On This Modern Highway, Lost in the Jungle Jan Mrázek, 2022-02-01 I love Christmas that Muslim holiday K Biebl In 1926 the communist avant garde poet Konstantin Biebl 1898 1951 travelled from Czechoslovakia to the Dutch East Indies In his texts poetic and often comic both landlocked Bohemia and the colonized tropical islands are seen disorientingly anew like mirrors looking at themselves in each other On This Modern Highway Lost in the Jungle takes the reader on a journey crisscrossing the poet's life and work with particular attention to his travel writing and his dreams and memories of travel as they mirror the book author's own life experience as a Czech scholar of Indonesia living in island Southeast Asia Biebl's poetry and travels are also the book's point of departure for a broader exploration of the intersections of travel and poetry the attitudes to colonial social injustice and the representation of otherness in Czech literary and visual imagination beyond Biebl's times In its attention to how poetic travel reflects the Czech historical experience in the shadow of imperial nations the book moves scholarly reflection on literary travel modernity and colonialism to a new ground Jan Mrázek grew up in Czechoslovakia and lives on an island in the Malay Archipelago He is Associate Professor in Southeast Asian Studies at the National University of Singapore and has published widely on Indonesia seafaring and Czech travel writing

Snapshots of the Soul Molly Thomasy Blasing, 2021-07-15 Snapshots of the Soul considers how photography has shaped Russian poetry from the early twentieth century to the present day Drawing on theories of the lyric and the elegy the social history of technology and little known archival materials Molly Thomasy Blasing offers close readings of poems by Boris Pasternak Marina Tsvetaeva Joseph Brodsky and Bella Akhmadulina as well as by the late and post Soviet poets Andrei Sen Sen kov Arkadii Dragomoshchenko and Kirill Medvedev to understand their fascination with the visual language representational power and metaphorical possibilities offered by the camera and the photographic image Within the context of long standing anxieties about the threat that visual media pose to literary culture Blasing finds that these poets were attracted to the affinities and tensions that exist between the lyric or elegy and the snapshot Snapshots of the Soul reveals that at the core of each poet s approach to writing the photograph is the urge to demonstrate the superior ability of poetic language to capture and convey human experience Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities Contemporary Youth Culture Shirley R. Harper,2023-12-20 Paradise Lost and the Making of English Literary Criticism identifies the early reception of Paradise Lost as a site of contest over the place of literature in political and religious controversy Milton s earliest readers and critics Dryden Addison Dennis Hume and Bentley confronted a poem and author at odds with the prevailing culture and the revanchist conservatism of the restored monarchy Grappling with the epic required navigating Milton s reputation as a fanatic who had called in print for Charles I s execution inveighed openly against monarchy on the eve of Charles II s return and held heretical views on the trinity baptism and divorce Harper argues that foundational figures in English literary criticism rose to this challenge by innovating new ways of reading producing creative and subversive rewritings of Paradise Lost articulating new theories of the sublime explaining the poem in the first substantial body of annotations for an English vernacular text and by pioneering early forms of textual criticism and editing American Directory of Writer's Guidelines ,2007-02 Perhaps the best kept secret in the publishing industry is that many publishers both periodical publishers and book publishers make available writer s guidelines to assist would be contributors Written by the staff at each publishing house these guidelines help writers target their submissions to the exact needs of the individual publisher The American Directory of Writer s Guidelines is a compilation of the actual writer s guidelines for more than 1 700 publishers A one of a kind source to browse for article short story poetry and book ideas The American Directory of Writer's Guidelines Stephen Blake Mettee,Michelle Doland,Doris Hall,2005-12 Perhaps the best kept secret in the publishing industry is that many publishers both periodical publishers and book publishers make available writer s guidelines to assist would be contributions Written by the staff at each publishing house these guidelines help writers target their submissions to the exact needs of the individual publisher The American Directory of Writer s Guidelines is a compilation of the actual writer s guidelines for more than 1 600 publishers A one of a kind source to browse for article short story poetry and book ideas

Mina Loy, Twentieth-Century Photography, and Contemporary Women Poets Linda A. Kinnahan,2017-03-16 In Mina Loy Twentieth Century Photography and Contemporary Women Poets Linda A Kinnahan explores the making of Mina Loy s late modernist poetics in relation to photography s ascendance by the mid twentieth century as a distinctively modern force shaping representation and perception As photography develops over the course of the century as an art form social tool and cultural force Loy's relationship to a range of photographic cultures emerging in the first half of the twentieth century suggests how we might understand not only the intriguing work of this poet but also the shaping impact of photography and new technologies of vision upon modernist poetics Framing Loy's encounters with photography through intersections of portraiture Surrealism fashion documentary and photojournalism Kinnahan draws correspondences between Loy's late poetry and visual discourses of the body urban poverty and war discerning how a visual rhetoric of gender often underlies these mappings and connections In her final chapter Kinnahan examines two contemporary poets who directly engage the camera's modern impact Kathleen Fraser and Caroline Bergvall to explore the questions posed in their work about the particular relation of the camera the photographic image and the construction of gender in the late twentieth century
