A thoroughly revised and expanded edition of this classic work to complete John McIntyre's trilogy in Christian doctrine: soteriology, pneumatology, and Christology. McIntyre analyses the three classic christological formulations: the two-nature model with divine and human natures uniting in Jesus Christ; the psychological model derived from the Chalcedonian understanding of the humanity of Christ; and from a strong devotional desire to know his mind and the revelation model which has dominated Western Christology for most of the twentieth century.
