Stories Of Chicago:

The View from Here JH Palmer, 2015-09-14 The second annual city all star student anthology from the Chicago Center for Literature and Photography The People Are the News Grant Pick, 2008-01-21 This distinctive collection features writings from Grant Pick's long distinguished career in literary journalism. Pick had a uniquely open eye and ear for people who were in difficult situations doing extraordinary things or both. Most of his stories focus on interesting but overlooked Chicagoans like the struggling owner of a laundrymat on the west side or the successful doctor who as he faced his own death from cancer strove to enlighten his colleagues in the field of medicine. As only a lifetime Chicagoan could, he described in tender detail the worlds in which people lived or worked, providing a look not just at one city's citizens but at humanity as a whole. Pick's widow and son curate this showcase of some of his most well remembered work such as The Rag Man of Lincoln Park and Brother Bill. In these and all of his other works, Pick wrote from the front lines speaking to people whom others might encounter everyday but never really see. He faithfully characterized his subjects, never denying them dignity or value and never judging them. In the mirror he held up to his city, Chicago could see the shared humanity of all its citizens.

Chicago Stories James Thomas Farrell, 1998 In Babel George Ade, 1903 These little stories and sketches have been rewritten from certain daily contributions to the Chicago record, now the Chicago Record Herald. Stories of Chicago George Ade, 2003 The stories of George Ade are energetic, detailed and affectionate slices of the social life of Chicago in the Gay Nineties. Originally appearing in the Chicago Record between 1893 and 1900, they range from candid character sketches and snapshots of everyday street scenes to fiction and fantasies drawing on the endless stream of inspiration the bustling city provided. Ade was hailed by such contemporaries as Mark Twain, H. L. Mencken and William Dean Howells, and the stories contained in this volume showcase the full spectrum of his skills: his keen eye for the absurd and sublime moments of daily urban life; his ear for the vernacular; his shrewd understanding of the Midwestern character; and above all, his firm belief that all of human life was worthy literary subject matter. This volume includes many lively and evocative drawings by John T. McCutcheon, Ade's college classmate and friend who came to be known as the Dean of American Cartoonists. Also included is an introduction by Franklin J. Meine incorporating interviews with Ade and letters from John McCutcheon, Mark Twain, and Ade's managing editor Charles H. Dennis. Stories and Sketches of Chicago an Interesting, Entertaining, and Instructive Sketch History of the Wonderful City "by the Sea" J. B.
