The Christ Based Teachings:

The Christ-based Teachings Donald Curtis,1976 The Teachings of Jesus Christ Episcopal Church. Diocese of New York. Sunday School Commission,1904 The Outrageous Idea of Christian Teaching Perry Glanzer,Nathan Alleman,2019-07-29 Hundreds of thousands of professors claim Christian as their primary identity and teaching as their primary vocational responsibility Yet in the contemporary university the intersection of these two identities often is a source of fear misunderstanding and moral confusion How does being a Christian change one s teaching Indeed should it Inspired by George Marsden s 1997 book The Outrageous Idea of Christian Scholarship this book draws on a survey of more than 2 300 Christian professors from 48 different institutions in North America to reveal a wide range of thinking about faith informed teaching Placing these empirical findings alongside the wider scholarly conversation about the role of identity informed teaching Perry L Glanzer and Nathan F Alleman argue that their Christian identity can and should inform professors teaching in the contemporary pluralistic university The authors provide a nuanced alternative to those who advocate for restraining the influence of one s extra professional identity and those who in the name of authenticity promote the full integration of one s primary identity into the classroom The book charts new ground regarding how professors think about Christian teaching specifically as well as how they should approach identity informed teaching more generally

Expository Systematic Teachings of Christ According to Saint Mark Raphael Alade Adeniyi,2022-06-14 This is a book that transcends me It meets spiritual needs of everyone who believes in the authority of the Scriptures in all matters of life The book is inspired and the lessons are done under the influence of the Holy Spirit The Sternness of Christ's Teaching and its Relation to the Law of Forgiveness J.F. Bethune-Baker,2015-01-28 Reflections of the Christ Mind Paul Ferrini,2000-07-25 For Paul Ferrini there was a time when the very thought of Jesus left him cold Instead of embodying the truth of Jesus teaching Christianity seemed to harbor the fearful thoughts and actions of people who were more committed to self interest than to unconditional love So when Ferrini felt Jesus voice inside him saying I want you to acknowledge me he resisted In time however he came to realize that it was not Jesus he was rejecting but the untruths that had become attached to Christian teaching Responding to the inner voice did not mean merely acknowledging Jesus as some great teacher who lived in the past but also meant that he was opening himself up to a living presence within his own awareness Once Ferrini reached this reconciliation powerful words of spiritual truth began to flow through him Reflections of the Christ Mind presents the most important teachings the author has received through his spiritual awakening Here at last is a gospel devoted solely to Jesus teachings of love healing and forgiveness The teacher readers meet in these pages is both compassionate and open minded he is the Jesus Christians know in their hearts Repudiating religious hypocrisy intolerance and spiritual pride Ferrini rejects the dogmatic position of the Church offering instead words of hope and healing that form the new gospel for today The Lessons Sandra Casey-Martus,Carla R. Mancari,2008 Come take a journey through the Authority, Passion, and Subject-Centered Teaching Christopher J. Richmann, 2024-08-27 This book asserts that authority is a contested category and explores why traditional notions of authority are increasingly in tension with progressive and postmodern claims devolving into stalemate schizophrenia or power plays Offering a Christian framework as a philosophically coherent and practical alternative for teachers the author argues that Jesus provides a pattern from which to reconstruct our conception of teaching authority in ways that align with evidence informed teaching practices and cultivate intellectual virtues Rather than examine Jesus as teacher the book instead applies the central insight on authority that Jesus embodies This authority with which Jesus taught it argues stemmed from his passion that is passive even suffering experience The author aligns this to a subject centered conception of teaching as opposed to student centered or teacher centered in which the subject is the authority and knowing is identified with being acted upon by the subject Teaching with authority thereby becomes a matter of unveiling suffering with students and inviting them into their own suffering encounter with the subject Building on the work on Parker Palmer and exploring pedagogical practice from a Christian perspective this book will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in higher education evidence based teaching educational theory religion and education and Christian history and thought

The Creeds of Modern Christianity versus the Teachings of the Holy Bible James Earl Kemper, 2021-10-20 When it comes to religion this book is a comparison between what most Christian creeds state and what the Bible King James Version teaches about God Jesus Christ and many of the topics that most people have questions about The author asks many thought provoking questions the very questions that he sought answers to but found so much conflict in Christianity Do you have unanswered questions Are the answers important to you Have you personally read the Bible to see what it actually says Do you believe the Bible Or do you accept only what men ministers say Each topic is taken independently and there are questions asked answers suggested and conclusions drawn The reader is challenged to read this and find their own answers through prayer and personal study Are you up to a challenge

The Kabbalistic Teachings of Jesus in the Gospel of Thomas Lewis Keizer, 2010-12-22 The Gospel of Thomas preserves a core of authentic Aramaic sayings of Yeshua older than the earliest Christian writings When they are isolated from the second century Gnostic framework they reveal many of Yeshua's inner circle kabbalistic teachings Scholars can restore much of the pre kabbalistic tradition of Yeshua's era through sources like the Sepher Yetzirah Sepher Ha Razim and the haggadah preserved in the Mishna Babylonian and Palestinian Talmuds Philo of Alexandria and the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha of the Old Testament These were the Holy Scriptures of Essenes Zadokites and other messianic Jews of the period including Yeshua and his disciples The Psalms they chanted in worship and Shabbat Seder were not just those of our Old Testament but the messianic Odes of Solomon and others preserved in Enochian and apocalyptic scripture A study of this forgotten sacred literature allows modern scholars to understand and reconstruct the oral Kabbalah of Yeshua embedded in the Gospel of Thomas

Teaching for a Multifaith World Eleazar S. Fernandez,2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that s who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let s take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side

[With the Text in the Revised Version]* ... Thomas Whitelaw, 1888 Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Teaching the Faith, Forming the Faithful Gary A. Parrett, S. Steve Kang, 2013-03-05 With the decline of traditional Sunday school and education programs in recent years many Christians have not learned the fundamental doctrinal content of the faith In this text Gary Parrett and Steve Kang set forth a thoroughly biblical vision for intentional teaching of the Christian faith that attends to both the content and process of educational and formational ministries Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, OFM, 2005-08-10 With an equal emphasis on every word in the title and with a distinctly American perspective Himes and his distinguished associate editors and contributors have assembled the most thorough and authoritative assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching to date likely to remain the touchstone volume for decades This culmination of many years of effort by twenty stellar scholars has produced a reference work for anyone interested in understanding or studying the key documents that comprise the central corpus of Catholic social teaching In addition to interrogations of the major documents this volume provides an understanding of the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII s Rerum Novarum Finally there is a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address By any standard Modern Catholic Social Teaching is a remarkable work intellectually rigorous and deeply faithful it provides accessible and thought provoking insights into the heart of a belief tradition that every Catholic will find invaluable

Teaching in the Life of the Church

Darin R. Clements, 2025-04-28 I chose to publish my dissertation for two reasons First though quite narrow in scope as good qualitative research should be this research makes a modest contribution to the growing scholarship on Christianity in Cambodia Second this research makes an empirical contribution to the field of nonformal Christian Education from an Asian context in which Christians are a tiny minority As my literature review indicates the field of nonformal CE is dominated by a North American point of view which ironically is facing a general breakdown of historical CE institutions like Sunday school While much of the literature is useful in the Majority World it does not take into account the education levels educational contexts and social dynamics of places like Cambodia For example the findings from my cases indicate that nonformal CE in Cambodia has more in common with the Sunday school movement in the 19th century than with the functions organizational structures and teaching approaches discussed in current literature As I have presented these ideas in class feedback from students has consistently confirmed that my findings resonate with contexts across Asia Pacific
