• Catholic Action is in principle diocesan or it is non existent:

- It is the Bishop who invites and encourages the lay faithful entrusted to him to involve themselves in apostolic work. He is the one to appeal for active participation and to convene Catholic Action.
- It is the Bishop who invites and encourages priests to promote these forms of lay apostolate.

Resistance and Collaboration in Hitler's Empire Vesna Drapac,Gareth Pritchard,2017-09-16 This new study provides a concise accessible introduction to occupied Europe It gives a clear overview of the history and historiography of resistance and collaboration It explores how these terms cannot be examined separately but are always entangled Covering Europe from east to west this book aims to explore the evolution of scholarly approaches to resistance and collaboration Not limiting itself to any one area it looks at armed struggle daily life complicity and rescue the Catholic Church and official and public memory since the end of the war      B.A. Santamaria Bartholomew Augustine Santamaria,2008 B A Santamaria was a political activist and traditionalist Catholic layman prominent in public affairs in 20th century Australia He was a key figure in the disastrous split in the Australian Labor Party in 1954 one of the key events in Australian polit      Catholicism and Crisis in Modern France William Bosworth,2015-12-08 The author discusses the role of French Catholicism in the internal and foreign affairs of modern France with a detailed examination of French Catholic groups and their effect on temporal life Presenting a wealth of material from official archives and files of French Catholic periodicals and organizations Mr Bosworth supplements his research by direct interviews with key personnel from a variety of Catholic groups Originally published in 1961 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Gender and Christianity in Modern Europe Patrick Pasture,2012 Case studies upon the use of concepts like feminization and masculinization in relation to christianity Since the 1970s the feminization thesis has become a powerful trope in the rewriting of the social history of Christendom However this thesis has triggered some vehement debates given that men have continued to dominate the churches and the churches themselves have reacted to the association of religion and femininity often formulated by their critics by explicitly focusing their appeal to men In this book the authors critically reflect upon the use of concepts like feminization and masculinization in relation to Christianity

Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes,2018-01-02 Including contributions from twenty two leading moral theologians this volume is the most thorough assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching available In addition to interrogations of the major documents it provides insight into the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era which is generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum. The book also includes a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and offers an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address. This second edition includes revised and updated essays as well as two new commentaries: one on Pope Benedict XVI's encyclical Caritas in Veritate and one on Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si'. An outstanding reference work for anyone interested in studying and understanding the key documents that make up the central corpus of modern Catholic social teaching.

Between Cross and Class Lex Heerma van Voss, Patrick Pasture, Jan de Maeyer, 2005. In the late nineteenth century in a number of continental European countries Christian associations of workers arose: Christian trade unions, workers cooperatives, political leagues, workers youth movements and cultural associations, sometimes separately for men and women. In some countries they formed a unified Christian labour movement which sometimes also belonged to a broader Christian subculture or pillar encompassing all social classes. In traditional labour history Christian workers organizations were solely represented as dividing the working class and weakening the class struggle. However, from the 1980s onwards a considerable amount of studies have been devoted to Christian workers organizations that adopted a more nuanced approach. This book takes stock of this new historiography. To broaden the analysis, each contribution compares the development in at least two countries, thus generating new comparative insights. This volume assesses the development of Christian workers organizations in Europe from a broad historical and comparative perspective. The contributions focus on the collective identity of the Christian workers organization, their denominational and working class allegiances, and how these are expressed in ideology, organization and practice. Among the themes discussed are relations with churches and Christian Democracy, secularization, the development of the Welfare State, industrial relations and the contribution to working class culture. This volume is the result of a joint intellectual enterprise of the International Institute of Social History (IISG) in Amsterdam, Netherlands, and a group of scholars linked to the KADOC Documentation and Research Centre for Religion, Culture and Society of the KU Leuven Catholic University, Leuven, Belgium.

Base Ecumenism Raimundo C. Barreto, 2025-06-24. This book deals with base ecumenism, a practice that originated in Latin America but has ramifications for the broader ecumenical movement. It focuses on initiatives that emerge from the people in conversation with interchurch work. The book highlights the agency of women, racially minoritized groups and youth in Latin America.
