Church William Jones,1837 State of the Christian Church Fred Bernal,2022-03-09 With an eternal perspective the pages of this book express a deep desire that the members of the body of Christ be empowered to return to the simple message of the first century church to reconcile the world to its loving Creator for their everlasting abode with him In an effort to bring unity these pages will focus on the essential beliefs that can unite all believers as it identifies some nonessentials that tend to divide them As some current aspects of today s church are compared to the early church the reader will be challenged to rethink how today s church should redirect its priorities energy and resources to fulfill its divine mission to bring light and hope to all the inhabitants of the world It is through the eyes of our Savior s own words that this comparison can be made It is all about him He came to announce the kingdom to teach the principles of that kingdom to live by and to open the door to that kingdom by taking our sins and dying on the cross for us He is the one who desires that all his own be one He is the one who brought the message of life after death He is the one that desires that his children be a sanctified people Finally it is not a case of if Jesus were here today but it is a reality that he will come soon to receive all who love his appearing It is the aim of this book to help prepare his people to receive him as a sanctified church busy in advancing his everlasting purposes The Church of Christ: a Treatise on the Nature, Powers, Ordinances, Discipline, and Government of the Christian Church. By the Late J. Bannerman. Edited by His Son (D. D. Bannerman). James BANNERMAN (Professor of Theology, New College, Edinburgh.),1868 What Is the Christian Church?, Or, Who Are the Disciples of Christ? ,1883 History of the Christian Church James Craigie Robertson,1868 History of the Christian Church Philip Schaff,1889 The Christian Church; Its Constitution, Principles, Functions, and Powers, as Represented in the Holy Scriptures, Etc William Dexter WILSON,1843 Women's History of the Christian Church Elizabeth Gillan Muir,2019-01-01 Tracing two thousand years of female leadership influence and participation Elizabeth Gillan Muir examines the various positions women have filled in the church From the earliest female apostle and the little known stories of the two Marys the Virgin Mary and Mary Magdalene to the enlightened duties espoused by the nun the abbess and the anchorite and the persecutions of female witches Muir uncovers the rich and often tumultuous relationship between women and Christianity Offering broad coverage of both the Catholic and Protestant traditions and extending geographically well beyond North America A Women s History of the Christian Church presents a chronological account of how women developed new sects and new churches such as the Quakers and Christian Science The book includes a timeline of women in Christian history over 25 black and white illustrations a glossary and a list of primary and secondary sources to complement the content in each chapter Jesus and the Church Paul Avis,2020-11-26 What is church s true foundation Was the Christian church founded by Jesus or does the Eucharist make the church Paul Avis sets out his own answer to these questions Gathering a wide range of critical scholarship he argues that there is something solid and dependable at the foundation of the church s life and mission Avis argues that Jesus wanted a church in a sense but not as we know it Christ proclaimed the gospel of the Kingdom and his disciples proclaimed the gospel whose content was Jesus himself the Kingdom in person The church is battered and divided but at its core is a treasure that is indestructible the gospel of Christ embodied in word and sacrament A central theme of the book is the relationship between the church and Christ the church and the gospel the church and the Kingdom Jesus Christ crucified and risen is the sole foundation of the church but he cannot be without his people

Excerpt from History of the Christian Church From Its First Establishment to the Present Century

Mysterious are the degrees of God with respect to man often slow in their operation but always certain in their effect Man had lost himself by sinning God promised him a Redeemer but a period of about four thousand years elapsed before that promise was fulfilled Our first parents Adam and Eve were originally created in a state of innocence and were finally designed by their bountiful Creator for the supernatural enjoyment of his glory in heaven They had the garden of Eden a paradise of earthly delights allotted them for a temporary abode till their translation into the heavenly mansions of everlasting bliss They were endowed with free will that they might have the merit of obeying and honouring their Creator by choice for the merit of their obedience they had but one easy precept to observe and that was to abstain from the fruit of a certain tree under the penalty of death Such was their primitive situation A fallen angel envious of their happiness resolved to attempt their ruin He entered the garden in a serpents form addressed himself to Eve in a most artful manner and by deceitful assurances at last persuaded her to eat the forbidden fruit She prevailed on Adam to eat also By this deliberate act of disobedience they both incurred the penalty denounced against it in vain did they try to shift the blame from one to another they were driven out of paradise loaded with shame and remorse and condemned to drag out life in painful labour till death should reduce their bodies into dust again out of which they had been first formed The gate of heaven was moreover shut against them and against their whole posterity until full atonement should be made for their transgression Great was their affliction for the evil they had done but God was pleased to comfort them with the promise that the time would come when the woman s offspring should crush the serpent s head Human nature being thus tainted with sin in its very root a vicious race of mortals soon began to spring up and multiply The corruption of their hearts and morals provoked the vengeance of an insulted Deity God deluged the earth with one universal flood and in the watery abyss buried every living creature that was not in Noah s Ark Of all mankind only eight persons escaped destruction these reseeded the earth with new inhabitants not better than the former In the space of a single century their progeny became too numerous for the spot the inhabited Necessity compelled them to separate in quest of other settlements
