Stories From Afar:

Stories from Afar Joseph E. Murphy, 2005 Five Stories from Afar Johan Geuzendam, 2015-01-05 Time reveals roses Five newborns each receive a welcome letter from an ancestor These are the true stories of the five tribes as well as glimpses into the past At the beginning of their lives they get a sense of their history with the letters The stories begin in 1878 and end in 2009 How their parents were uprooted in their daily lives under the political social and economic conditions of the time they can read about later You already know Before his retirement Johan Geuzendam 1940 wrote texts for college where he worked as a teacher manager When he became a grandfather he began a new life which inspired him to include narratives in his writings Chinese Overseas Chee-Beng Tan, Colin Storey, Julia Zimmerman, 2007 The issue of Chinese diaspora is a fascinating phenomenon in the midst of globalism and there is a growing interest in studies of overseas Chinese not only overseas but in China itself This volume the result of an international conference on Chinese overseas studies deals with issues of research and documentation of Chinese migration and migrants It brings together the efforts of scholars and librarians in examining the research and documentation of Chinese overseas Documentation must go hand in hand with research and this book reiterates the need for greater cooperation between librarians and scholars In addition to discussion on research and library and archival documentation the book also takes a look at Chinese overseas in different parts of the world especially Southeast Asia and North America as well as South Africa and Cuba Under Starry Eyes Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-19 Embark on a celestial journey through the eyes of children from around the world in this captivating book that explores the wonders of the night sky From the shimmering stars that twinkle above the Philippine Islands to the vibrant constellations that dance across the African savanna each page of this book brings the night sky to life Learn about the science behind these celestial objects as well as the myths and legends that have been woven around them throughout history Discover the secrets of the solar system from the burning sun to the icy reaches of Pluto Explore the vastness of the Milky Way galaxy home to billions of stars and countless planets And gaze out into the depths of space where galaxies collide and black holes lurk This book is more than just a guide to the night sky It is an invitation to reconnect with your childlike sense of wonder and curiosity It is a reminder that the universe is a vast and mysterious place and that we are all part of something much bigger than ourselves With its stunning illustrations and engaging narrative this book is perfect for children of all ages It is also an excellent resource for parents and teachers who want to teach children about astronomy and the wonders of the natural world So come with us on a journey to the stars and beyond Let this book be your guide as you explore the vastness of space and the depths of your own imagination If you like this book write a review World Literature Klaudia Hiu Yen Lee, Eli Park Sorensen, 2025-07-22 World Literature Approaches Practices and Pedagogy combines theoretical explorations and pedagogy to explore approaches to teaching some of the key concepts issues and topics in world literary studies Recognising the evolving and at times contested meanings of world literature this book treats world literature as a mode of reading and one that provides opportunities to create a space for critical discussions and reflections on understanding unpacking and at times challenging some of the assumptions and practices in world literary studies Contributors discuss a wide array of topics including the role of translation and literary marketplace in global circulation of texts the function and problematics of paratexts questions of co authorship in transnational contexts debates on major minor in world literature cosmopolitanism and the impact of English as a lingua franca on the development of the field Accompanied by reading questions individual and group exercises as well as suggested further readings this collection offers a practical resource for instructors and an accessible guide to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students taking world literature courses in different parts of the world

Going to Extremes Nick Middleton, 2012-08-09 In Going to Extremes writer presenter and Oxford geography don Nick Middleton visits Oymyakon in Siberia where the average winter temperature is 47 degrees and 40% of the population have lost their fingers to frostbite while changing the car wheel Next he travels to Arica Chile where there have been fourteen consecutive years without a drop of rain and so fog is people's only source of water Going from the driest to the wettest he visits Mawsynram in India which annually competes for the title with its neighbour Cherrapunji However Nick discovers even here that during the dry season there is water shortage and one entrepreneur has started selling it bottled Finally his journey takes him to Dalol in Ethiopia known as the hell hole of creation where the temperature remains at 94 degrees year round Here Nick will join miners who work all day with no shade limited water and no protective clothing The book and series consider how and why people live in these harsh environments How does Nick's body react to these contrasting extremes He looks at the geographical and meteorological conditions He meets local characters and discovers the history of these settlements to find out how they ever became populated He looks at the way both the population and the flora and fauna have adapted physically to the climate and also considers the psychological impact of living under such conditions
