The Challenge Of Global Stewardship Roman Catholic Responses:

The Challenge of Global Stewardship Maura A. Ryan, Todd Whitmore, 1997 This volume represents an attempt by 12 Roman Catholic scholars to take up the challenge of Global Stewardship to raise up the rich traditions of value and distinctive commitments of a particular faith community as resources for an ethic of preservation equity and restraint

Who Count as Persons? John F. Kavanaugh, 2001-05-23 Just what is a human being Who counts The answers to these questions are crucial when one is faced with the ethical issue of taking human life In this affirmation of the intrinsic personal dignity and inviolability of every human individual John Kavanaugh S J denies that it can ever be moral to intentionally kill another Today in every corner of the world men and women are willing to kill others in the name of realism and under the guise of race class quality of life sex property nationalism security or religion We justify these killings by either excluding certain humans from our definition of personhood or by invoking a greater good or more pressing value Kavanaugh contends that neither alternative is acceptable He formulates an ethics that opposes the intentional killing not only of medically marginal humans but also of depersonalized or criminalized enemies Offering a philosophy of the person that embraces the undeveloped the wounded and the dying he proposes ways to recover a personal ethical stance in a global society that increasingly devalues the individual Kavanaugh discusses the work of a range of philosophers artists and activists from Richard Rorty and S ren Kierkegaard to Albert Camus and Woody Allen from Mother Teresa to Jack Keavorkian His approach is in stark contrast to that of writer Peter Singer and others who believe that not all human life has intrinsic moral worth It will challenge philosophers students of ethics and anyone concerned about the depersonalization of contemporary life

Children, Consumerism, and the Common Good Mary M. Doyle

Roche, 2009-01-01 The children are full interdependent members of the communities of which they are a part they have a claim on our resources and our solidarity as well as a right to participate in social life Their participation easily becomes exploitation in the context of consumer culture The tradition of the common good within Christianity moves communities toward practices of resistance and transformation to this culture in a spirit of solidarity with children The Impact of the Family John Witte, Michael Welker, Stephen Pickard, 2022-02-22 The family is humanity s oldest and most basic social institution but today it is fragile fractured and fraught in many liberal lands This volume gathers scholars from sociology psychology history religion ethics law and medicine from five continents to analyze the complex nature and place of the family in character formation and human flourishing The chapters study the impact of catechesis schooling work and discipline on the development of individual moral agency and responsibility They document the critical roles of family love trust fidelity and story telling in shaping the moral character of all family members from infancy to old age They describe effective strategies of resistance and resilience for family members who face abuse divorce death chauvinism racism and homophobia And several chapters challenge modern arguments and policies that aim to flatten if not abolish the marital family even while they call for family law reforms Contributions by Enola G Aird Helen Alvar Robert N Bellah Margaret Jane Brining Michael J Broyde Marcia Bunge Stephen Carter Jean Bethke Elshtain Robyn Fivuush Patrick Hornbeck Andreas Kruse Nadia Marais Gordon Mikoski Bonnie Miller McLemore Patrick Parkinson Katja Patzel Mattern Sabina Pauen Stephen G Post Eugene C Roehlkepartain and Thomas Xutong Qu Children, Theology, and Bioethics Jessica Bratt Carle, 2024-12-15 Children remain at the periphery when bioethics envisions autonomous adults as normative human beings Children Theology and Bioethics Beyond Autonomy explores the full humanity of children inviting greater recognition of their place in the moral landscape of healthcare Theological insights into vulnerability dependence and agency summon appreciation for the experiences of pediatric patients and reveal what it means to be human at every age Interdisciplinary dialogue between bioethics childhood studies and pastoral theology is woven throughout with illustrative clinical vignettes from Bratt Carle s experience as a pediatric chaplain and clinical ethicist A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it s adequately biblical and Gerard Gilleman whether it s adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally The Vocation of the Child Patrick M. Brennan, 2008-10-07 The Vocation of the Child seeks to understand the child as a person in his or her own right as a member of family and of community and as a son or daughter of a God who came to earth as a child Distinguished jurist Patrick McKinley Brennan has gathered fifteen other respected scholars from various fields to consider seriously the vocation of the child Jacket Faith Forward Volume 2

M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Theological Foundations for Environmental Ethics James Schaefer, 2009-05-07 Earth is imperiled Human activities are adversely affecting the land water air and myriad forms of biological life that comprise the ecosystems of our planet Indicators of global warming and holes in the ozone layer inhibit functions vital to the biosphere Environmental damage to the planet becomes damaging to human health and well being now and into the future and too often that damage affects those who are least able to protect themselves Can religion make a positive contribution to preventing further destruction of biological diversity and ecosystems and threats to our earth Jame Schaefer thinks that it can and she examines the thought of Christian Church fathers and medieval theologians to reveal and retrieve insights that may speak to our current plight By reconstructing the teachings of Augustine Thomas Aquinas and other classic thinkers to reflect our current scientific understanding of the world Schaefer shows how to green the Catholic faith to value the goodness of creation to appreciate the beauty of creation to respect creation's praise for God to acknowledge the kinship of all creatures to use creation with gratitude and restraint and to live virtuously within the earth community

Catholic Moral Theology in the United States Charles E. Curran, 2008-04-11 In this magisterial volume Charles E Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI s encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social ethics Curran s perspective is unique For nearly 50 years he has been a major influence on the development of the field and has witnessed first hand the dramatic increase in the number and diversity of moral theologians in the academy and the Church No one is more qualified to write this first and only comprehensive history of Catholic moral theology in the United States

The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity s underside The result is the AAEC s spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro s theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider s moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century

The Church and Development in Africa, Second Edition Stan Chu Ilo, 2014-10-20 In this book Stan Chu Ilo offers an integral theology of development and a critical social analysis of different development theories and practices in the world especially in Africa Ilo offers a comprehensive biblical anthropological and theological foundation of the principles and praxis of Catholic social ethics from the Second Vatican Council to Pope Francis Drawing from the social encyclical Charity in Truth Ilo shows how Catholic social teaching responds to some of the challenging questions and concerns of our times in relation to human rights ecology globalization international cooperation development and aid human and cultural development business ethics social justice and the challenges of poverty eradication He creatively applies these principles to the social context of Africa and lays a groundwork for sustainable Christian humanitarian and social justice initiatives in Africa

My Quests for Hope and Meaning Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2013-10-02 This book is an autobiography tracing Rosemary Radford Ruether's intellectual development and writing career Ruether examines the influence of her mother and family on her development and particularly her interactions with the Roman Catholic religious tradition She delves into her exploration of interfaith relations with Judaism and Islam as well Her educational formation at Scripps College and the importance of historical theology is also a major emphasis Mental illness has also affected Ruether's nuclear family in the person of her son and she details the family's struggle with this issue Finally in this intellectual autobiography Ruether explores her long concern and involvement with ecology feminism and the quest for a spirituality and practice for a livable planet
