Creative Recycling Jude Andreasen,Cleve Overton,2004 This photographic book documents a delightful collection of handmade miniature vehicles boats and planes made from discarded and recycled material in Africa and purchased in at least 20 different countries between 1985 and 2003 They range from rudimentary to amazingly sophisticated The collection has educational cultural and environmental aspects and the pieces showcase the imagination and ingenuity of African children and craftsmen Author and collector Jude Andreasen spent eight years working and living in African countries Cleve Overton has traveled the continent with Ms Andreasen from the Cape to Cairo

What Holds Us Together David Chidester,Phillip Dexter,Wilmot Godfrey James,2003 Examines the effects of a range of global forces on local forms of identity coherence and cohesion With contributions from intellectuals from business organised labour community organisations government structures and academics this book is useful for those interested in the wide ranging effects of globalisation on South Africa

American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon,Kara Kelley Hallmark,2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are

Tin Men Archie Green,2002 Crafted from sheet metal and scraps into likenesses that include clowns knights cowboys and L Frank Baum s Tin Woodman of Oz tin men have both utilitarian and aesthetic purposes Some serve as sheet metal shops trade signs or prove an apprentice s competence Others are coveted in boutiques antique stores and folk art museums BOOK JACKET The Dark Tree Steven L. Isoardi,2023-08-07 In the early 1960s pianist Horace Tapscott gave up a successful career in Lionel Hampton s band and returned to his home in Los Angeles to found the Pan Afrikan Peoples Arkestra a community arts group that focused on providing community oriented jazz and jazz training Over the course of almost forty years the Arkestra together with the related Union of God s Musicians and Artists Ascension collective was at the forefront of the vital community based arts movement in Black Los Angeles Some three hundred artists musicians vocalists poets playwrights painters sculptors and graphic artists passed through these organizations many ultimately remaining within the community and others moving on to achieve international fame In The Dark Tree Steven L. Isoardi draws on one hundred in depth interviews with the Arkestra s participants to tell the history of the important and largely overlooked community arts movement of Black Los Angeles This revised and updated edition brings the story of the Arkestra up to date as its ethos and aesthetic remain vital forces in jazz and popular music to this day

Muffler Men Timothy Corrigan Correll,Patrick Arthur Polk,2000 Art can appear in the most unexpected places Muffler men for example have become one of the most striking and remarkable of recent folk art creations From Walla Walla to Daytona quirky mannikins constructed from discarded automobile mufflers are popping up across America Cobbled together as business signposts these comical sculptures are sprouting outside automotive repair shops everywhere Car debris harmonizes with human anatomy as rusty cast offs assume a new identity as savvy objets d art Signage turns into art as mechanics fashion cowboys dogs robots space aliens and a host of other creatures from metal scraps of the profession and with the aid of their workaday tools and acetylene If for only a passing moment the muffler men enliven the roadside and help to break up the monotony of daily commutes More than mere advertisements they interact with their communities by greeting the passerby The significance of muffler sculptures turns profound when they become local celebrities and are hailed as community landmarks But what do they mean For the creative mechanic who made them they are exclamatory signposts and store mascots For the academic folklorists who analyze them they are symbolic icons with cultural meanings that proclaim individual identity and group membership For the collectors who treasure them they are exemplars of outsider art For most non specialists who wave as they speed past they are funky delights This colorful book documents the widespread appeal of muffler men as a form of occupational art that enriches the workplace the local environment and now the art gallery Raw Vision ,2003 World Arts, Local Lives Fowler Museum at UCLA.,Marla Berns,Roy W.

Hamilton,Patrick Arthur Polk,Wendy Teeter,2014 This lavishly illustrated volume demonstrating the scope and depth of the vast and remarkable global collections of the Fowler Museum at ucla has been produced as part of the ongoing celebration of the institution s fiftieth anniversary year It recalls many of the highlights of the Museum s formation focusing not only on collections development but also on a long history of programmatic innovation The book begins with an essay by the Museum

s director Marla C Berns which sketches the Fowler s history and this is followed by a section reproducing in color and large format 250 stunning works from the collection Berns s lengthy history of involvement with the Fowler which began when she worked for the Museum as a graduate intern while pursuing her doctorate at UCLA and the innovative strategies she has introduced have uniquely situated her to author this book Design Issues ,2004 Art, Culture, and Tourism on an Indian Ocean Island Kristina Dziedzic Wright,2009 This book employs an ethnographic approach to understand the evolution of jua kali art forms especially in response to the international tourism industry Tourism is the primary non extractive industry on the Kenyan island of Lamu and the presence of a touristic crafts market has nurtured a vibrant creative environment Beyond Green Stephanie Smith,David and Alfred Smart Museum of Art,2005 Exploring the ways in which sustainable development is being used by an emerging group of artists who combine fresh aesthetic sensibilities with constructively critical approaches to the production dissemination and display of their art this book considers environmental issues in the context of art and design American Book Publishing Record ,2001 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 American Craft ,2000 Archiv 69 Weltmuseum Wien Friends, Singular Spaces Jo Farb Hernandez,2013 Published by leading outsider art imprint Raw Vision Singular Spaces is a groundbreaking survey of art environments created by self taught artists from across Spain The book introduces and examines 45 artists and their idiosyncratic sculptures gardens and buildings most of which have never been published The sites are developed organically without formal architectural or engineering plans they are at once evolving and complete Often highly fanciful and quixotic the work is frequently characterized by incongruous juxtapositions an approach that appears impulsive and spontaneous Director of the organization SPACES Saving and Preserving Arts and Cultural Environments Jo Farb Hernandez combines detailed case studies of the artists and their work with contextualized historical and theoretical references to art history anthropology architecture Spanish area studies and folklore Breaking down the standard compartmentalization of genres she reveals how most creators of art environments who are building within their own personal spaces fuse their creations with their daily lives
