The Plastic Nightmare:

The Plastic Nightmare Richard Neely, 1971 The Plastic Nightmare / While Love Lay Sleeping Richard Neely, 2021-02-22 THE PLASTIC NIGHTMARE When he comes out of the coma they tell him he's been in a very serious accident His car flew off the side of the road throwing his wife clear but badly disfiguring him in the smashup They've performed plastic surgery on him but the problem is he doesn't remember any of it He doesn't even remember who he is Dan Marriott only knows that he has a sexy wife named Judith partnership in a successful stockbroker firm and a beautiful home in the Marin hills But none of it seems familiar to him Then he begins to discover that his happy marriage hadn't been so happy that there had been another man that possibly he had been set up to drive over that cliff If only he could remember before they try to kill him again WHILE LOVE LAY SLEEPING Twenty years ago Paul Sevrance returned from World War II to find that his young wife Cathie had committed suicide in her apartment The ghost of that past still haunts him Now he is going through her trunk for the first time since the tragedy and discovers a letter she had written to him the same day she turned on the gas but had never sent He also finds her suicide note But something just doesn't make sense here Part of the suicide note has been cut away And nothing in Cathie's letter indicates the thoughts of a woman contemplating killing herself While Paul was away could his wife have had an affair and if so could her suicide have been instead a case of murder

Provocative Plastics Susan Lambert, 2021-01-07 Plastics have now been our most used materials for over fifty years This book adopts a new approach exploring plastics contribution from two perspectives as a medium for making and their value in societal use The first approach examines the multivalent nature of plastics materiality and their impact on creativity through the work of artists designers and manufacturers The second perspective explores attitudes to plastics and the different value systems applied to them through current research undertaken by design materials and socio-cultural historians The book addresses the environmental impact of plastics and elucidates the ways in which they can and must be part of the solution The individual viewpoints are provocative and controversial but together they present a balanced and scholarly unpicking of the debate that surrounds this ubiquitous group of materials The book is essential reading for a wide academic readership interested in the Arts and Humanities especially Design and Design History Anthropology and Cultural Material and Social Histories Digital Innovations for a Circular Plastic Economy in Africa Muyiwa Oyinlola, Oluwaseun Kolade, 2023-05-31 Plastic pollution is one of the biggest challenges of the twenty-first century that requires innovative and varied solutions Focusing on sub-Saharan Africa this book brings together interdisciplinary multi-sectoral and multi-stakeholder perspectives exploring challenges and opportunities for utilising digital innovations to manage and accelerate the transition to a circular plastic economy CPE This book is organised into three sections bringing together discussion of environmental conditions operational dimensions and country case studies of digital transformation towards the circular plastic economy It explores the environment for digitisation in the circular economy bringing together perspectives from practitioners in academia innovation policy civil society and government agencies The book also highlights specific country case studies in relation to the development and implementation of different innovative ideas to drive the circular plastic economy across the three sub Saharan African regions Finally the book interrogates the policy dimensions and practitioner perspectives towards a digitally enabled circular plastic economy Written for a wide range of readers across academia policy and practice including researchers students small and medium enterprises SMEs digital entrepreneurs non governmental organisations NGOs and multilateral agencies policymakers and public officials this book offers unique insights into complex multilayered issues relating to the production and management of plastic waste and highlights how digital innovations can drive the transition to the circular plastic economy in Africa The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Beyond Straw Men Phaedra C. Pezzullo, 2023-08-22 Addressing plastics can feel overwhelming Guilt shame anger hurt fear dismissiveness and despair abound Beyond Straw Men moves beyond hot take or straw man fallacies by illustrating how affective counterpublics mobilized around plastics reveal broader stories about environmental justice and social change Inspired by on and offline organizing in the Global South and the Global South of the North Phaedra C Pezzullo engages public controversies and policies through analysis of hashtag activism campaign materials and podcast interviews with headline making advocates in Bangladesh Kenya the United States and Vietnam She argues that plastics have become an articulator of crisis and an entry point into the contested environmental politics of carbon heavy masculinity carceral policies planetary fatalism eco ableism greenwashing marine life endangerment pollution colonialism and waste imperialism Attuned to plastic attachments Beyond Straw Men illustrates how everyday people resist unsustainable patterns of the plastics industrial complex through imperfect but impactful networked cultures of care

