celebrating Faith Series it is ideal for theology courses as well as directors of ministerial programs and their students who are looking to place Hispanic sacramentality in the larger framework of sacramental theology Social Criticism in Popular Religious Literature of the Sixteenth Century Helen C. White, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1966 This is a study into the question of whether religion in general and the Christian religion in particular is to be regarded as an instrument of social stimulation and disturbance or as a means of social reconciliation and stabilisation by focusing on religious literature of the sixteenth century Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 9 (2018) Solange Lefebvre, Alfonso Pérez-Agote Poveda, 2018-09-11 Catholicism is generally over institutionalized and over centralized in comparison to other religions However it finds itself in an increasingly interrelated and globalized world and is therefore immersed in a great plurality of social realities The Changing Faces of Catholicism assembles an international cast of contributors to explore the consequent decline of powerful Catholic organisations as well as to address the responses and resistance efforts that specific countries have taken to counteract the secularization crisis in both Europe and the Americas It reveals some of the strategies of the Catholic Church as a whole and of the Vatican centre in particular to address problems of the global era through the dissemination of spiritually progressive writing World Youth Days and the transformation of Catholic education to become a forum for intercultural and interreligious dialogue The volume also reflects on the adaptation of Catholic institutions and missions as sponsored by religious communities and monastic orders

Re-enchanting Modernity Mayfair Yang, 2020-05-15 In Re-enchanting Modernity Mayfair Yang examines the resurgence of religious and ritual life after decades of enforced secularization in the coastal area of Wenzhou China Drawing on twenty five years of ethnographic fieldwork Yang shows how the local practices of popular religion Daoism and Buddhism are based in community oriented grassroots organizations that create spaces for relative local autonomy and self governance Central to Wenzhou s religious civil society is what Yang calls a ritual economy in which an ethos of generosity is expressed through donations to temples clerics ritual events and charities in exchange for spiritual gain With these investments in transcendent realms Yang adopts Georges Bataille s notion of ritual expenditures to challenge the idea that rural Wenzhou s economic development can be described in terms of Max Weber s notion of a Protestant Ethic Instead Yang suggests that Wenzhou s ritual economy forges an alternate path to capitalist modernity

Christianity, Modernity and Culture John Stenhouse, G. A. Wood, 2005 For much of the twentieth century New Zealand historians like most Western scholars largely took it for granted that as modernity waxed religion would wane Secularization the fading into insignificance of religion would distinguish the modern era from previous ages Until the 1980s only a handful of scholars around the world raised serious empirical and theoretical questions about a Grand Theory that had become central to the self understanding of the social sciences and of the modern world Heated debates since then and the unmistakable resurgence of world religions have raised fundamental questions about the empirical and theoretical adequacy of secularization theory and especially about how far it applies outside Europe This volume revisits New Zealand history when secularization is no longer taken for granted as the Only Big Story that illuminates the country s social and cultural history Contributors explore how New Zealanders diverse religious and spiritual traditions have shaped practical everyday concerns in politics racial and ethnic relations science the environment family life gender relations and other domains

The Problem of Pleasure Dominic Erdozain, 2010 The book combines intellectual cultural and social history to address a major area of encounter between Christianity and British culture the world of leisure This book traces the rise and fall of the evangelical movement the powerhouse of Victorian religion via its preoccupation with pleasure Victorian evangelicalism demonstrated an ability to excite the affections but also a corresponding suspicion of worldly pleasures Suspicion developed into hostility and a movement premised on freedom became coercive and alienating The crisis of Victorian religion began It is generally held that the mid Victorian turn to recreation and sport solved the problem justifying God to the people through cricket cycling and football This book argues otherwise that the problem of pleasure was inflamed by the ecclesiastical remedy The problem of overdrawn boundaries between church and world gave way to a new and subtle confusion of gospel and culture Historians have praised the mood of engagement but the costs were profound In fact sport became the perfect vehicle for that humanistic unmystical morality that defines the secularity of the twentieth century Secularisation did not wait for the Dionysian rebellions of the 1960s it emerged almost a hundred years earlier in the Victorian transformation of religion into ethics Central to the process was the problem of pleasure DOMINIC ERDOZAIN is Lecturer in the History of Christianity King s College London

