The Political Economy Of Tourism Development In Africa Tourism Dynamics:

The Political Economy of Tourism Development in Africa Peter U. C. Dieke, 2000 The Political Economy of Tourism Development in Africa Peter U. C. Dieke, 2000 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Tourism Alan A. Lew, C. Michael Hall, Allan M. Williams, 2014-04-02 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Tourism presents a collection of readings that represent an essential and authoritative reference on the state of the art of the interdisciplinary field of tourism studies Presents a comprehensive and critical overview of tourism studies across the social sciences Introduces emerging topics and reassesses key themes in tourism studies in the light of recent developments Includes 50 newly commissioned essays by leading experts in the social sciences from around the world Contains cutting edge perspectives on topics that include tourism s role in globalization sustainable tourism and the state s role in tourism development Sets an agenda for future tourism research and includes a wealth of bibliographic references The Service Sector and Economic Development in Africa Evelyn Wamboye, Peter Nyaronga, 2018-09-04 The service sector accounts for a huge proportion of global employment and is the biggest driver of gross domestic product in developing nations Yet there has been little research uncovering its scope potential and implications on sustained and inclusive economic growth This is especially true for Africa which has seen a strong growth trajectory in recent years This book presents a new frontier of research offering insightful perspectives on the 21st century realities of the service sector and its effect on economic development in Africa The analysis presented here will be of relevance to academics and policymakers with an interest in Africa s role in the global economy

Routledge Handbook of Tourism in Africa Marina Novelli, Emmanuel Adu-Ampong, Manuel Aleator Ribeiro, 2020-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies around tourism in Africa and the major factors that are affecting tourism development now and in the future Drawing upon research emerging from collaborations between a growing number of African academics and practitioners based in the continent and in the African diaspora as well as international colleagues the Handbook offers key critical insights into the issues challenges and trends that Africa and African tourism is facing Part I covers continent wide issues such as climate change ICT heritage and development The remaining parts are organised along geographic lines with each chapter covering the development of tourism current trends and discussion of critical issues such as community participation gender backpacking urban tourism wildlife tourism and conservation Combining an overview of key theories concepts contemporary issues and debates this book will be a valuable resource for students academics and practitioners investigating the role of tourism in Africa Neoliberalism and Globalization in Africa J. Mensah, 2008-12-08 This book looks at Africa s involvement in contemporary neoliberal globalization paying particular attention to the social economic political and cultural cost of the unbalanced structure of global wealth and power between Africa and the rest of the world The Political Economy of Africa Vishnu Padayachee, 2010-06-10 The Political Economy of Africa aims to fill a major gap in the existing literature by exploring the economy and economics of Africa The book has a critical approach from the perspective of political economy rather than mainstream economics This book addresses the seemingly intractable economic problems of the African continent and trace their origins but also always to bring out the instances of successful economic change and the possibilities for economic revival and renewal Tourism and Poverty Reduction Anna Spenceley,Dorothea

Meyer,2017-10-02 Over the past decade there have been an increasing number of publications that have analysed and critiqued the potential of tourism to be a mechanism for poverty reduction in less economically developed countries LEDCs This book showcases work by established and emerging researchers that provides new thinking and tests previously made assumptions providing an essential guide for students practitioners and academics This book advances our understanding of the changes and ways forward in the field of sustainable tourism development Five main themes are illustrated throughout the book 1 measuring impacts of tourism on poverty 2 the need to evaluate whether interventions that aim to reduce poverty are effective 3 how unbalanced power relations and weak governance can undermine efforts 4 the importance of the private sector s use of pro poor business practices and 5 the value of using multidisciplinary and multi method research approaches Furthermore the book shows that academic research findings can be used practically in destinations and how practitioners can benefit from sharing their experiences with academic scholars This book was based on a special issue and various articles from the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Contemporary South Africa and the Political Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose,Isaac Khambule,Nene Ernest Khalema,2025-02-21

South Africa s struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid As such understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa s place in it is of great importance This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post apartheid South African state has recast its nation building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post apartheid constitution policy directives and democratic political integration economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post apartheid state s apparent neo liberal turn The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state These trends include the impact of globalisation regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development This volume will be a valuable resource to academics researchers and students in the fields of regional studies economics and political theory as well as policymakers planners and local economic development practitioners Tourism and Development in Sub-Saharan Africa Marina Novelli, 2015-09-16 Over the past 20 years the perception of tourism as an effective contributor to socio economic development in the developing world has propagated with many viewing tourism as a provider for poverty alleviation and towards other UN Millennium Development Goals Over the same period readers have become familiar with the paradoxes complexities and inequalities of tourism in relation to development wealth creation growth redistribution governance and hosts guests relationships This volume further extends this critical debate with a much needed cohesive publication on Sub Sahara Africa SSA In an era of fluctuating tourist arrivals at global level the growth of tourism in SSA requires deeper consideration in terms of its inconsistent and questionable implications at local level Taking as a central theme the debate on whether tourism should be used in development efforts this book examines the way in which tourism has controversially become the way forward to development in several SSA locations and assesses bottlenecks to sustainable development as well as dilemmas and challenges faced by those SSA destinations seeking to achieve development through tourism It offers an explicit set of chapters adopting a multi disciplinary approach drawing upon tourism studies human geography sociology anthropology political economy development and environmental studies and integrates case studies authored by local African practitioners and academics to produce a book that gave voice to local experts on local realities Combining an overview of key theories concepts contemporary issues and debates as well as practical insights from a wide range of regions in SSA this book will be a valuable resource for those investigating the role of tourism in development