A Nightmare's Prayer Michael Franzak, 2010-06-15 Winner of the 2012 Colby Award and the first Afghanistan memoir ever to be written by a Marine Harrier pilot A Nightmare's Prayer portrays the realities of war in the twenty first century taking a unique and powerful perspective on combat in Afghanistan as told by a former enlisted man turned officer Lt Col Michael Zak Franzak was an AV 8B Marine Corps Harrier pilot who served as executive officer of VMA 513 The Flying Nightmares while deployed in Afghanistan from 2002 to 2003 The squadron was the first to base Harriers in Bagram in support of Operation Enduring Freedom But what should have been a standard six month deployment soon turned to a yearlong ordeal as the Iraq conflict intensified And in what appeared to be a forgotten war half a world away from home Franzak and his colleagues struggled to stay motivated and do their job providing air cover to soldiers patrolling the inhospitable terrain I wasn't in a foxhole I was above it I was safe and comfortable in my sheltered cocoon 20 000 feet over the Hindu Kush But I prayed I prayed when I heard the muted cries of men who at last understood their fate Franzak's personal narrative captures the day by day details of his deployment from family good byes on departure day to the squadron's return home. He explains the role the Harrier played over the Afghanistan battlefields and chronicles the life of an attack pilot from the challenges of nighttime weather and the austere mountain environment to the frustrations of working under higher command whose micromanagement often exacerbated difficulties. In vivid and poignant passages he delivers the full impact of enemy ambushes, the violence of combat and the heartbreaking aftermath. And as the Iraq War unfolded, Franzak became embroiled in another battle, one within himself. Plagued with doubts and wrestling with his ego and his belief in God, he discovered in himself a man he loathed. But the hardest test of his lifetime and career was still to come, one that would change him forever. A stunning true account of service and sacrifice that takes the reader from the harrowing dangers of the cockpit to the secret interior spiritual struggle facing a man trained for combat. A Nightmare's Prayer brings to life a Marine's public and personal trials set against the fine talcum brown soot of Afghanistan that permeated everything, even one's soul.

The Bedtrick Wendy Doniger, 2022-08-22. Somehow I woke up one day and found myself in bed with a stranger. Meant literally or figuratively, this statement describes one of the best known plots in world mythology and popular storytelling. In a tour that runs from Shakespeare to Hollywood and from Abraham Lincoln to Casanova, the erudite and irrepressible Wendy Doniger shows us the variety, danger and allure of the bedtrick or what it means to wake up with a stranger. The Bedtrick brings together hundreds of stories from all over the world, from the earliest recorded Hindu and Hebrew texts to the latest item in the Weekly World News to show the hilariously convoluted sexual scrapes that people manage to get themselves into and out of. Here you will find wives who accidentally commit adultery with their own husbands. You will read Lincoln's truly terrible poem about a bedtrick. You will learn that in Hong Kong the film The Crying Game was retitled Oh No My Girlfriend Has a Penis. And that President Clinton was not the first man to be identified by an idiosyncratic organ. At the bottom of these wonderful stories, ancient myths and historical anecdotes lie the dynamics of sex and gender, power and identity. Why can't people tell the difference in the dark? Can love always tell the difference between one lover and another? And what kind of truth does sex tell? Funny, sexy and engaging, The Bedtrick is a masterful work of energetic storytelling and dazzling scholarship. Give it to your spouse and your lover.

Accumulation Jennifer Gabrys, Gay Hawkins, Mike Michael, 2013-07-24. From food punnets to credit cards, plastic facilitates every part of our daily lives. It has become central to processes of contemporary socio-material living. Universalised and abstracted, it is often treated as the passive object of political deliberations or a problematic material demanding human management. But in what ways might a politics of plastics deal with both its specific manifestation in particular artefacts and events and its complex dispersed heterogeneity? Accumulation explores the vitality and complexity of plastic. This interdisciplinary collection focuses on how the presence and recalcitrance of plastic reveals the relational exchanges across human and synthetic materialities. It captures multiplicity by engaging with the processual materialities or plasticity of plastic. Through a series of themed essays on plastic materialities, plastic economies plastic bodies and new articulations of plastic the editors and chapter authors examine specific aspects of plastic in action How are multiple plastic realities enacted What are their effects This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology human and cultural geography environmental studies consumption studies science and technology studies design and political theory
