Remembered of Her Megan McKenna, 2010-07-15 Examines stories from Scripture of women around the world and of folk traditions for acts of hope courage imagination and compassion amid the challenges of daily life Recounting Cultural Encounters Marija Knežević, 2009-10-02 Contributions reprinted in this book highlight some of the wide ranging ways in which the issues of culture and identity can be approached in a literary text while focusing on the ways in which cultural encounters have been changing both the world and its reflection in literature The beginning of the twenty first century is an appropriate time to repay careful attention to these issues Understanding how our perception of the Other changes with the concept of the world we inhabit we want to emphasize the rising importance of fostering cultural pluralism and global understanding Having based their research on widespread readings in academia such as deconstruction post colonialism post modernism new historicism and narratology the authors of these papers proceed by addressing the metaphor of travel as one of the strongest metaphors for the evolution of mankind especially if considered under the light of the historically and politically imposed opposition between the progressive western and the static eastern or African societies However as the end of the imperialist era brought about poignant awareness of cultural relativism as well as deconstruction of the great narrative of progress facing the Other as an unconceptualized entity became a major moral concern of a modern traveller It is pronounced that this concern should be textually testified to dramatize the human inability to avoid verbal appropriation of the other The final question we seek to answer is whether the era of advanced technology and globalisation along with a post modern ironical attitude to hyper realities and textual transparencies has rendered the sphere of the text the only available point of concern of contemporary literature and thought in general For its argumentation strongly founded in recent literary studies and humanities in general its interdisciplinary nature and its focus on the actual global problems of abrupt cultural change and exchange its heightened understanding of the necessity of coexistence of differences in a changing world its spirit of tolerance and its international spirit in general we assume this collection will not only attract academic literary scholars but will also appeal to the general reading public History Made Conscious Geoff Eley, 2023-08-22 How History has changed in the half century since the 1960s During the last fifty years the writing of history underwent two massive transformations First powered by Marxism and other materialist sociologies the great social history wave instated the value of social explanation Then responding to new theoretical debates the cultural turn upset many of those freshly earned certainties Each challenge was profoundly informed by politics from issues of class gender and race to those of identity empire and the postcolonial The resulting controversies brought historians radically changed possibilities expanding subject matters unfamiliar approaches greater openness to theory and other disciplines a new place in the public culture History Made Conscious offers snapshots of a discipline continuously rethinking its charge How might we understand the social and the cultural together How do we collaborate most fruitfully across disciplines If we take theory seriously how does that change what historians do How should we think differently about politics The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness,Zak Cope,2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date

Slow Violence and the Environmentalism of the Poor Rob Nixon,2011-06-01 Slow violence from climate change toxic drift deforestation oil spills and the environmental aftermath of war occurs gradually and often invisibly Rob Nixon focuses on the inattention we have paid to the lethality of many environmental crises in contrast with the sensational spectacle driven messaging that impels public activism today Feeding the City Sara Roncaglia,2013-07-15 Every day in Mumbai 5 000 dabbawalas literally translated as those who carry boxes distribute a staggering 200 000 home cooked lunchboxes to the city s workers and students Giving employment and status to thousands of largely illiterate villagers from Mumbai s hinterland this co operative has been in operation since the late nineteenth century It provides one of the most efficient delivery networks in the world only one lunch in six million goes astray Feeding the City is an ethnographic study of the fascinating inner workings of Mumbai s dabbawalas Cultural anthropologist Sara Roncaglia explains how they cater to the various dietary requirements of a diverse and increasingly global city where the preparation and consumption of food is pervaded with religious and cultural significance Developing the idea of gastrosemantics a language with which to discuss the broader implications of cooking and eating Roncaglia s study helps us to rethink our relationship to food at a local and global level

The Architecture of Modern Empire Arundhati Roy,2024-03-12 A revelatory and wide ranging series of interviews with award winning writer Arundhati Roy touching on US empire Indian nationalism a writer s work and more As a novelist Arundhati Roy is known for her lush language and intricate structure As a political essayist her prose is searching and fierce All of these qualities shine through in the interviews collected here by David Barsamian This newly reissued and expanded edition featuring interviews from 2001 to 2022 and a moving foreword by Naomi Klein explores Roy s evolving political thought and commitments across the tumultuous twenty first entry The Architecture of Modern Empire is a searing reckoning with the mechanics of power in all its forms and the role of imagination and creative expression in envisioning a radically different world Centres and Peripheries in Literatures Hassan Mbiydzanyuy Yosimbom,Bill F. Ndi,2024-11-17

For millennia literature across the globe has captured the essence of life survival and human relationships how we come together and how we fall apart These stories born from diverse cultures and perspectives transcend time and space to resonate with audiences far beyond their origins Literature a tapestry woven from many threads of logic teaches us to embrace complexity and reject simplistic thinking Centres and Peripheries in Literature invites us to question why some works become classics while others fade into obscurity In an age striving to define world literature this book is especially relevant examining the forces that shape literary canons and the interplay between Western and non Western traditions It boldly confronts the dominance of hegemonic canonism shedding light on the power dynamics that determine which voices are heard and which are silenced This important book addresses issues of legitimization and consecration of literary works from around the world highlighting how non Western authors are pushed to the peripheries while Western authors are moved to the centre It offers diverse perspectives on these dynamics Viviane Koua PhD Department of World Languages Literatures Cultures Auburn University Auburn AL USA Centres and Peripheries in Literatures Interrogating Hegemonic Canonism critically examines how power dynamics between the Global North and South shape literary canons urging scholars and readers to contemplate and recognize marginalized voices from the Global South Achirri Ismael PhD Assistant Professor of Social Sciences and Policy Studies Worcester Polytechnic Institute Massachusetts USA
