The Trip to Echo Spring Olivia Laing, 2013-12-31 A New York Times Notable Book of 2014 A TimeMagazine Notable Book of 2014 Olivia Laing s widely acclaimed account of how writers in the grip of alcoholism created some of the greatest works of American literature In The Trip to Echo Spring Olivia Laing examines the link between creativity and alcohol through the work and lives of six extraordinary men F Scott Fitzgerald Ernest Hemingway Tennessee Williams John Berryman John Cheever and Raymond Carver All six of these writers were alcoholics and the subject of drinking surfaces in some of their finest work from Cat on a Hot Tin Roof to A Moveable Feast Often they did their drinking together Hemingway and Fitzgerald ricocheting through the caf s of Paris in the 1920s Carver and Cheever speeding to the liquor store in Iowa in the icy winter of 1973 Olivia Laing grew up in an alcoholic family herself One spring wanting to make sense of this ferocious entangling disease she took a journey across America that plunged her into the heart of these overlapping lives As she travels from Cheever's New York to Williams's New Orleans and from Hemingway's Key West to Carver's Port Angeles she pieces together a topographical map of alcoholism from the horrors of addiction to the miraculous possibilities of recovery Beautiful captivating and original The Trip to Echo Spring strips away the myth of the alcoholic writer to reveal the terrible price Uncontained Elizabeth A. Wheeler, 2001 In the post war era American urban fiction was dominated by creativity can exert the imagery of containment This book offers a critique of this familiar story evident in the noir narratives of James M Cain and in work by Ellison Roth Salinger Percy Capote and others American Literary Minimalism Robert C. Clark, 2014 Many of the authors Robert Clark discusses have yet to be recognized for their individual contributions to the emergence and continuing vitality of the movement School of Images is organized based on chronology and lines of influence In the introduction Clark offers a definition of the mode and then describes its early stages He then explores six works that reflect the core characteristics of the mode Ernest Hemingway s In Our Time Raymond Carver s Cathedral Susan Minot s Monkeys Jay McInerney's Bright Lights Big City Sandra Cisneros's Caramelo and Cormac McCarthy's The Road In the conclusion he discusses contemporary authors and filmmakers whose work represents the ongoing evolution of the category Provided by publisher Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 The Suburbs Marie Bouchet, Nathalie Cochoy, Isabelle Keller-Privat, Mathilde Rogez, 2022-02-01 While suburbs provide a rich field of research for sociologists architects urbanists and anthropologists they have not been given much attention in literary and cultural studies The Suburbs New Literary Perspectives sets out to enrich the limited existing body of critical analysis on the subject with a landmark collection of essays offering a far larger perspective than the books or collections published so far on the topic This interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach includes literary and art studies philosophy and cultural comment It examines the suburbs across cultural differences contrasting British South African and North American suburbs The specificity of this book therefore lies in a cross national and cross continental exploration of these unchartered territories. The suburbs are redefined as those rebellious margins whose geographical borders are necessarily fuzzy and sketch out a common place where cultural frontiers can be transcended They are to use Sarah Nuttall's terminology places of entanglement where contraries meet and where new ways of being in the world is reborn Seen through the prism of art and literature the suburbs may then be recognized as philosopher Bruce B gout argues as a new way of thinking and making urban space

Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 Vidya Ravi, 2019-05-15 American literature has long celebrated the figure of the self made man and the idea of establishing selfhood particularly male selfhood in nature However during the crisis of masculinity that swept across America in the middle of the twentieth century a generation of writers started exploring a different kind of a man This was a figure who was concerned not so much with the loss of the West or the desire to recover a wilderness but with how to live in an ordinary domesticated continent Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 explores the role of place in negotiating reinforcing and subverting articulations of hegemonic masculinity in the work of four American writers from the latter part of the 20th century John Cheever John Updike Raymond Carver and Richard Ford The book argues that American fiction by white male writers between the 1950s and the present day is compelled by the troubled and troubling relationship between masculinity and place This relationship is deeply embedded in how ideals of masculinity are predicated upon the experience of the physical world and how the symbolic logic of masculinity is continually subverted by alternative conceptions of dwelling and ecological consciousness Annual Record of Assessed Valuation of Real Estate in the City of New York New York Melbourne parl. libr,1864 (N.Y.). City Record Office, 1908 American Boarding School Fiction, 1928-1981 Alexander H. Pitofsky, 2014-07-18 When boarding school fiction became popular in the 19th century it tended to be warm and nostalgic filled with sporting events practical jokes and schemes to get even with campus bullies All of that changed in the era discussed in this book Holden Caulfield the narrator of J D Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye drops out of one prep school and is expelled from two others The conflicts between students in John Knowles s Devon School novels become so heated that two young men die And in the controversial novel Good Times Bad Times James Kirkwood portrays the headmaster of a private academy as closeted deeply neurotic and infatuated with an 18 year old who has recently enrolled at his school In spite of their unsettling images of anguish and cruelty these and other American boarding school novels have attracted large audiences and influenced countless school narratives in fiction drama television and film Many books have been written about British school stories This is the first study that explores the history of boarding school fiction in the United States Chicago Tribune Index ,1994 New York Magazine, 1978-12-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a
