

The Poisoned Stream

Emilio Bossi, a Rome reporter, accidentally discovers the identity of a sex murderer who has just killed a call-girl. He decides to capitalize on this discovery by sheltering the murderer from the police and commissioning him to write his memoirs for a weekly magazine. The murderer, however, proves to be more than a match for his pursuers and the situation Bossi has initiated quickly develops a terrible and uncontrollable momentum of its own.

Eight characters tell how events got out of hand: the reporter Emilio Bossi; magazine-owner Carlo Vanetti and his photographer son, Francesco; Italo Canonica, the detective assigned to the case; Oskar Enzian, the murdered call-girl's Austrian father; Christa Sonntag, the girl's prostitute friend; Antonio Zempach, Vanetti's lawyer and involuntary accessory to the concealment of the murderer; and Aurelio Morelli, author of seven novels and a murderer of more than one girl, as it turns out.

Each character has his own story to tell and his own way of telling it; yet they have much more in common with each other and with the murderer than they suspect. Outwardly alienated from society, Morelli, no simple murderer but a youth-killer, is shown by Hafe to be the spokesman for the lost generation of the middle-aged. His outrage at being consigned to obscurity by a callous younger generation ironically places him in the same league as the detective who pursues him, as the magazine-owner who exploits him, and as Oskar Enzian, his victim's father.
