Plundered Kitchens, Empty Wombs Pamela Lou Feldman-Savelsberg, 2023-06-20 Plundered Kitchens Empty Wombs examines the symbolic language of food fertility and infertility in a small mountainous African kingdom to explore more general notions of gender modernity and cultural identity In the Cameroon grassfields an area of high fertility women hold a paradoxical fear of infertility By combining symbolic political economic and historical analyses Pamela Feldman

Savelsberg traces the way reproductive threat is invoked in struggles over gender and ethnic identities Women's fears of reproductive disorders she finds are an important mode of expression for their worries about much larger issues such as rural poverty brought about or exacerbated by political and economic changes in this century A lively case study of an infertile queen who flees the palace sets the stage for discussions of the ethnographic and historical setting the symbolism of fertility and infertility and the development and interaction of cosmopolitan and ethno gynecologies The book concludes with an analysis of the links between women's role in human reproduction and the divine king's role in social reproduction both occurring in the rapidly changing context of a multiethnic African nation Plundered Kitchens Empty Wombs underscores the relevance of medical anthropology to other anthropological specializations as well as to epidemiologists population specialists and development planners It should reach a broad audience in medical anthropology public health and women's studies Pamela Feldman Savelsberg is Assistant Professor of Anthropology Carleton College Paulette's Friend