Practicing Gospel Edward Farley,2003-01-01 Practicing Gospel is a collection of four new and eight previously published essays on the subjects of practical theology homiletics and worship Christian education and pastoral care Edward Farley offers a more faithful approach to the tasks of ministry for seminarians and pastors too often tempted to equate pastoral care with popular psychology good preaching with snappy public speaking or Christian education with flashy curriculum By holding theology and practice in an inescapable partnership Farley rightly re focuses the church s life on its proper object and subject a mysterious transforming God

Latin American Religion in Motion Christian Smith,Joshua Prokopy,2004-11-23 Latin America is undergoing a period of intense religious transformation and upheaval This book analyzes some of the more important new discoveries about religious movements in the region It examines important shifts such as the expansion and politicization of Protestantism the ongoing transformation of the Catholic church the growth of Afro Brazilian religions and the genuine pluralization of faith

Catholicism in Migration and Diaspora Gemma Tulud Cruz,2022-07-28 This book focuses on the Philippines as a powerhouse in the Catholic and global migration landscape It offers a wide ranging look at the roles dynamics character and trajectories of Catholic faith and practice in the age of migration through an interdisciplinary religious and theological approach to Filipino Catholics experience of migration and diaspora both at home and overseas In so doing the book introduces the reader to the hallmarks and characteristics of a contextual model of world Christianity and global Catholicism in the twenty first century

Religions of China in Practice Donald S. Lopez, Jr.,2021-08-10 This third volume of Princeton Readings in Religions demonstrates that the three religions of China Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism with a fourth folk religion sometimes added are not mutually exclusive they overlap and interact with each other in a rich variety of ways The volume also illustrates some of the many interactions between Han culture and the cultures designated by the current government as minorities Selections from minority cultures here for instance are the folktale of Ny Dan the Manchu Shamaness and a funeral chant of the Yi nationality collected by local researchers in the early 1980s Each of the forty unusual selections from ancient oracle bones to stirring accounts of mystic visions is preceded by a substantial introduction As with the other volumes most of the selections here have never been translated before Stephen Teiser provides a general introduction in which the major themes and categories of the religions of China are analyzed The book represents an attempt to move from one conception of the Chinese spirit to a picture of many spirits including a Laozi who acquires magical powers and eventually ascends to heaven in broad daylight the white robed Guanyin one of the most beloved Buddhist deities in China and the burning mouth hungry ghost The book concludes with a section on earthly conduct La Cosecha Eduardo C. Fernández,2000 marks a new stage in the development of U S Hispanic Latino theology Religion and Poverty Benjamin Beit-Hallahmi,Waleed Chellan,Logan Cochrane,Divya Kannan,Alvin Lim,Atara Moscovich,Sabine Müller,Jeremiah Unterman,2015-09-23 Nowadays religions are especially important for those who are living in countries of the formerly so called Third World The miseries of life seem to be so hard that just an afterlife in a transcendent paradise is promising relief Consequently there seems to be a close connection between religion and poverty especially in the 21st century when the hope for a better afterlife has become a driving force of the poor population of the world However what could be interpreted as a proof of the Marxist doctrine of religion as opium of the people for sure deserves a more multiperspectival approach which would not just cover the recent years of human history but past centuries as well as the different religions around the globe Therefore the second issue of Global Humanities traces the interrelationship between religion and poverty not only from a historical but also from a sociological religious and artistic perspective Prophetic Dialogue, Challenges and Prospects in India L. Stanislaus,Alwyn D'Souza,2003 Contributed articles presented at a seminar Russian Culture in Modern Times Robert P. Hughes,Irina Paperno,1994-01-01 The acceptance of Christianity in the tenth century is the most significant cultural event in the history of modern Russia Ukraine and Byelorussia Now Slavic specialists theologians historians and literary scholars can turn to a collection that examines the majestic sweep of a thousand years of Slavic Christianity This three volume collection brings together essays from two international conferences The present volume explores cultural history from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries Volume I published in 1993 examines the history and influences of Christianization from the tenth to the seventeenth century and Volume III will focus on the literature of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries
