The Case Of Mary Bell:

The Case of Mary Bell Gitta Sereny,1995 In December 1968 two girls who lived next door to each other Mary aged eleven and Norma thirteen stood before a criminal court in Newcastle accused of strangling two little boys Martin Brown four years old and Brian Howe three Norma was acquitted Mary Bell the younger but infinitely more sophisticated and cooler of the two was found guilty of manslaughter She evaded being branded as a murderer due to what the court ruled as diminished responsibility but she was sentenced to detention for life Step by step Gitta Sereny pieces together a gripping and rare study of a horrifying crime the murders the events surrounding them the alternately bizzare and nonchalant behaviour of the two girls their brazen offers to help the distraught families of the dead boys the police work that led to their apprehension and finally the trial itself What emerges from this extraordinary case is the inability of society to anticipate such events and to take adequate steps once disaster has struck

In 1968 in the city of Newcastle upon Tyne in Britain eleven year old Mary Bell murdered two boys and seemed to take a disturbing delight at what she had done Who is Mary Bell and why did she turn out this way And what happened to this notorious young killer after the tragic events of 1968 Find out more about this notorious murder case with this book MARY BELL Katherine Smith,2020-12-01 The case of Mary Bell shocked the nation in 1968 In the city of Newcastle an eleven year old girl was responsible for the death of two young boys who were not much more than toddlers The method of death was strangulation squeezing of the neck and both tragic incidents took place on derelict land where massive slum housing clearances were under way The girl responsible for the murders was Mary Flora Bell a darkly angelic looking child who never seemed to show any sign of emotion The case of Mary Bell as it drifts further and further into the past is like a nightmarish folk memory that refuses to ever completely fade It is a strange and tragic story that will probably never lose its enduring and morbid fascination The Language of Newspapers Danuta Reah,2002 From the ideological bias of the press to the role of headlines in newspaper articles and ways in which newspapers relate to their audience the book provides a comprehensive analysis of newspaper language shocking conclusion The serial killer responsible for these deaths was a pretty blue eyed eleven year old girl named Mary Bell It would become one of the strangest and most unfathomable cases in British criminal history But Mary Bell didn't come out of nowhere She was well known to the police and the authorities long before she became famous in the worst possible way Here then is the complete story of Mary Flora Bell The True Story

Doing Qualitative Research Differently Wendy Hollway, Tony Jefferson, 2000-04-28 This is both a how to book and one that critically reviews many of the assumptions claims and methods of qualitative research Applying a psycho social understanding of subjectivity to research practice involves conceptualising researcher and researched as co producers of meanings in the research relationship The authors use the notion of the defended subject to indicate that people will defend themselves against any anxieties in the information they provide in a research context To interpret interviewees responses should entail developing a method in which narratives are central as should a strategy of interpretation in which interviewees
