Author and subject index to a selected list of periodicals not included in the Readers guide and to composite books      Social Sciences and Humanities Index ,1916      Personifying Prehistory Joanna Brück,2019-01-31 The Bronze Age is frequently framed in social evolutionary terms Viewed as the period which saw the emergence of social differentiation the development of long distance trade and the intensification of agricultural production it is seen as the precursor and origin point for significant aspects of the modern world This book presents a very different image of Bronze Age Britain and Ireland Drawing on the wealth of material from recent excavations as well as a long history of research it explores the impact of the post Enlightenment othering of the non human on our understanding of Bronze Age society There is much to suggest that the conceptual boundary between the active human subject and the passive world of objects so familiar from our own cultural context was not drawn in this categorical way in the Bronze Age the self was constructed in relational rather than individualistic terms and aspects of the non human world such as pots houses and mountains were considered animate entities with their own spirit or soul In a series of thematic chapters on the human body artefacts settlements and landscapes this book considers the character of Bronze Age personhood the relationship between individual and society and ideas around agency and social power The treatment and deposition of things such as querns axes and human remains provides insights into the meanings and values ascribed to objects and places and the ways in which such items acted as social agents in the Bronze Age world      The Prehistoric World; Or, Vanished Races Emory Adams Allen,2019-11-21 In The Prehistoric World Or Vanished Races Emory Adams Allen undertakes a sweeping examination of humanity s ancient past through the lens of archaeology and anthropology Melding vivid narrative with scholarly analysis Allen explores the remnants of long gone societies weaving together evidence from various disciplines to paint a holistic picture of prehistoric civilizations The book is illustrative of the late 19th century fascination with lost civilizations and the scientific inquiry that propelled early anthropology showcasing Allen s detailed observations and reflections on human evolution amidst a backdrop of societal advancement Emory Adams Allen an American author and historian was deeply influenced by the intellectual climates of his time marked by burgeoning theories of evolution and archaeological discovery His academic background and extensive travel to ancient sites provided him with a unique perspective allowing him to transcend mere description and delve into the implications of what these vanished races reveal about humanity Allen s synthesis of scientific evidence and literary flair reflects a profound engagement with the cultural milieu of his era as well as a yearning to understand humanity s trajectory through time For readers captivated by history archaeology and the mysteries of human existence The Prehistoric World Or Vanished Races offers an enriching exploration of the civilizations that came before us Allen s work encourages reflection on our past and the lessons it provides for contemporary society making it essential reading for anyone interested in the strands that weave together human heritage In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value

A Neolithic and Bronze Age Landscape in Northamptonshire Jan Harding, Frances Healy, 2013-01-15 The Raunds Area Project investigated more than 20 Neolithic and Bronze Age monuments in the Nene Valley From c 5000 BC to the early 1st millennium cal BC a succession of ritual mounds and burial mounds were built as settlement along the valley sides increased and woodland was cleared Starting as a regular stopping place for flint knapping and domestic tasks first the Long Mound and then Long Barrow the north part of the Turf Mound and the Avenue were built in the 5th millennium BC With the addition of the Long Enclosure the Causewayed Ring Ditch and the Southern Enclosure there was a chain of five or six diverse monuments stretched along the river bank by c 3000 cal BC Later a timber platform the Riverside Structure was built and the focus of ceremonial activity shifted to the Cotton Henge two concentric ditches on the occupied valley side From c 2200 cal BC monument building accelerated and included the Segmented Ditch Circle and at least 20 round barrows almost all containing burials at first inhumations then cremations down to c 1000 cal BC by which time two overlapping systems of paddocks and droveways had been laid out Finally the terrace began to be settled when these had gone out of use in the early 1st millennium cal BC This second volume of the Raunds Area Project published as a CD comprises the detailed reports on the environmental archaeology artefact studies geophysics and chronology

The Agricultural Revolution in Prehistory Graeme Barker, 2009 Addressing one of the most debated revolutions in the history of our species the change from hunting and gathering to farming this title takes a global view and integrates an array of information from archaeology and many other disciplines including anthropology botany climatology genetics linguistics and zoology

Prehistoric Farming in Europe Graeme Barker, 1985-07-11 Drawing upon his own extensive knowledge of European archaeology Graeme Barker has impressively integrated the full range of archaeological data to produce in this book a masterly account of prehistoric farming in Europe on a unique scale He makes use of modern archaeological techniques to reconstruct the lives of prehistoric farmers in remarkable detail Not only do we now have a vivid picture of the prehistoric farmyard but we know what animals were kept how they were fed and why they were bred Evidence for crops grown and techniques of cultivation and husbandry helps recreate the prehistoric landscape Even the social organisation that determined the use of resources and provided the crucial stimulus for agricultural change can be relived Graeme Barker develops his argument through analogies with the agricultural history of classical and medieval Europe and concludes that today s industrial farmers can learn much from the successes and failures of early European farming

The Dartmoor Reaves Andrew Fleming, 2008-04-01 First published in 1988 The Dartmoor Reaves is a classic story of archaeological fieldwork and discovery and a winner of the Archaeological Book Award This major new edition adds both color illustrations and two substantial new chapters to the original groundbreaking text which revolutionized our understanding of Britain s prehistoric landscapes Dartmoor has long been known for the richness of its prehistoric heritage stone circles hut circles massive burial cairns and stone rows all pepper the landscape In the 1970s a new dimension was added with the recognition that the long ignored reaves ruined walls are also prehistoric Dartmoor now posed all sorts of questions about the nature of Bronze Age society Andrew Fleming describes the critical moment when his own fieldwork picked up the pattern of the reaves and he realized their true identity His new chapters place Dartmoor s large scale planned prehistoric landscapes in the context of other co axial field systems that have since been found elsewhere and also discuss their meaning in the light of the latest research on the Bronze Age
