Vidja, Olivier Goujon, 2023-07-04 My name is Marie Claire I have had nightmares every night from the time I was 11 when I was kidnapped From the clutches of a French family who tortured her into the grips of an Algerian family who kidnapped and confined her Marie Claire went through hell before making a spectacular escape and reaching France There are lives whose reality is hard to imagine Marie Claire's life is one of those An unwanted child born in France beaten involved in drug trafficking she was abandoned temporarily placed in the care of Social Services before being returned to her parents and then she was kidnapped by her stepfather and then by her father's family that included a radicalized Islamic tutor She went through hell for ten years before escaping and starting on a path to recovery in which suffering and hardships kept getting worse but which eventually led her to the hallowed halls of a French university from where she continues to fight for the hundreds of children kidnapped by a parent children who every year are victims of their parents crimes and of institutional abandonment She also uses her personal experience to look at mixed marriages parental authority parental responsibility She points out with intelligence and accuracy the blind spots in the law the cowardice of institutions and the indifference of public opinion in the face of crimes whose victims are first and foremost thousands of children The life of Marie Claire is not a novel Marie Claire Vidja is a teacher researcher and a doctor in human and social sciences She has written Hirak I art

Child Abduction Robert L. Snow, 2008-09-30 While most people have heard about high profile abductions such as the Elizabeth Smart case such abductions are not isolated cases The abduction of children occurs much more often in our country than most people would suspect but because of a fault in our country's national crime reporting procedures no one knows the true number This book details the scope of the child abduction problem in the United States and its very real danger It covers the different types of abductions and discusses the psychological changes that can occur in long term abducted children that will often stop them from attempting to escape or even to seek help though good opportunities may present themselves Snow also discusses the danger to secondary victims of child abduction He devotes several chapters to what both parents and the government can do to stop many of the child abductions that now occur and for those not stopped steps parents can take that will greatly assist the authorities in quickly locating and safely rescuing an abducted child He concludes with a chapter on the psychological and emotional concerns of recovered abducted children and how families can help them re-integrate themselves into a normal life Real life examples are provided in every chapter It is every parent's worst nightmare Someone has abducted their child and no one including the police has a clue where the child is But worse while parents feel certain their child is terrified and crying desperately for them they don't know if their child is being physically mistreated sexually molested or worse The uncertainty and powerlessness can drive parents of abducted children to the edge of insanity But there are measures parents and children can take to avoid being the victim of abduction There are things families can do too to apprehend offenders and bring children home even after an abduction occurs Here a retired police captain offers expert advice designed to help keep children safe and to help families deal with an abduction once it has occurred Practical advice is offered throughout to families and professionals that will help all involved handle this tense and terrifying experience Featuring such prominent cases as the abductions of the Groene children in Idaho in 2005 Christopher Michael Barrios in Georgia in 2007 Zina Linnick in Washington in 2007 Mychael Darthard Dawodu in Texas in 2007 Crystal Chavez in Texas in 2002 Elizabeth Smart in Utah in 2002 the Montano children in Florida in 2003 the Walker children in Indiana in 2007 the Nunez children in California in 2002 Emily Johnson in Indiana in 2007 Ludwig Koons in New York in 1993 the Beveridge children to the United States from Australia in 2000 Erica Pratt in Pennsylvania in 2002 Clay Moore in Florida in 2007 the Hari children in Illinois in 2005 Samantha Runnion in California in 2002 Ben Ownby in Missouri in 2007 Shawn Hornbeck in Missouri in 2002 Steven Stayner in California in 1972 Natascha Kampusch in Austria in 1998 Jessica Lunsford in Florida in 2005 Carlie Brucia in Florida in 2004 Amber Hagerman in Texas in 1996 the Nguyen children in Canada in 2006 and Cecilie Finkelstein from Sweden to the United States in 1975      Kidnapping and Violence Stephen Morewitz,2019-09-04 This book analyzes kidnapping in various forms and from various perspectives First it argues that kidnapping including the threat of kidnapping reflects a breakdown in the mechanisms of social control in society This volume also discusses the ways governments and para military and terrorist groups employ kidnappings as part of their foreign and domestic policy This analysis evaluates why and under what conditions governments para military and terrorist groups decide to abduct individuals and groups It emphasizes how individuals groups and governments employ abductions to achieve their psychological social religious and political objectives This analysis also examines the ways in which cultural traditions in different societies emerge to foster behaviors such as bride abductions Moreover this book addresses the extent to which social change modifies these cultural patterns Suitable for students and researchers mental health practitioners and law enforcement this volume is a unique analysis of our contemporary understanding of kidnapping and violence and the social psychological political and cultural motivations for such an act      Congressional Record United States.
