The Christian And Anxiety:

The Christian and Anxiety Hans Urs Von Balthasar, 2011-09-20 From Luther to Kierkegaard from Heidegger to Sartre the theme of anguish has dominated both philosophy and spiritual theology In our societies of depression where individuals confront their own loneliness this theme has recently regained its intensity In these dense and luminous pages he is not content merely to show how much this feeling is profoundly inscribed in the heart and the word of God from the Psalms to the Gospels but he enters into intimate dialogue with contemporary thought and in particular its existentialist expression For Balthasar the Christian faith does not offer a ready made response but is simultaneously a journey through the torment of the cross and the liberation from fear by the gift of grace In the wake of a Bernanos or a P y Balthasar emphasizes how much confidence in God leads to a hope which is inexhaustible

Balthasar and Anxiety John R. Cihak, 2011-10-20 This study offers a theological response to the problem of anxiety from the point of view of Hans Urs von Balthasar It is a systematic presentation analysis and development of Balthasar s original theology of anxiety found in his only work on the subject Der Christ und die Angst The study takes a thematic approach based upon the four types of analysis found in Der Christ und die Angst phenomenological anthropological theological and ecclesial These four approaches to the topic correspond to the phenomenon origins redemption and transformation of anxiety Through this thematic approach Balthasar s thought is examined in relation to some of the important figures on anxiety The phenomenon of anxiety is presented in relation to modern psychiatry The examination of anxiety s origins places him in dialogue with Kierkegaard on anxiety from discursive reasoning and Freud on anxiety from ego consciousness The redemption of anxiety places Balthasar in relation to Aquinas in order to clarify Balthasar s interpretation and to show its significance in the theological tradition The transformation of anxiety places our author in dialogue with Luther on the shape of anxiety in the Christian life The final chapter begins to unravel the construct of anxiety with a brief exploration of how it is transformed in the Church according to Balthasar something he had never explicitly developed The influence of Bernanos on Balthasar s thought is felt throughout the study The entire study is framed by the two Gardens wherein transpire the most significant events concerning anxiety for Balthasar the Garden of Eden and the Garden of Gethsemane

Jesus > Anxiety R. John Anderson,2016-01-15 Is your life marked by a state of continual peace or one of constant uneasiness worry and anxiety over nearly all things Anxiety today is of epidemic proportions But that just should not be anxiety has no part in the life of a Christian For the Christian anxiety is caused by a lack of faith and trust in the Lord This is a very important subject for I constantly see Christians as anxious and worried as those who do not even know God and some even more so But God promises His peace The Peace of God which surpasses all understanding to those who call on His holy name through prayer in faith We are to trust in the lord for all things not just some things Remember in Whom you have placed your faith the God who simply spoke the entire universe and all life into existence He is NOT a small God And know that He rules and reigns supreme right now this very day over all matters great and small and victory has already been won for He has overcome The objectives of this book are threefold 1 Explain that anxiety for a Christian is simply caused by a lack of faith and trust in the Lord 2 Show how you overcome anxiety and obtain the Peace of God which surpasses all understanding 3 Provide specific examples and prayers that you can use when faced with difficult situations Theological Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner,Peter John McGregor,M.
