The Guy Davenport Reader Guy Davenport,2013-07-01 The difference between the Parthenon and the World Trade Center between a French wine glass and a German beer mug between Bach and John Philip Sousa between Sophocles and Shakespeare between a bicycle and a horse though explicable by historical moment necessity and destiny is before all else a difference of imagination The imagination is like the drunk man who has lost his watch and must get drunk again to find it It is as intimate as speech and custom and to trace its ways we need to re educate our eyes

Guy Davenport Modernism spawned the greatest explosion of art architecture literature painting music and dance of any era since the Renaissance In its long unfolding from Yeats Pound and Eliot to Picasso and Matisse from Diaghilev and Balanchine to Cunningham and Stravinsky and Cage the work of Modernism has provided the cultural vocabulary of our time One of the last pure Modernists Guy Davenport was perhaps the finest stylist and most protean craftsman of his generation Publishing more than two dozen books of fiction essays poetry and translations over a career of more than forty years he was awarded a MacArthur Fellowship in 1990 In poetry and prose Davenport drew upon the most archaic and the most modern of influences to create what he called assemblages lush experiments that often defy classification Woven throughout is a radical and coherent philosophy of desire design and human happiness But never before has Davenport's fiction nonfiction poetry and translations been collected together in one compendium Eight years after his death The Guy Davenport Reader offers the first true introduction to the far ranging work of this neglected genius
