The Changing Face Of The Church From American To Global:

The Changing Face of World Missions Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rhee, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10 Dramatic changes have taken place in global society and in the church that have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century This guide helps readers understand these trends

The Rise of the Global South Elijah Jong Fil Kim, 2012-04-06 Global Christianity has been experiencing an unprecedented historical transition from the West to the non Western world The leadership of global Christianity has taken on a new face since the twentieth century Christendom in Europe and America has experienced a great decline while there has been a rise in Majority World Christianity Churches in the Global South have given their voices to global Christianity through their leadership world mission movements and theology The phenomenal church growth has risen from the Pentecostal and Charismatic movement Pentecostalism has become the dominant force in global Christianity today The Rise of the Global South examines the significance this shift has had on global Christianity by going through the history of Christianity in the West and the causes of the shift

The Changing Face of Christianity Lamin Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005-03-10 Over the past century Christianity's place and role in the world have changed dramatically In 1900 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America Today more than 60 percent of the world's Christians live outside of that region This change calls for a reexamination of the way the story of Christianity is told the methodological tools for its analysis and its modes of expression Perhaps most significant is the role of Africa as the new Christian heartland The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being developed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity Some contributions consider the development of non Western forms of Christianity others look at the impact of these new Christianities in the West The authors cover a wide range of topics from the integration of witchcraft and Christianity in Nigeria and the peacemaking role of churches in Mozambique to the American Baptist reception of Asian Christianity The Changing Face of Christianity shows the striking cultural differences between the new world Christianity and its western counterpart But with so many new immigrants in Europe and North America the faith's fault lines are not purely geographical The new Christianity now thrives in American and European settings and northerners need to know this faith better At stake is their ability to be good neighbors and perhaps to be good Christian citizens of the world

Hope and Community Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2017-10-23 The culmination of Karkkainen's multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli-Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book Karkkainen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories

In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church's missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities

Missions from the Majority World Enoch Wan, Micheal Pocock, 2009-09-15 The churches from the whole world are joined in the effort to reach the whole world Although it has been documented that Western missionaries serving outside their countries still comprise the majority of world missions workers the growth rate of majority world missionaries far outpaces that of the West In recent years while Western missionary forces are shrinking in numbers and possibly in influence missions from the majority world have proliferated bringing amazing progress and some challenges Missions from the Majority World represents the thinking of 14 majority world mission scholars and 10 Westerners with lengthy experience in the missionary enterprise The book shows the progress and challenges of missions from the majority world and illustrates this by case studies from Asia Africa and Latin America 2010Boston: The Changing Contours of World Mission and Christianity Todd M. Johnson, Rodney L. Petersen, Gina Bellofatto, Travis Myers, 2012-01-09 In November 2010 three hundred faculty students and others interested in Christian mission gathered in Boston to consider how the world the global church and Christian missions have changed since the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910 and to reflect on the three previous centennial conferences Tokyo 2010 in May Edinburgh 2010 in June and Cape Town 2010 in October Participants at 2010Boston were not delegates from churches and mission agencies but were students and scholars of various aspects of world Christianity representing the Anglican Episcopal Evangelical mainline Protestant Orthodox and Roman Catholic traditions This conference volume consists of nine keynote messages five student presentations three reports from the other conferences and additional materials from or about 2010Boston The keynote messages address the history of mission especially in and from Boston and the current global context for mission and suggest modes for future Christian engagement with the world and one another Student papers address such conference themes as unity in mission mission and postcolonialism and discipleship in context The closing chapter surveys the conference's eight themes and summarizes the outcomes of the 2010Boston process Global Christianity Vebjørn L. Horsfjord, Sven Thore Kloster, Gina Lende, Ole Jakob Løland, 2022-02-28 Over the last few decades Christianity's center of gravity has moved from the global north to the global south While church buildings in Western Europe are being closed or sold new megachurches are filled with believers in Africa and Latin America Charismatic movements practice the Christian religion in new ways challenging the established churches and society at large on all continents This scholarly examination of contemporary World Christianity takes a fresh perspective on Christianity as a cultural political and social force in our time It provides up to date regional surveys gives ample attention to the fastest growing branch of Christianity the Pentecostal movement and focuses sharply on Catholicism which with a wide margin is the world's largest denomination Furthermore it explores how the Christian religion accommodates as well as challenges political social economic and cultural developments American Evangelicalism

