The celluloid literature : film in the humanities, 1978 The Celluloid Literature: Film in the Humanities
William Jinks, 1974 The Celluloid Literature: Film in the Humanities. [by] William Jinks. 2d Ed William Jinks, German Film & Literature
Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history Theorizing Adaptation Kamilla Elliott, 2020-05-20 From intertextuality to postmodern cultural studies narratology to affect theory poststructuralism to metamodernism and postcolonialism to ecocriticism humanities adaptation studies has engaged with a host of contemporary theories Yet theorizing adaptation has been declared behind the theoretical times compared to other fields and charged with theoretical incorrectness by scholars from all theoretical camps In this thorough and groundbreaking study author Kamilla Elliott works to explain and redress the problem of theorizing adaptation She offers the first cross disciplinary history of theorizing adaptation in the humanities extending back to the sixteenth century revealing that until the late eighteenth century adaptation was valued for its contributions to cultural progress before its eventual and ongoing marginalization by humanities theories The second half of the book offers ways to redress the troubled relationship between theorization and adaptation Ultimately Theorizing Adaptation proffers shared ground upon which adaptation scholars can debate productively across disciplinary cultural and theoretical borders Bosnian Literary Adaptations on Stage and Screen Sanja Garić-Komnenić, 2024-05-11 Bosnian Literature on Stage and Screen aims to reconcile theoretical approaches with theatrical and cinematic practices by examining two adaptations based on works by the Bosnian author Me a Selimovi The book is informed by scholarship in film and theatre adaptation theories and is grounded in a comparative approach that focuses on the interplay of sign systems and codes unique to screen and stage The book looks closely at two adaptations a screen adaptation of the novel The Fortress and a stage adaptation of the novel The Island Multimedia Modernism Julian Murphet, 2009-04-30 Multimedia Modernism explores the complex effects of a new media environment on avant garde literary production in the early twentieth century During this period the likes of Gertrude Stein Ezra Pound and Louis Zukofsky wrote works which in one way or another attest to the immense effect that photography cinematography mechanical print technology and visual advertising had on the established arts Re reading modernism s technological origins through the lens of media theory this innovative study proposes a serious new methodological approach to modernism in general Examining a wide range of literature that includes

Gertrude Stein's contributions to Camera Work Louis Zukofsky's groundbreaking poem A and Wyndham Lewis's celebrated Blast this book embeds literary revolution within media evolution to show that literary criticism and media history have a lot to learn from each other

A Theory of Narrative F. K. Stanzel, 1986-03-13 The purpose of this book is to provide a clear and systematic account of the complexities of fictional narration which result from the shifting relationship in all storytelling between the story itself and the way it is told

Take Two Barbara Tapa Lupack, 1994 Scholars of contemporary literature and film analyze the film adaptations of ten contemporary American novels Catch 22 One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Slaughterhouse-Five Being There The World According to Garp Sophie's Choice The Color Purple Ironweed Tough Guys Don't Dance and Billy Bathgate offering critical insight into the visions of both the novelist and the filmmaker as well as discussion of how those visions converge and diverge Paper edition unseen 18 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15

A Theory of Adaptation Linda Hutcheon, 2012-08-21 A Theory of Adaptation explores the continuous development of creative adaptation and argues that the practice of adapting is central to the story telling imagination Linda Hutcheon develops a theory of adaptation through a range of media from film and opera to video games pop music and theme parks analysing the breadth scope and creative possibilities within each This new edition is supplemented by a new preface from the author discussing both new adaptive forms platforms and recent critical developments in the study of adaptation It also features an illuminating new epilogue from Siobhan O'Flynn focusing on adaptation in the context of digital media She considers the impact of transmedia practices and properties on the form and practice of adaptation as well as studying the extension of game narrative across media platforms fan based adaptation from Twitter and Facebook to home movies and the adaptation of books to digital formats A Theory of Adaptation is the ideal guide to this ever evolving field of study and is essential reading for anyone interested in adaptation in the context of literary and media studies

Hollywood As Historian Peter C. Rollins, 2014-07-11

Motion picture images have influenced the American mind since the earliest days of film and many thoughtful people are becoming ever more concerned about that influence as about the pervasive influence of television In eras of economic instability and international conflict the film industry has not hesitated to use motion pictures for definite propaganda purposes During less troubled times the American citizen's ability to deal with political and social issues has been enhanced or thwarted by images absorbed in the nation's theatres Hollywood As Historian tracks the interaction of Americans with important motion picture productions Considered are such topics as racial and sexual stereotyping censorship of films comedy as a tool for social criticism the influence of great men and their screen images and the use of film to interpret history Opportunities for future study are suggested for those who wish to conduct their own examinations of American film in a cultural context Hollywood As Historian benefits from a variety of approaches Literary and historical influences are carefully related to The Birth of a Nation 1915 and Apocalypse Now 1979 two highly tendentious epics of war and cultural change How political beliefs of filmmakers affected cinematic styles is illuminated in a short survey of documentary films made during the Great Depression Historical distance has helped analysts to decode messages unintended by filmmakers in the study of The Snake Pit 1948 and Dr Strangelove 1964 While pluralism of approach has been encouraged balance has also been a goal a concern for institutional and thematic considerations never obscures matters of film aesthetics In twelve chapters dealing with more than sixteen films Hollywood As Historian offers a versatile text for classes in popular culture American studies film history or film as history The visual awareness promoted by this text has immediate application in that students can begin to consider the impact of motion pictures and television on their own lives The films considered The Birth of a Nation 1915 The Plow that Broke the Plains 1936 The River 1937 March of Time 1935 1953 City Lights 1931 Modern Times 1936 The Great Dictator 1940 The Grapes of Wrath 1940 Native Land 1942 Wilson 1944 The Negro Soldier 1944 The Snake Pit 1948 On the Waterfront 1954 Dr Strangelove 1964 Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf 1966 and Apocalypse Now 1979

Film as Literature, Literature as Film Harris Ross, 1987-06-11 This work discusses the relationship between film and literature explaining and evaluating the issues most frequently raised on the subject It also lists nearly 2 500 articles and books published from 1908 to 1985 on the comparison of film to drama fiction and poetry These comparisons arose shortly after the first appearance of moving pictures as writers attempted to establish the differences between movies and drama The study has since grown into a significant scholarly concern Bibliographic Index ,1975
