North China Branch, Shanghai,1925 Contains list of members Chinese Thought in Early German Enlightenment from Leibniz to Goethe Břetislav Horyna,2023-05-25 This book is a philosophical historical examination of the influence of the knowledge of China imparted by the Jesuits on the thinking of the German Enlightenment in the 18th century It is not primarily concerned with a comprehensive reconstruction of the philosophy of the thinkers discussed but rather with the political and intellectual contextualisation of a line of thought that recognised the practical philosophy and state organisation of China as different from that of Europe while equal to it and in some respects superior to it This challenged the claim of theology that Christian revelation alone provided access to truth The volume analyses the opposition to this line of thought especially on the part of Protestant orthodoxy It argues that in the German Enlightenment of the 18th century the possibility emerged to conceive philosophy on the basis of reason as a phenomenon not limited to Europe but as a path followed under different conditions in China A Barbarian in Asia Henri Michaux,2016-03-17 A wild journey to the East narrated by a writer who is without equal in the literature of our time Jorge Luis Borges Henri Michaux 1899 1984 the great French poet and painter set out as a young man to see the Far East Traveling from India to the Himalayas and on to China and Japan Michaux voices his vivid impressions cutting opinions and curious insights he has no trouble speaking his mind Part fanciful travelogue and part exploration of culture A Barbarian in Asia is presented here in its original translation by Sylvia Beach the famous American born bookseller in Paris

Self-Cultivation in Chinese and Greco-Roman Philosophy David Machek, 2025-05-15 In early China and ancient Greece self cultivation was considered crucial for leading a flourishing fulfilled life In this cross cultural study David Machek presents and interprets six influential Greek and Chinese self cultivation theories advocated by Mengzi Zhuangzi and Xunzi as well as Plato Aristotle and the Stoics in order to put forward the overarching narrative that self cultivation amounts to strengthening the best part of the human self the heart in the Chinese context and the mind in the Greek context Advancing new readings of classic texts Machek shows that Greek approaches to self cultivation privilege intellectual pursuits while Chinese approaches give more weight to non intellectual activities such as learning manual crafts and performing rituals He also demonstrates how both ancient traditions understand the self as a heterogeneous community of organic entities each needing different provisions to flourish which aligns the ancient Greek view closer to the early Chinese view As such this book reinforces the underlying structural and conceptual similarities between the two traditions and makes an important contribution to diversifying philosophical conversations
