The Play Of Time Kodi Perspectives On Calendars History And Exchange:

The Play of Time Janet Hoskins, 1994-01-05 Janet Hoskins provides both an ethnographic study of the organization of time in an Eastern Indonesian society and a theoretical argument about alternate temporalities in the modern world Based on more than three years of field work with the Kodi people of the island of Sumba her book focuses on Kodi calendrical rituals exchange transactions and confrontations with the historical forces of the colonial and postcolonial world Hoskins explores the contingent contested and often contradictory precedent of the past to show how local systems of knowledge are in dialogue with wider historical forces Arguing that traditional temporality is more complex than many theorists have realized Hoskins highlights the flexibility and relativity of local time concepts whose sophistication belies the cliché of simple societies living in a world outside of time

The Play of Time Janet Hoskins, 1997 Gender, Islam, Nationalism and the State in Aceh Jaqueline Aquino Siapno, 2013-11-05 This book sets out to open up the space for interpretation of history and politics in Aceh which is now in a state of armed rebellion against the Indonesian government It lays out a groundwork for analysing how female agency is constituted in Aceh in a complex interplay of indigenous matrifocality Islamic belief and practices state terror and political violence Analysts of the current conflict in Aceh have tended to focus on present events Siapno provides a historical analysis of power co optation and resistance in Aceh and links it to broader comparative studies of gender Islam and the state in Muslim communities throughout the world

Globalization in Southeast Asia Shinji Yamashita, Jeremy Seymour Eades, 2003 The rapid postwar economic growth in the Southeast Asia region has led to a transformation of many of the societies there together with the development of new types of anthropological research in the region Local societies with originally quite different cultures have been incorporated into multi ethnic states with their own projects of nation building based on the creation of national cultures using these indigenous elements At the same time the expansion of international capitalism has led to increasing flows of money people languages and cultures across national boundaries resulting in new hybrid social structures and cultural forms This book examines the nature of these processes in contemporary Southeast Asia with detailed case studies drawn from countries across the region including Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand At the macro level these include studies of nation building and the incorporation of minorities At the micro level they range from studies of popular cultural forms such as music and textiles to the impact of new sects and the world religions on local religious practice Moving between the global and the local are the various streams of migrants within the region including labor migrants responding to the changing distribution of economic opportunities and ethnic minorities moving in response to natural disaster

Contextualizing Acts Todd C. Penner, Caroline Vander Stichele, 2003

Crossing Histories and Ethnographies Ricardo Roque, Elizabeth G. Traube, 2019-06-20 The key question for many anthropologists and historians today is not whether to cross the boundary between their disciplines but whether the idea of a disciplinary boundary should be sustained Reinterpreting the dynamic interplay between archive and field these essays propose a method for mutually productive crossings between historical and ethnographic research It engages critically with the colonial pasts of indigenous societies and examines how fieldwork and archival studies together lead to fruitful insights into the making of different colonial historicities Timor Leste's unusually long and in some ways unique colonial history is explored as a compelling case for these crossings The Tomb of the Mili Mongga Samuel Turvey, 2024-02-15 The Tomb of the Mili Mongga lives up to its magnificent billing DAILY TELEGRAPH A fossil expedition becomes a thrilling search for a mythical beast deep in the Indonesian forest and a fascinating look at how fossils folklore and biodiversity converge A tale of exciting scientific discovery The Tomb of the Mili Mongga tells the story of Samuel Turvey's expeditions to the island of Sumba in eastern Indonesia While there he discovers an entire recently extinct mammal fauna from the island's fossil record revealing how islands support some of the world's most remarkable biodiversity and why many of these unique endemic species are threatened with extinction or have already been lost But as the story unfolds an unexpected narrative emerges Sumba's Indigenous communities tell of a mysterious wildman called the mili mongga a giant yeti like beast that supposedly lives in the island's remote forests What is behind the stories of the mili mongga Is there a link between this enigmatic entity and the fossils that Sam is looking for And what did he discover when he finally found the tomb of a mili mongga Combining evolution anthropology travel writing and cryptozoology The Tomb of the Mili Mongga explores the relationship between biodiversity and culture what reality means from different cultural perspectives and how folklore fossils and conservation can be linked together in surprising ways Biographical Objects Janet Hoskins, 2013-09-13 In this innovative study six women and men from Eastern Indonesia narrate their own lives by talking about their possessions domestic objects used to construct a coherent identity through a process of identification and self historicizing Janet Hoskins explores how things are given biographical significance and entangled in sexual politics expressed in dualistic metaphors where the familiar distinctions between person and object and female and male are drawn in unfamiliar ways Biographical Objects is an ethnography of persons which takes the form of a study of things showing how the object is not only a metaphor for the self but a pivot for reflexivity and introspection a tool for autobiographic elaboration a way of knowing oneself through things

Pictish Progress, 2010-11-11 This publication is the culmination of an extended programme of conferences that have sought to mark the contribution of F T Wainwright to Pictish studies and in particular the 50th anniversary of The Problem of the Picts The book is firmly in the tradition of interdisciplinary scholarship Wainwright did so much to promote and brings together much fresh thinking on the archaeological art historical place name and historical understanding of Northern Britain in the second half of the first millennium AD Within a wider European framework it addresses questions of landscape material culture and mentalities revealing some of the different strategies by which the Picts made their world All the studies are accessibly presented to serve the interests of students teachers and anyone interested in the roots of European civilisation Contributors are Barbara E Crawford Nicholas Evans Iain Fraser James Fraser Meggen Gondek Stratford Halliday