Darren Dochuk, Thomas S. Kidd, Kurt W. Peterson, 2014-10-15 No living scholar has shaped the study of American religious history more profoundly than George M Marsden His work spans U S intellectual cultural and religious history from the seventeenth through the twenty first centuries This collection of essays uses the career of George M Marsden and the remarkable breadth of his scholarship to measure current trends in the historical study of American evangelical Protestantism and to encourage fresh scholarly investigation of this faith tradition as it has developed between the eighteenth century and the present Moving through five sections each centered around one of Marsden s major books and the time period it represents the volume explores different methodologies and approaches to the history of evangelicalism and American religion Besides assessing Marsden s illustrious works on their own terms this collection s contributors isolate several key themes as deserving of fresh rigorous and extensive examination Through their close investigation of these particular themes they expand the range of characters and communities issues and ideas and contingencies that can and should be accounted for in our historical texts Marsden s timeless scholarship thus serves as a launchpad for new directions in our rendering of the American religious past

Serving Communities Jason Ferenczi, 2015-10-14 The contexts in which theological schools operate is changing rapidly presenting CEOs administrators faculty and governing bodies with new challenges How can theological schools adapt to these changing contexts while maintaining missional clarity What role do each of these groups of actors play in this process This publication describes the experience of four theological schools and presents some practical suggestions for how they can adapt in dynamic environments

To be One in Christ Fernando A. Ortiz, Gerard J. McGlone, 2015 The priests and pastoral ministers of our day increasingly reflects the multicultural multi ethnic and multi lingual nature of the church in the United States For a variety of reasons they come from diverse ethnic backgrounds and countries of origin Seminaries and religious communities are welcoming international candidates with the vision that diversity strengthens the character and mission of the church Yet this ecclesial diversity also comes with unique challenges To Be One in Christ is a groundbreaking resource that delves into the questions raised by these complexities and provides an in depth analysis from theological sociological psychological cultural and Protestant perspectives Gerard McGlone and Fernando Ortiz are both nationally recognized experts on the integration of psychology and spirituality in priestly life The book they have edited investigates issues answer questions and provide insights on the increasingly multicultural settings and programs affecting seminary and religious formation The comprehensive resource will be welcome by vocation directors seminary formators clergy religious and seminarians

Christianity and Culture Collision Cyril Orji, 2016-08-17 Drawn from the Conference on World Christianity this provocatively titled book invoking images of culture collision particularity and the global South prompts for profoundly new understandings of apparently polar themes inculturation universality and world Christianity Since the emergence of world Christianity is not an epiphenomenon but central to the question of how the gospel is good news for today s world readers concerned about the theological issues related to the possibilities for a genuinely new evangelization will find this volume. It will also be of interest to students and scholars of African ecclesiastical history, world Christianity, and inter religious and inter cultural dialogue. Cyril Orji is Associate Professor of theology at the University of Dayton, Ohio, USA. He specializes in systematic and fundamental theology with particular emphasis on the theology and philosophy of Bernard Lonergan, whom he brings into conversation with the works of the American pragmatist and semiotician Charles Sanders Peirce. Dr Orji also collaborates in inter religious dialogue and the intersection of religion and culture, inculturation, post colonial critical theory, and Black and African theologies, and engages in communal practices of communicative theology in the development of local contextual theologies. He has published numerous articles in various peer reviewed journals and is the author of A Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation (2015), An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies (2015), The Catholic University and the Search for Truth (2013), and Ethnic and Religious Conflicts in Africa: An Analysis of Bias and Conversion Based on the Work of Bernard Lonergan (2008).

