The Chinese Enlightenment Vera Schwarcz, 1986 It is widely accepted both inside China and in the West that contemporary Chinese history begins with the May Fourth Movement Vera Schwarcz's imaginative new study provides China scholars and historians with an analysis of what makes that event a turning point in the intellectual spiritual cultural and political life of twentieth century China The Chinese Enlightenment Vera Schwarcz, 1986 China's May Fourth Movement Sabaree Mitra, 2023-02-28 This book looks at China's May Fourth Movement and how it has been contextualised in modern Chinese history Tracing the roots of the movement and of modern Chinese literary and intellectual traditions the book analyses how the movement transformed ideas culture and social practices in the country The volume presents a critical in depth study of the May Fourth Movement from interdisciplinary perspectives With essays written by scholars and experts from India China and the West it discusses concepts and themes such as nationalism the citizen and revolutionary morality in the late Qing dynasty as well as Lu Xun's struggle with the aporetic temporalities of capitalist modernity the May Fourth spirit and the Communist Party of China the birth of the New Woman and the literature cinema and art produced during the movement It also examines how the waves created by the movement in Chinese culture and society continue to influence and shape events and thoughts in contemporary times This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of Chinese Studies Chinese history Asian Studies Asian history political history and cultural history Chinese Émigré Intellectuals and Their Quest for Liberal Values in the Cold War, 1949-1969 Kenneth Kai-chung Yung, 2021-10-11 By examining the life and thought of self exiled Chinese intellectuals after 1949 by placing them in the context of the global Cold War Kenneth Kai chung Yung argues that Chinese intellectuals living in Hong Kong Taiwan and overseas Chinese communities in the 1950s could not escape from the global anti utopian Cold War currents Each of them responded to such currents quite differently Yung also examines different models of nation building advocated by the migr intellectuals and argues in his book that these migr intellectuals inherited directly the multifaceted Chinese liberal tradition that was well developed in the Republican era 1911 1949 Contrary to existing literature that focus mostly on the New Confucians or the liberals this study highlights that moderate socialists cannot be ignored as an important group of Chinese migr intellectuals in the first two decades of the Cold War era This book will inspire readers who are concerned about the prospects for democracy in contemporary China by painting a picture of the Chinese self exiles experiences in the 1950s and 1960s The Intellectual Foundations of Chinese Modernity Edmund S. K. Fung, 2010-03-22 In the early twentieth century China was on the brink of change Different ideologies those of radicalism conservatism liberalism and social democracy were much debated in political and intellectual circles Whereas previous works have analyzed these trends in isolation Edmund S K Fung shows how they related to one another and how intellectuals in China engaged according to their cultural and political persuasions The author argues that it is this interrelatedness and interplay between different schools of thought that are central to the understanding of Chinese modernity for many of the debates that began in the Republican era still resonate in China today The book charts the development of these ideologies and explores the work and influence of the intellectuals who were associated with them In its challenge to previous scholarship and the breadth of its approach the book makes a major contribution to the study of Chinese political philosophy and intellectual history Remembering May Fourth Carlos Yu-Kai Lin, Victor H.

Mair, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Carlos Yu Kai Lin Remembering May Fourth The Movement and its Centennial Legacy is a collective work of thirteen scholars who reflect on the question of how to remember the May Fourth Movement one of the most iconic socio political events in the history of modern China The book discusses a wide range of issues concerning the relations between politics and memory between writing and ritualizing between fiction and reality and between theory and practice Remembering May Fourth thus calls into question the ways in which the movement is remembered while at the same time calling for the need to create new memories of the movement The Making of a World Order Albert Wu, Stephen W. Sawyer, 2023-09-14 Why does 1919 deserve further study and debate a hundred years later What lessons for global history may we learn from the world order created at the end of the Great War Drawing insight from the global turn of the past several decades that has forced us to reconsider the most important world events and processes since the French Revolution and especially the growing interest in World War I as a global conflict that extended far beyond the borders of Europe this volume explores the global political ramifications of the treaties prepared at the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 by focusing on key topics how the Paris Peace Conference re shaped the geo political configurations of the Middle East the importance of transformations in Asia and particularly China in the immediate postwar period the shifts in Southeastern Europe new feminist movements in Central Europe and the pre history of neoliberalism Read together the papers demonstrate how the peace treaties signed in 1919 and 1920 marked a profound transformation on local national continental and global scales Confucian Iconoclasm Philippe Major, 2023-12-01 Confucian Iconoclasm

proposes a novel account of the emergence of modern Confucian philosophy in Republican China 1912 1949 challenging the historiographical paradigm that modern or New Confucianism sought to preserve traditions against the iconoclasm of the May Fourth Movement Through close textual analyses of Liang Shuming's Eastern and Western Cultures and Their Philosophies 1921 and Xiong Shili's New Treatise on the Uniqueness of Consciousness 1932 Philippe Major argues that the most successful modern Confucian texts of the Republican period were nearly as iconoclastic as the most radical of May Fourth intellectuals Questioning the strict dichotomy between radicalism and conservatism that underscores most historical accounts of the period Major shows that May Fourth and Confucian iconoclasts were engaged in a politics of antitradition aimed at the monopolization of intellectual commodities associated with universality autonomy and liberty Understood as a counter hegemonic strategy Confucian iconoclasm emerges as an alternative iconoclastic project to that of May Fourth
