The Chinese Portrait

John Fraser

The Chinese Portrait:

The Chinese Alain Peyrefitte, 1976 The Chinese John Fraser, 1981 Portrait Fever Tang Xin, 2023-04 The first academic insight into the Taikang photography collection High quality pictures of this revered gallery accompanied by essays from the experts A glimpse into how portrait photography has shaped the history of China From political leaders to celebrities photographic portraits exert considerable influence over our reaction to public figures As the first academic publication focused on the Taikang photography collection this book explores both the mechanics of portraiture and its psychological effects Taikang Space is one of the most important non profit art institutions in China Based in Beijing they focus on contemporary art and photography Portrait Fever is based on the framework of the eponymous exhibition which ran at Taikang Space from March 2017 This book introduces the curator and researchers involved with the exhibition as well as researchers such as Shi Zhimin Jin Yongquan Liu Jianping Liu Zhangbolong who deliver their own unique angles on the topic of portrait photography Portrait Fever also features the curator s interviews with Qia Sijie Chen Shilin and Zhang Zuo respectively the personal photographer standard portrait re toucher and darkroom technician of Chairman Mao

Faces of China Klaas Ruitenbeek, 2017-10 Faces of China is the first exhibition explicitly dedicated to Chinese portrait painting The selection of more than 100 paintings from the collections of the Palace Museum Beijing and the Royal Ontario Museum Toronto most of which have never been shown in Europe spans a period of more than 500 years The main focus is on the unique portraits of the Qing Dynasty including images of members of the imperial court ancestors and military figures An extensive catalog will accompany the exhibition

Chinese; Portrait of a People Roger Peyrefitte, 1977 A Chinese Portrait Manshih Yonfan, Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting Richard M. Barnhart, Xin Yang, Nie Chongzheng, James Cahill, Hung Wu, Lang Shaojun, 1997-01-01 Written by a team of eminent international scholars this book is the first to recount the history of Chinese painting over a span of some 3000 years

Chinese Painting and Its Audiences Craig Clunas, 2023-10-17 A history of the reception of Chinese painting from the sixteenth century to the present What is Chinese painting When did it begin And what are the different associations of this term in China and the West In Chinese Painting and Its Audiences which is based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts given at the National Gallery of Art leading art historian Craig Clunas draws from a wealth of artistic masterpieces and lesser known pictures some of them discussed here in English for the first time to show how Chinese painting has been understood by a range of audiences over five centuries from the Ming Dynasty to today Chinese Painting and Its Audiences demonstrates that viewers in China and beyond have irrevocably shaped this great artistic tradition Arguing that audiences within China were crucially important to the evolution of Chinese painting Clunas considers how Chinese artists have imagined the reception of their own work By examining paintings that depict people looking at paintings he introduces readers to ideal types of viewers the scholar the gentleman the merchant the nation and the people In discussing the changing audiences for Chinese art Clunas emphasizes that the diversity and quantity of images in Chinese culture make it impossible to generalize definitively about what constitutes Chinese painting Exploring the complex relationships between works of art and those who look at them Chinese Painting and Its Audiences sheds new light on how the concept of Chinese painting has been formed and reformed over hundreds of years Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size

Early Chinese Painting William Gates,1916 An Introduction to the Study of Chinese Painting Arthur Waley,1923

Reading Chinese Painting Sophia Suk Law,Tony Blishen,2024-02-15 Applying a comparative approach to Chinese and Western art this book examines the characteristics of traditional Chinese art and analyses the distinction between figure painting and portraiture It examines the scenery in Chinese landscape painting and the sense of poetry within the paintings of flowers and birds so that the reader comes to understand the unique essence of Chinese art and is gradually led towards the ethereal world of spiritual abstraction displayed in Chinese painting The author relates the development of Chinese painting to the pursuit of the conceptual sense yijing found in Chinese philosophy and classical literature She describes how Confucianism determined the content of the development of painting while Daoism guided the concept of aestheticism within it Professor Law also examines the way in which differences of method and media profoundly influenced the artistic outcome producing the western skills in the handling of color and light and shade and in China the imaginative use of ink on paper All this is reflected in numerous illustrations ranging from Van Gogh to the great Chinese painters of all the different dynasties from the early Jin dynasty to the Ming and Qing dynasties After reading this book readers will follow the author s rich experience in Chinese painting to understand the characteristics of the different genres of Chinese painting and be able to deeply appreciate the inner meaning of Chinese painting The Chinese Literati on Painting Susan Bush,2012-11-01

This classic work first published in 1971 explores the transition in painting styles from the late Sung period to the art of Yuan dynasty literati Building on the pioneering work of Oswald Siren and James Cahill Susan Bush s investigations of painting done under the Chin dynasty confirmed the dominance of scholar artists in the north and their gradual development of scholarly painting traditions and a related study of Northern Sung writings showed that their theory was shaped as much by the views of their social class as by their artistic aims Bush s perspective on Sung scholars art and theory helps explain the emergence of literati painting as the main artistic tradition in Yuan times Social history thus served to supplement an understanding of the evolution of artistic styles Body and Face in Chinese Visual Culture Hung Wu,Katherine R.