Neo-Pentecostalism Nelson Kalombo Ngoy, 2019-05-23. For centuries Pentecostalism has played a significant role in oppressively shaping the life of formerly colonized people of Africa. Moreover, its theologies have perpetuated neocolonial policies developed through the lens of colonial legacies rooted in la mission civilisatrice, mission to civilize. However, since the 1980s Neo Pentecostalism is increasingly reshaping the Congolese Christendom. It sanctions the theologies of a prosperity gospel rooted in an uncritical reading of the Bible and self theologizing informed by a lack of literal contextual translation effects. This book argues that the prosperity gospel bankrupts its adherents; in this case, the vulnerable impoverished sections of Sub Saharan Africa and particularly the Postcolonial Congo, and instead offers a balanced theological reflection that broadens Neo Pentecostal studies with an African voice, encouraging the rewriting and rereading of the story of redemptive mission. The research engages a paradigm shift within global missions and world Christianity or the history of missions as the platform to negotiate literal prophetic and contextual translation and retransmission of the biblical gospel. It is critical to reclaim and reestablish a hermeneutic of mixed methodologies and construct a contextual and critical interpretation of the Bible in the Congo. To avoid the African assumption of cultural baggage which affects how the Congolese interpret the Bible, the interpreter has to be neutral and experience the voice of Christ in the text instead of the voice of Congolese culture; they must be a prophetic voice to reconstruct the authentic meaning of the salvific story.

To All the World Michael Connors, 2016-06-15. Pope Francis's vision of the ministry of preaching offers a renewed emphasis on what it means to preach the Word of God in such a way that it transforms lives and communities and inspires hope. In To All the World, Michael Connors CSC draws together contributions from a variety of expert voices to reflect on the importance of liturgical preaching today. To All the World combines contemporary scholarship with pastoral practicality in one volume by well known practitioners in the ministry of preaching, including Timothy Radcliffe OP, Honora Werner OP, Paul Turner, Jeremy Driscoll OSB, Karla J Bellinger, and Cardinal Donald Wuerl. It will serve as a perfect companion to the United States Bishops document Preaching the Mystery of Faith The Sunday Homily and will be of interest to all those who share the pope's vision and call to be evangelists of the Word to all the world To All the World includes essays by Karla J Bellinger Jeremy Driscoll OSB Cardinal Donald Wuerl Virgilio Elizondo David H Garcia Curtis Martin Susan McGurgan Hosffman Ospino Timothy Radcliffe OP Donald Senior CP Jude Siciliano OP Melvin R Tardy Paul Turner Honora Werner OP An African Pentecostal Hermeneutics Marius Nel, 2018-12-27 The face of African Christianity is becoming Pentecostal African Pentecostalism is a diverse movement but its collective interest in baptism in the Spirit and the result of Pentecost in daily living binds it together Pentecostals read the Bible with the expectation that the Spirit who inspired the authors will again inspire them to hear it as God's word They emphasize the experiential at times at the cost of proper doctrine and practice This book sketches an African hermeneutic that provides guidance to a diverse movement with many faces and serves as corrective for doctrine and practice in the face of some excesses and abuses especially in some parts of the neo Pentecostal movement African Pentecostalism's contribution to the hermeneutical debate is described before three points are discussed that define it the centrality of the Holy Spirit in reading the Bible the eschatological lens that Pentecostals use when they read the Bible and the faith community as normative for the interpretation of the Bible A Survey of World Missions Robin Hadaway, 2020-05-01 Robin Hadaway presents a full survey of world missions addressing biblical theological and historical foundations as well as culture context philosophy and missions strategy African Perspectives on Culture and World Christianity Joseph Ogbonnaya, 2017-05-11 Unlike the global North the ferment of Christianity in the global South among the majority of world people has been astronomical Despite the shift in the center of gravity of Christianity to the global South intra ecclesial tensions globally remain those of the relationship of culture to religion The questions posed revolve around to what extent Western Christianity should be adapted to local cultures Should we talk of Christianity in non Western contexts or of majority world Christianity Is it appropriate to describe the shift as the emergence of global Christianity or world Christianity Should Christianity in the global South mimic Christianity in the global North or can it be different in the light of the diversity of these cultures Can Africans Asians Latin Americans Europeans and North Americans the entire global community speak of God in the same way This book is devoted to examining varieties of the intercultural process in world Christianity It understands culture broadly as a common meaning upon which communities social order is organized Culture in this sense is the whole life of people It is the integrator of the filial bond holding people together and the various institutional structures economic technological political and legal that guarantee peace and survival in societies states and nations both locally and internationally As this book shows the centrality of culture for world Christianity equally showcases the important position the scale of values occupies in world Christianity African Identities and World Christianity in the Twentieth Century Klaus Koschorke, Jens Holger Schjørring, 2005 The map of global Christianity continues to undergo dramatic changes and on this map Africa comes to the fore The proceedings of the Third International Conference at Munich

