Gail Ramshaw, 2013-07-01 With over twenty years in the classroom Gail Ramshaw frames this new introduction to Christianity survey text around the basic questions students ask Taking a broad social scientific approach and integrating historical context she anchors each chapter in phenomenological theory and teases out the answers to each chapter's question by surveying the history doctrine practices and convictions of Christianity Written for students with little to no background in Christianity the book contains student friendly learning helps including chapter summaries photos and charts I am a Christian statements that illustrate the diversity of practice and belief study questions suggestions for further exploration in both books and film a glossary and an index The Christian Looks at Himself Anthony A. Hoekema, 1975 What kind of self image should Christians have Should they see themselves primarily as unworthy sinners before a holy God The biblical view Anthony A Hoekema argues in this readable study is that humanity having been made in God's own image was the capstone of God's creation Even when we fell God considered us of such worth that he gave up his only Son to redeem humanity And in Christ as Paul makes plain we are made into new creatures This does not mean that the redeemed live a life of sinless perfection it does mean that what is most distinctive about them is the new life they have in Christ And this new life entitles Christians to a self image that is essentially positive Accepting the biblical view of our worth can be difficult for Christians burdened with feelings of guilt How can such Christians learn to see themselves in better light And how can others in the Christian community preachers counselors teachers and parents help fellow members to attain the positive self image that is essential to the Christian faith Part Two of The Christian Looks at Himself offers concrete answers to these questions and in doing so points up the social dimension of being in Christ As Christians accept themselves as creatures made new in Christ so in love they must also fully accept fellow Christians as recreated in that same Christ ANTHONY A HOEKEMA 1913-1988 was former professor emeritus of systematic theology at Calvin Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids Michigan His other books include Created in God's Image Saved by Grace and The Bible and the Future The Christian's View of the Cause and Remedy of the Present National Distress.
