The Challenge of Nationhood; A Collection of Speeches and Writings. (Foreword by Jomo Kenyatta. Postscripts by Pamela Mboya). Tom Mboya, 1970

Achebe the Orator Chinwe Okechukwu, 2001-03-30 Taken together Chinua Achebe's five novels Things Fall Apart 1958 No Longer at Ease 1960 A Man of the People 1966 Arrow of God 1967 and Anthills of the Savannah 1988 encompass the entire social historical and political experiences of Nigeria from precolonial times to the close of the 20th century Central to these experiences is the clash of Igbo culture with the ways of the West The novels show a society that has been fragmented and a people who are striving to reconstruct a world that they lost during their encounter with colonialism Achebe has stated that his main purpose for writing is to reveal the truth about his people and their culture This book examines his use of rhetoric to accomplish that objective Achebe's writings are fraught with rhetorical devices and he has harnessed the power of oratory to show how his society has responded to the African colonial encounter and its aftermath He uses oratory and rhetoric to both educate and persuade his readers and to delineate his characters Because of the central role of language in his novels his writings illustrate the nature of discourse among the Igbo as well as the larger Nigerian community This volume presents a broad overview of rhetoric throughout Achebe's works and demonstrates how he uses the novel genre for persuasive purposes

The Palgrave Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2020-09-04

This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War. Eschewing the common focus on national cultures, the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders. Drawing on specialists from across the world, the volume analyses the period's fiction, poetry, drama, and autobiographical writings in three sections: dominant concerns (socialism, decolonisation, nuclearism, propaganda, censorship, espionage), common genres (postmodernism, socialism, realism, dystopianism, migrant poetry, science fiction, testimonial writing), and regional cultures (Asia, Africa, Oceania, Europe, and the Americas). In doing so, the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945-1989 period, including specialists in comparative literature, postcolonial literature, contemporary literature, and regional literature.

The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Kenya Wanjala S. Nasong'o, Maurice N. Amutabi, Toyin Falola, 2023-05-27 This volume is a bold attempt to address a comprehensive range of themes and issues relating to contemporary Kenya. It covers independent Kenya's history, society, culture, economics, politics, and environment with great breadth and depth, comprising thirty-four chapters divided into three parts. Part I focuses on independence and the political economy of development, followed by Part II on environment, globalization, gender, and society. Part III examines the external context's impact and implications for Kenya and the role of Kenya in the global political economy.

Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1970 The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States Anne Gordon Drabek, Wilfrid Knapp, 2013-10-22 The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States An Annotated Bibliography is a record of books written about the politics, history, and the lives of the leaders of Africa and the Middle East. The book is divided per chapter according to the geographical area being discussed. Each chapter contains a list of books that fall under the following categories: Political History, Political Systems and Government, Biographies, Memoirs, Speeches, and Writings, and External Relations. Chapters I to VII cover different regions of Africa, while Chapters VIII to XI cover the Middle East. The text is recommended for historians and political scientists, especially those interested in the areas mentioned in the book. The selection also serves as a guide to those who plan to have further readings or make a paper about the political history, government, and development of the areas mentioned.

A Leap Into the Future Peter Anyang' Nyong'o, 2007 A Leap into the Future is a collection of speeches, essays, and articles compiled during Prof. Anyang' Nyong'o's tenure in the Kenya government and soon afterwards (2002-2006). In this provocative collection, Prof. Nyong'o examines the challenges of development, analyses how pan-African and global partnerships could facilitate development, and invokes the visionary direction pointed out by prominent personalities in Kenya's political leadership to whom he pays tribute. Through the collection, the author projects his vision for socio-political and economic transformation of the Kenyan society in a bid to formulate an economic strategy capable of leapfrogging the country from the current quagmire of underdevelopment to development. Professor Anyang' Nyong'o is a renowned reformist and political scientist in Africa and is best known for his role in Kenya's second liberation. He holds a doctorate degree in Political Science from the University of Chicago and has taught in universities in Kenya, Mexico, and Ethiopia. Upon the re-introduction of multiparty politics in Kenya in 1991, he was involved in the founding of Forum for the Restoration of Democracy (FORD) which provided the premier opposition machinery in the run up to the 1992 general elections. He was also involved in the formation of the National Rainbow Coalition (NARC) which defeated KANU, the party that had ruled Kenya for 24 years. In the subsequent NARC government, he became the Minister of Planning and National Development. Besides teaching, he is widely published in Africa and abroad. Prof. Nyong'o has also been at the frontline in championing the reform agenda in Africa, especially through the establishment of NEPAD. At the time of publication of this book, he was Secretary General of the Orange Democratic Movement (ODM).

