social and political history ImageScapes Christian Emden, Gabriele Rippl, 2010 The relationship between different media has emerged as one of the most important areas of research in contemporary cultural and literary studies But how should we conceive of the relationship between texts and images today Should we speak of collaboration interaction or competition What is the role of literary historical and scientific texts in a culture dominated by the visual What is the status of images as cultural artefacts Are images forms of representation do they simulate reality or do they intervene in the material world And how do literature and cultural theory themselves essentially textual discourses react to the much discussed visual turn within Western culture Does the concept of intermediality allow literary historical and cultural scholars to envisage a more general theory of media Addressing these questions from a programmatic point of view the articles in this volume investigate the effects of different forms of representation in modern European and American literature media and thought John Ruskin and Nineteenth-Century Education Valerie Purton, 2018-06-14 An art historian cultural critic and political theorist John Ruskin was above all a great educator The inspiration behind William Morris Leo Tolstoy Marcel Proust and Mahatma Gandhi Ruskin's influence can be felt increasingly in every sphere education today John Ruskin and Nineteenth Century Education brings together top international Ruskin scholars exploring Ruskin's many faceted writings pointing to some of the key educational issues raised by his work and concluding with a powerful rereading of his ecological writing and apocalyptic vision of the earth's future In anticipation of the bicentennial of Ruskin's birth in 2019 this volume makes a fresh and significant contribution to Victorian studies in the twenty first century It is dedicated to Dinah Birch a much loved Victorian specialist and authority on John Ruskin Six Victorian Thinkers Malcolm Hardman, 1991
