galatreechef With a sad but satisfied heart, we have closed our restaurant. Hiring and retaining quality staff has proven too tough for too long. We are tired of sucking, we have standards you know. But overworking our existing crew is not the answer. There are simply too many of you and not enough of us. Thank you to our current & past teams. Man what a run! Thank you to all of our guests for all of the years. To our vendors, thank you for delivering the goods, always. To the city of Chicago, we loved operating in the greatest food town on the planet. We will come up with a gift card plan and fill you in. There is no gracious way to close a retail business and we apologize for the inconveniences in advance. We wish you all peace and love. Good bye.

maggienmeyer This makes me cry. So many of my favorite memories are of Gale Street and George and Ill. I loved being on the walk and in between the walk. Thank you for feeding us. Thank you for believing in the GPs. We love you forever and ever.

sawickibaker Sad to say, but I've been there, both closing an entire business, and trying to run one without adequate staffing, battling exhaustion and uncomfortable market conditions. Love your "Forever" line and love how an employee that isn't made from your vision. Much love!