Writing African History John Edward Philips, 2006. A comprehensive evaluation of how to read African history. Writing African History is an essential work for anyone who wants to write or even seriously read African history. It will replace Daniel McCall's classic Africa in Time Perspective as the introduction to African history for the next generation and as a reference for professional historians, interested readers, and anyone who wants to understand how African history is written. Africa in Time Perspective was written in the 1960s when African history was a new field of research. This new book reflects the development of African history since then. It opens with a comprehensive introduction by Daniel McCall, followed by a chapter by the editor explaining what African history is and is not in the context of historical theory and the development of historical narrative in the humanities and social sciences. The first half of the book focuses on sources of historical data, while the second half examines different perspectives on history. The editor's final chapter explains how to combine various sorts of evidence into a coherent account of African history. Writing African History will become the most important guide to African history for the 21st century.

The Anatomy of Neo-Colonialism in Kenya W. O. Maloba, 2017-08-29. The successor to Kenyatta and Britain: An Account of Political Transformation, 1929-1963. This book completes the first systematic political history of Jomo Kenyatta by examining the mechanisms of installing a neo-colonial regime in Kenya and how such regimes were duplicated elsewhere in Africa. It analyzes the nature and extent of the collaboration between Kenyatta, Britain, and Western intelligence services to install and protect his government in Kenya, a collaboration which is linked to some of Kenya's most intractable political, social, and economic problems. Drawing heavily on primary sources, it examines the legacy of Kenyatta's regime and how this legacy is felt in Kenya today.

Expatriate Sarah Kunz, 2023-01-10. Who are expatriates? How do they differ from other migrants? And why should we care about such distinctions Expatriate interrogates the contested category of the expatriate to explore its history and politics its making and lived experience Drawing on ethnographic and archival research the book offers a critical reading of International Human Resource Management literature explores the work and history of the Expatriate Archive Centre in The Hague and studies the usage and significance of the category in Kenyan history and present day expat Nairobi Doing so the book traces the figure of the expatriate from the mid twentieth century era of decolonisation to today s heated debates about migration The expatriate emerges as a malleable and contested category of shifting meaning and changing membership and as passionately embraced by some as it is rejected by others The book situates the changing usage of the term in the context of social political and economic struggle and explores the material and discursive work the expatriate performs in negotiating social inequalities and power relations Migration the book argues is a key terrain on which colonial power relations have been reproduced and translated and migration categories are at the heart of the insidious ways that intersecting material and symbolic inequalities are enacted today Any project for social justice needs to dissect and interrogate categories like the expatriate and this book offers analytical and methodical strategies to advance this project

Postcolonialism Meets Economics S. Charusheela, Eiman Zein-Elabdin, 2013-04-15 In the last half century economics has taken over from anthropology the role of drawing the powerful conceptual worldviews that organize knowledge and inform policy in both domestic and international contexts Until now however the colonial roots of economic theory have remained relatively unstudied This book changes that The wide array of contributions to this book draw on the rapidly growing body of postcolonial studies to critique both orthodox and heterodox economics This book addresses a large gap in postcolonial studies which lacks the type of sophisticated analysis of economic questions that it displays in its analysis of culture The intellectual and disciplinary terrain covered within this book spans economics history anthropology philosophy literary theory political science and women s studies
