The Christian Challenge A Shortened Version Of On Being A Christian:

The Christian Challenge Hans Küng, 1978 The question of what Christianity wants what Christianity is has become acute Today others are not simply saying something different but often the same thing Non Christians too are in favour of love justice a meaning to life being good humanity And in practice they often go further than Christians in this respect But if others say the same thing what is the point of being a Christian Today Christianity is involved everywhere in a double confrontation with the great world religions on the one hand and with the non Christian secular humanisms on the other And today the question is thrust even on the Christian who has hitherto been institutionally sheltered and ideologically immunized in the churches compared with the world religions and modern humanisms is Christianity something essentially different really something special

Disputed Truth Hans Küng, 2014-07-03 The second volume of riveting memoirs from Hans Kung the leading and controversial theologian Hans K ng has been a major influence on post war Christianity by any reckoning A peritus for the second Vatican council he then went on to publish a number of controversial books including Infallible An Enquiry 1971 which enraged the Vatican and caused him to lose the ecclesiastical approval of his teaching at the university of T bingen However he remains a respected priest in good standing with his bishop Throughout all the upheavals that the Catholic Church has undergone in recent decades K ng has been an outspoken observer turning himself from enfant terrible to b te noire However his world influence has been great Whether speaking at the United Nations or consorting with politicians and religious leaders he is always listened to with respect and enthusiasm A string of recent books has added to his reputation notably On Being a Christian 1974 and Does God Exist An Answer for Today 1980 What is not so well known is that as a young man K ng was a close friend and confidant of Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI Over the years however they increasingly came to represent exactly what the other most despised On being appointed to the Holy See Ratzinger had a long private meeting with K ng the consequences of which may resonate within the Catholic Church for many years In these thrilling memoirs K ng gives his personal account of all these struggles and ambitions The result is a book of major importance for any student of the church in the 20th century This second volume covers the period following the close of the Second Vatican Council right up to the present day

The Christian Challenge Hans Kung, 1991 Christianity and Confucianism Christopher Hancock, 2020-12-10 Christianity and Confucianism Culture Faith and Politics sets comparative textual analysis against the backcloth of 2000 years of cultural political and religious interaction between China and the West As the world responds to China s rise and China positions herself for global engagement this major new study reawakens and revises an ancient conversation As a generous introduction to biblical Christianity and the Confucian Classics Christianity and Confucianism tells a remarkable story of mutual formation and cultural indebtedness East and West are shown to have shaped the mind heart culture philosophy and politics of the other and far more perhaps than either knows or would want to admit Christopher Hancock has provided a rich and stimulating resource for scholars and students diplomats and social

New Makers of Modern Culture Wintle Justin, 2013-05-13 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s. The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing, the distinguished contributors, and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included. New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty-five years and the epochal changes that have occurred: the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union, the rise and fall of postmodernism, the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism, the triumph of the Internet. Containing over eight hundred essay-style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present, New Makers includes artists, writers, dramatists, architects, philosophers, anthropologists, scientists, sociologists, major political figures, composers, film makers, and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview. Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley; next to John Ruskin is Salmon Rushdie; alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola; Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida; Julia Kristeva with Kropotkin. Once again, Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer, Bernard Crick, Edward Seidensticker, and Paul Preston. In a few cases, for example, Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin, contributors are themselves the subject of entries. With its global reach, New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi-voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world. The entries carry short bibliographies, and there is thorough cross-referencing. There is an index of names and key terms.

The Living Church, 1967

New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture will be widely acquired by both higher education and public libraries. Bibliographies are attached to entries, and there is thorough cross-referencing.

A Short World History of Christianity, Revised Edition Robert Bruce Mullin, 2014-11-22 Church historians have long known and appreciated Christianity's global history. Until recently, however, introductory textbooks on the history of Christianity focused almost exclusively on Europe and North America. Robert Bruce Mullin's A Short World History of Christianity by contrast offers a panoramic picture of the history of Christianity in its Western and non-Western expressions. It tells the story of the early church in the Greek East as well as the Latin West, of Christianity's spread into Asia as well as Europe during the Middle Ages and its explosion around the world during the modern period. Mullin's highly readable narrative explores why global perspectives have emerged so strongly in our understanding of the story of Christianity and how they have impacted Christianity's perspective on its place in the world. This newly revised edition adds information on such global phenomena as early Syriac-speaking Christianity, the growth of Pentecostalism around the world, especially in the southern hemisphere, and recent trends in Christianity, including the elevation of the first pope born in the Americas. A time line of key dates, call-out boxes, and other helpful study materials are also provided. Beginning students will appreciate this memorable introduction to the most important events in the history and development of Christianity.
