The Causes Of Reincarnation:

The Causes of Reincarnation Annie Wood Besant, 2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. Five Lectures on Reincarnation Swami Abhedananda, 2019-11-25 In Five Lectures on Reincarnation, Swami Abhedananda offers a profound exploration of the concept of reincarnation, weaving together elements of Vedantic philosophy and modern spiritual thought. The book is structured as a series of lectures, each delving into different aspects of the soul's journey through multiple lifetimes, thus drawing on both ancient Hindu texts and contemporary metaphysical discussions. Abhedananda employs a clear, accessible literary style that balances philosophical rigor with an engaging narrative, encouraging readers to contemplate the implications of karma and the continuity of the soul across various incarnations. Swami Abhedananda, a disciple of the renowned Swami Vivekananda, was a pivotal figure in introducing Eastern philosophical concepts to Western audiences during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. His extensive travels and lectures throughout the United States and Europe helped shape the discourse on spirituality, making abstract principles of reincarnation relatable and applicable to modern seekers. Drawn from his deep understanding of Vedanta, his writings reflect a synthesis of Eastern wisdom and universal truths. This book is highly recommended for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of reincarnation and its relevance to personal growth and spiritual awakening. Abhedananda's insights challenge conventional views, offering transformative perspectives that resonate with both seasoned practitioners and newcomers to spiritual exploration.

Limbus of the Catholics the Hades of the Greeks The evocation of the dead necromancy as well as the preservation of corpses is a violation of the laws of nature it is an outrage on the modesty of death which hides the works of destruction as we should hide those of reproduction Death is exhaled by death The cemeteries poison the atmosphere of towns and the miasma of corpses blight the children even in the bosoms of their mothers As spirit and matter run along parallel lines and are readily convertible to each other so the spiritual evolution goes hand in hand with the physical The immortal Ego is the root of every new incarnation the string on which are threaded one after the other the ephemeral personalities of man When the post mortem period of lethargic stupor is over and the last ante mortem desire dissipated the Spiritual Soul enters in full consciousness the blessed region of Devachan where all earthly mists have been dispersed and where the scenes of the past life come clearly before the spiritual sight Thence one can neither be reborn before its appointed period nor reappear on earth visibly or invisibly in the interim Unless the spiritual fruition the Higher Ego merges into and its aroma absorbed by the reincarnating Ego Atma Buddhi the latter becomes non-existent for it can only receive spiritual colouring from each lower ego during incarnation All transient non-reincarnating principles are left behind soulless and lifeless firstly as a material residue and later on as a reflection on the mirror of Astral light Reincarnation is a cyclic necessity for the Eternal Pilgrim the Protean differentiation in space and time of the One Absolute Unknowable Nature never leaves her work unfinished if baffled at the first attempt she tries again No one can progress beyond this world without becoming perfected physically morally and spiritually And as Nature never proceeds backwards in her evolutionary progress so man cannot regress physically to lower forms of life but he can retrogress morally yielding to the seductive influences which converge towards him Selfishness is the single most important cause of all sin and suffering on earth Its effects can only be counterbalanced on earth hence the endless cycles of tears watering the parched soil of pain and sorrow until harmony is restored Like the revolutions of a wheel there is a regular succession of death and rebirth the moral cause of which is clinging desperately to life on earth while the instrumental cause is Karma the law of merit and demerit The entire bundle of egotism disappears after death as the costume of the part he played disappears from the actor's body after he leaves the theatre and goes to bed Nothing remains of that bundle to go to the next incarnation except the seed for future Karma The soul of the wicked will go on wandering about in the earth's sphere assuming at times the forms of human phantoms and even those of animals The ancient profane never seemed sure any more than the modern whether an apparition was that of a relative or the genius of the locality Man is a Unity only at his origin and at his end In between spirits and souls gods and demons emanate from the Soul of the Universe But the rabble is the same in every age superstitious self-opinionated materializing the most spiritual noble and idealistic conceptions and dragging them down to its own low level The earth conceals the flesh the shade flits round the tomb The underworld receives the image the spirits seek the stars Abortion is much worse than foeticide it is a crime against Nature Abortion will also shorten the mother's life on earth only to prolong it with dreary percentage in Kama loka The Word