Tsiang,2020-03-17 Traditionally the Chinese body was approached as a totality and explained by sweeping comparisons of the differences that distinguished Chinese examples from their Western counterparts Recently scholars have argued that we must look at particular examples of Chinese images of the body and explore their intrinsic conceptual complexity and historical specificity The twelve contributors to this volume adopt a middle position They agree that Chinese images are conditioned by indigenous traditions and dynamics of social interaction but they seek to explain a general Chinese body and face by charting multiple specific bodies and faces All of the chapters are historical case studies and investigate particular images such as Han dynasty tomb figurines Buddhist texts and illustrations pictures of deprivation illness deformity and ghosts clothing formal portraiture and modern photographs and films From the diversity of art forms and historical periods studied there emerges a more complex picture of ways that the visual culture of the body and face in China has served to depict the living memorialize the dead and present the unrepresentable in art

French Language Politics and Education in Nigeria Michael Akinpelu, Tunde Ajiboye, 2025-10-02 This book highlights the current trends and challenges of French learning in Nigeria's formal education system Edited by Michael Akinpelu and Tunde Ajiboye French Language Politics and Education in Nigeria Building Human Capital and a Multilingual Nation discusses the teaching learning of French in Nigeria and its roles in building human capital and fostering meaningful relationships with Francophone nations in the sub region Presenting varying approaches contributors postulate a renewal of pedagogical approaches to the teaching of French as a foreign language while others call on government authorities to promote and implement language policies in favor of French that take into account the realistic needs of the country Comprised of three parts part I examines the relationship between language policies and the texture of French educational planning in Nigeria Part II reflects on policy enunciations and interpretations that affect both the present and future as well as the challenges that French teaching and learning in the Nigerian educational system Part III explores policy decisions on French language education Through detailed analysis and interview data Akinpelu Ajiboye and the contributors argue for renewed approaches to French language studies in Nigeria from practical sociolinguistic pressures

The Chinese Eye Chiang Yee, 2022-05-18 This book first published in 1935 examines the world of Chinese painting the background styles audience and reception intentions and achievements Written with a Western readership in mind it intends to put Chinese visual art in the perspective of its history and culture and clarify its ideas and meanings

Photo Poetics Shengqing Wu, 2020-12-08 Chinese poetry has a long history of interaction with the visual arts Classical aesthetic thought held that painting calligraphy and poetry were cross fertilizing and mutually enriching What happened when the Chinese poetic tradition encountered photography a transformative technology and presumably realistic medium that reshaped seeing and representing the world Shengqing Wu explores how the new medium of photography was transformed by Chinese aesthetic culture She details the complex negotiations between poetry and photography in the late Qing and early Republican eras examining the ways traditional textual forms collaborated with the new visual culture Drawing on extensive archival research into illustrated magazines poetry collections and vintage photographs Photo Poetics analyzes a wide range of practices and genres including self representation in portrait photography gifts of inscribed photographs mass media circulation of images of beautiful women and photography of ghosts immortals and imagined landscapes Wu argues that the Chinese lyrical tradition provided rich resources for artistic creativity self expression and embodied experience in the face of an increasingly technological and image oriented society An interdisciplinary study spanning literary studies visual culture and media history Photo Poetics is an original account of media culture in early twentieth century China and the formation of Chinese literary and visual modernities Essential Terms of Chinese Painting Maria CHENG, TANG Wai Hung, Eric CHOY, 2018-05-02 Essential Terms of Chinese Painting provides a comprehensive coverage of the broad spectrum of Chinese painting Through an array of some 900 terms it exhibits the history of Chinese culture as interpreted by artists and portrayed in their work In masterful detail it describes not only the artistic implements and drawing styles but also how these are influenced by changing cultural considerations over time such as religion philosophy intellectual ideas and political developments From the broad view of how the change of dynasties affected painting trends in both format and subject to the smallest detail of the methods used to paint different styles of tree branches this is a full compendium of the scope and depth of artwork from China This volume features twelve chapters which explore all major areas of art including techniques implements and materials inscriptions and seals painting and mounting formats for all categories including landscape bird and flower figure and auspicious paintings provide a helpful resource for readers to enjoy Chinese art with over 500 full colour illustrations and pictures to further elaborate the terms discussed serve as an introduction to begin a true understanding of traditional Chinese painting Early Chinese Painting W. Gates, The Chinese Eye Yee Chiang, 1964 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2000
