The Aesthetics of Children's Poetry

Katherine Wakely-Mulroney, Louise Joy, 2017-11-01 This collection gives sustained attention to the literary dimensions of children s poetry from the eighteenth century to the present While reasserting the importance of well known voices such as those of Isaac Watts William Blake Lewis Carroll Christina Rossetti A A Milne and Carol Ann Duffy the contributors also reflect on the aesthetic significance of landmark works by less frequently celebrated figures such as Richard Johnson Ann and Jane Taylor Cecil Frances Alexander and Michael Rosen Scholarly treatment of children s poetry has tended to focus on its publication history rather than to explore what comprises and why we delight in its idiosyncratic pleasures And yet arguments about how and why poetic language might appeal to the child are embroiled in the history of children s poetry whether in Isaac Watts emphasising the didactic efficacy of like sounds William Blake and the Taylor sisters revelling in the beauty of semantic ambiguity or the authors of nonsense verse jettisoning sense to thrill their readers with the sheer music of poetry Alive to the ways in which recent debates both echo and repudiate those conducted in earlier periods The Aesthetics of Children s Poetry investigates the stylistic and formal means through which children s poetry in theory and in practice negotiates the complicated demands we have made of it through the ages

From Tongue to Text: A New Reading of Children's Poetry Debbie Pullinger, 2017-05-04 The connection between childhood and poetry runs deep And yet poetry written for children has been neglected by criticism and resists prevailing theories of children s literature Drawing on Walter

Ong's theory of orality and on Iain McGilchrist's work on brain function this book develops a new theoretical framework for the study of children's poetry From Tongue to Text argues that the poem is a multimodal form that exists in the borderlands between the world of experience and the world of language and between orality and literacy places that children themselves inhabit Engaging with a wide range of poetry from nursery rhymes and Christina Rossetti to Michael Rosen and Carol Ann Duffy Debbie Pullinger demonstrates how these tactful works are shaped by the dynamics of orality and textuality
