The Graces We Remember Phyllis Tickle, 2004 In her three book series that spans the liturgical year, renowned author Phyllis Tickle recalls simple stories from life on her family's farm in Lucy, Tennessee. In these spiritually uplifting and nostalgic memoirs, Tickle records the richness of faith in everyday life. What the Land Already Knows celebrates Advent, Christmas, and the Epiphany. Hustling God M. Craig Barnes, 2009-08-30 We work hard at life. We try to get better jobs, better homes, better relationships, and even a better spirituality. We are like Jacob in the Old Testament. His name means striver, schemer, supplanter, hustler. He could have been the poster boy for the American Dream. But author Craig Barnes says this is not the way we should be living our lives. We should not try to manipulate and hustle ourselves into a place of advantage with God, a position that has been ours all along. After all, God is the one who climbed down the ladder to be with us. Using true anecdotes from the men, women, and families of the churches he has served, Barnes invites hard-running, stressed-out, burned-out people to stop striving. Life is not something we grasp and clutch to us, but a gift God freely gives. Only when we open our hands can God fill them with the blessings he has been waiting to lavish upon us all along.

With Peace in Mind John Stephens, 2011 With Peace in Mind is a collection of short stories and poems, sometimes with a light Christian angle, written over a period of years. The author habitually wrote a poem for his wife on her birthday, their anniversary, Christmas, Easter, or any other notable occasion, and this is a selection of them. Other items were written for use teaching school or simply for the pleasure of writing. Many of the pieces have appeared in magazines and newspapers. This is a book that you can delve into at any time for pleasure and amusement, reading parts aloud to family round the fire. Other items may cause you to think more seriously about what life is all about.
