The Chez Francois Cookbook:

The Chez François Cookbook Jacques E. Haeringer, 1985 The Chez François Cookbook Jacques E. Haeringer, 2017-10-19 Alsace Lorraine has produced one of the world's richest and most varied cuisines. It combines traditional French cooking with surprising and delicious ingredients. Nestled in the hills outside Washington D C the legendary L Auberge Chez François exemplifies the very best of traditional Alsatian cooking. The restaurant's enduring legacy of culinary excellence and warm service began with renowned chef François Haeringer more than sixty years ago and is now carried on by his equally celebrated son Jacques. One of Open Table's 100 Best Restaurants in America, a AAA four Diamond Award winner and considered by Zagat to be DC's Best Classical French Restaurant, L Auberge Chez François has long been on everyone's list of favorite French restaurants and is considered the best place in the region for romantic dining. It is known as a destination for politicians, celebrities, and people seeking to celebrate a special occasion, often returning year after year. Chef Jacques' cooking demonstrations, wine dinners, and special events also make the restaurant a destination for culinary education and gathering place for food enthusiasts. This cookbook, first released in 1991, was revised and expanded by Jacques Haeringer from earlier editions. Included are many of the most beloved dishes and popular family recipes. Now everyone, not only those fortunate enough to dine at L Auberge Chez François, can savor an Alsatian culinary experience. From subtly blended soups to splendorous desserts, the familiar and the astounding take their place side by side in this artfully curated collection of recipes.
