HMAS Sydney Tom Frame, 2012-06-01 The complete and authoritative account of the sinking of the HMAS Sydney and the recent finding of her wreck On 19 November 1941 the pride of the Australian Navy the light cruiser Sydney fought a close quarters battle with the German armed raider HSK Kormoran off Carnarvon on the West Australian coast Both ships sank and not one of the 645 men on board the Sydney survived Was Sydney's captain guilty of negligence by allowing his ship to manoeuvre within range of Kormoran's guns Did the Germans feign surrender before firing a torpedo at the Sydney as she prepared to despatch a boarding party This updated edition covers the recent discovery of the wreck with the light this sheds on the events of that day 67 years ago and the closure it has brought to so many grieving families Tom Frame has produced the most comprehensive and compelling account of the loss of HMAS Sydney to date His judgements are fair and his conclusions reasoned If you only read one book on this tragic event in Australian naval history and want all the facts and theories presented in a balanced way Tom Frame's book is for you Vice Admiral Russ Shalders AO CSC RANR Chief of Navy 2005-08

Local Government in Australia Bligh Grant, Joseph Drew, 2017-03-06 This book offers a general introduction to and analysis of the history theory and public policy of Australian local government systems Conceived in an international comparative context and primarily from within the discipline of political studies it also incorporates elements of economics and public administration Existing research tends to conceptualise Australian local government as an element of public policy grounded in an administrative science approach A feature of this approach is that generally normative considerations form only a latent element of the discussions which is invariably anchored in debates about institutional design rather than the normative defensibility of local government The book addresses this point by providing an account of the terrain of theoretical debate alongside salient themes in public policy The Journal of the Institution of Engineers, Australia

Institution of Engineers Australia, 1929 The Official History of Australia in the War of 1914-1918: The royal Australian navy 1914-1918, by A.W. Jose. (1928) , 1928 Transactions of the Institution of Engineers, Australia Institution of Engineers, Australia, 1924 The Sinking of HMAS Sydney Doctor Tom Lewis, 2024-01-03 HMAS Sydney was the pride of the fleet during the Second World War A light cruiser and one of Australia's main combat vessels On the 19th November 1941 off the coast of Western Australia The Sydney engaged in a fierce and bloody battle with the German raider Kormoran Following this action The Sydney failed to return to port An extensive search and rescue carried out but the warship had disappeared with all 645 men on board Whilst the battle lasted little more than an hour this single ship engagement remains Australia's greatest naval disaster More Australian servicemen died in the battle between the German raider Kormoran and the light cruiser HMAS Sydney than perished in the Vietnam War It was not until 2008 that the wreck was discovered The passage of time between the sinking and the discovery led to numerous mystery and conspiracy theories all of which started replacing the truth Now with an explanation of how those on board lived fought and died this book tells the full story

Bram Stoker's Gibbet Hill and Other Lost Writings Paul S. McAlduff, John Edgar Browning, 2025-05-07 As Carol A Senf has noted of some of Bram Stoker's less prominent fictions in Science and Social Science in Bram Stoker's Fiction 2002 they often occupy an elusive place a realm that is not precisely Gothic but that is somehow beyond the scientific and rational world of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The present anthology demonstrates how even Stoker's nonfictive works including his jokes often find themselves at home in the elusive realm of which Senf is here speaking After more than six years of archival inquiry the editors present here nineteen previously unknown or relatively unglimped published letters works of short fiction and journalistic writing by Stoker 1847 1912 including Gibbet Hill 1890 a Gothic short story the editors discovered in 2016 Additionally they present fifty five other unknown period writings by or about Stoker including interviews public addresses speeches and testimonies The works in this anthology together with the extensive research offered in the introduction prefatory note and annotations not only highlight the intertextuality between Dracula and other of Stoker's works but support the conclusion that Stoker's periodical writings indeed denote a much greater force in his literary repertoire than previously accepted Not surprisingly many of the works in this anthology exhibit the same curious sprinkling of characteristically delicate Gothicism and other knowledges for which Stoker has become known outside of his ubiquitous vampire novel From Turnbull to Morrison Mark Evans, Michelle Grattan, Brendan McCaffrie, 2019-08-23

Is trust between the government and Australians broken The country's leading institutions have been ranked among the least trusted in the world at a time when the economy has experienced twenty seven years of economic growth This has all happened since the 2016 federal election under the revolving prime ministerships of Malcolm Turnbull and Scott Morrison's first term Turnbull was the fourth sitting prime minister in a decade to be removed by his own party What role do these politically turbulent times play in this trust deficit Scott Morrison has now been elected by the people What does he and future prime ministers need to do to reboot civic belief in politics How will history judge the contribution of the Turnbull and Morrison administrations In From Turnbull to Morrison well known political journalists including Michelle Grattan George Megalogenis Megan Davis Virginia Haussegger Mark Kenny and Katharine Murphy and leading academics such as Frank Bongiorno Mark Evans Susan Harris Rimmer Anne Tiernan John Warhurst and George Williams examine the institutions the issues and the leaders at the heart of this crisis It is crucial reading for champions of liberal democracy From Turnbull to Morrison The Trust Divide is the thirteenth volume of Australia's longest running study of Australian Commonwealth Government started in 1983 Electrification of Sydney and Suburban Railways Institution of Engineers Australia, 1926
