The Poetics Of Influence New And Selected Criticism Of Harold Bloom:

Poetics of Influence Harold Bloom, 1988 Poetics of Influence Harold Bloom, 1988 Poetics of Influence Harold Bloom, 1988 History and Poetics of Intertextuality Marko Juvan, 2008 The poetics of intertextuality proposed in this book based mainly on semiotics elucidates factors determining the socio historically elusive border between general intertextuality and citationality and explores modes of intertextual representation The Return of Christian Humanism Lee Oser, 2007 Oser examines the twentieth century literary clash between a dogmatically relativist modernism and a robust revival of Christian humanism Reviewing English literature from Chaucer to Beckett and the thoughts of philosophers theologians and modern literary critics Oser challenges the assumption that Christian orthodoxy is incompatible with humanism freedom and democracy Provided by publisher Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books J.R. (Tim) Struthers, Ailsa Cox, Corinne Bigot, Catherine Sheldrick Ross, What in terms of Alice Munro's creative artistry and creative power allowed her to become the first and only short story writer the first and only Canadian and just the thirteenth woman in history to win the Nobel Prize in Literature And exactly when during Munro's career did her artistry and power advance to ensure that she would earn such world wide renown The answers lie in studying the boldly innovative yet greatly under examined group of her four mid career breakthrough books Our volume therefore provides a carefully orchestrated analysis of Munro's subtle yet potent handling of form technique and style both within individual stories and across these special collections Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books A Suite in Four Voices not only addresses a significant vacancy in Munro criticism and by extension in all short story criticism but equally importantly offers an exciting new model for how criticism can be collectively written The Betrayal of the Humanities Bernard M. Levinson, Robert P. Ericksen, 2022-09-06 How did the academy react to the rise dominance and ultimate fall of Germany's Third Reich Did German professors of the humanities have to tell themselves lies about their regime's activities or its victims to sleep at night Did they endorse the regime Or did they look the other way whether out of deliberate denial or out of fear for their own personal safety The Betrayal of the Humanities The University during the Third Reich is a collection of groundbreaking essays that shed light on this previously overlooked piece of history The Betrayal of the Humanities accepts the regrettable news that academics and intellectuals in Nazi Germany betrayed the humanities and explores what went wrong what occurred at the universities and what happened to the major disciplines of the humanities under National Socialism The Betrayal of the Humanities details not only how individual scholars particular departments and even entire universities collaborated with the Nazi regime but also examines the legacy of this era on higher education in Germany In particular it looks at the peculiar position of many German scholars in the post war world having to defend their own work or the work of their mentors while simultaneously not appearing to accept Nazism Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll, 1995 Over the past two decades poststructuralism in its myriad forms has come to dominate literary criticism to the exclusion of virtually any other point of view Few scholars have escaped the coercive authority of its programmatic radicalism In Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll vigorously attacks the foundational principles of poststructuralism and offers in their stead a bold new theory that situates literary criticism within the matrix of evolutionary theory New Contexts of Canadian Criticism Ajay Heble, Donna Palmateer Pennee, J.R. Struthers, 1997-04-18 Times change lives change and the terms we need to describe our literature or society or condition what Raymond Williams calls keywords change with them Perhaps the most significant development in the quarter century since Eli Mandel edited his anthology Contexts of Canadian Criticism has been the growing recognition that not only do different people need different terms but the same terms have different meanings for different people and in different contexts Nation history culture art identity the positions we take discussing these and other issues can lead to conflict but also hold the promise of a new sort of community Speaking of First Nations people and their literature Beth Brant observes that Our connections are like the threads of a weaving While the colour and beauty of each thread is unique and important together they make a communal material of strength and durability New Contexts of Canadian Criticism is designed to be read to work in much the same manner Revolving around the Bible: A Study of Northrop Frye János Kenyeres, 2003