Freising on the History of Christianity in the Non Western World seek to respond to the growing importance of Africa in the context of World Christianity Prominent scholars from Africa and Europe deal with the manifold manifestations of African Christianity in the 20th century and the various ways in which African and Christian identities were formulated and interacted with each other The negotiation of the local and the global in the process of forming African churches is discussed as is the question of the impact of internal African debates and developments on global ecumenical discussions From the table of contents 16 contributions O U Kalu A Trail of Ferment in African Christianity Ethiopianism Prophetism Pentecostalism K Ward African identities in the historic Mainline Churches A case study of the negotiation of local and global within African Anglicanism A Anderson African Independent Churches and Global Pentecostalism Historical Connections and Common Identities E Kamphausen African Cry Anmerkungen zur Entstehungsgeschichte einer kontextuellen Befreiungstheologie in Afrika A Adamavi Aho Ekue Troubled but not destroyed The development of African Theologies and the paradigm of the Theology of reconstruction K Hock Appropriated Vibrancy Immediacy as a Formative Element in African Theologies

World Christianity and the Unfinished Task F. Lionel Young, III, 2021-03-15 This book is a short introduction to one of the most remarkable transformations in the modern world that many people still do not know about In 1900 more than 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America and nearly all of the world's missionaries were sent out from the West to the rest In a dramatic turn of events Christianity experienced a decidedly Southern shift during the twentieth century Today nearly 70 percent of the world's 2.5 billion Christians live in Africa Asia and Latin America while nearly half of all missionaries are being sent out into all the world from places like Brazil Ethiopia and South Korea This book is intended to change the way readers think about the church and challenge the way the Western Christians engage in contemporary missions

Migration and Diaspora Formation Ciprian Burlăcioiu, 2022-09-20 The role of migration for Christianity as a world religion during the last two centuries has drawn considerable attention from scholars in different fields The main issue this book seeks to address is the question whether and to what extent migration and diaspora formation should be considered as elements of a new historiography of global Christianity including the reflection upon earlier epochs By focusing on migration and diaspora the emerging map of Christianity will include the dimension of movement and interaction between actors in different regions providing a more comprehensive map of agency of individuals and groups previously regarded as passive Furthermore local histories will become parts of a broader picture and historiography might correlate both local and transregional perspectives in a balanced manner Behind this approach lies the desire to broaden the perspective of Ecclesiastical History and religious history in general in a more systematic manner by questioning the traditional criteria of selection This might help us to recover previously lost actors and forgotten dynamics

Working Together with God to Shape the New Millennium Kenneth B. Mulholland, Gary Corwin, 2000 This collection of presentations from the 1999 IFMA EFMA EMS Triennial Conference explores the incredibly ambitious purpose and challenging task of Working Together with God to Shape the New Millennium Topics include Biblical Foundations for the New Millennium Working Together Strategically and Leadership Needed for the New Millennium
