Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe's most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword The Changing Face of World Missions (Encountering Mission) Michael

Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheenen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10-01 The dramatic changes that have taken place both in global society and in the church have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century These trends include the rise of postmodernism the spiritual decline in the West and the advance of the gospel in the rest of the world and the impact of technology on society and missions The Changing Face of World Missions is for the mission minded church leader or lay person who wants to understand these trends Each chapter identifies and evaluates a trend examines it in light of Scripture and proposes a practical response Important terms are defined and sidebars help readers think through the issues on their own Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Ramachandra,2002-10-03 In recent years the term religious pluralism has come to be used not only in a descriptive sociological sense but also as theologically prescriptive Within this new paradigm traditional Christian understandings of Christ conversion evangelism and mission have been radically reinterpreted The Recovery of Mission explores the pluralist paradigm through the work of three of its most influential Asian exponents Stanley Samartha Alousius Pieris and Raimundo Panikkar subjecting each to a theological and philosophical critique On the basis of biblical patristic and contemporary theological writings Vinoth Ramachandra argues for the uniqueness and decisiveness of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ Ramachandra seeks to show that many of the valid concerns of pluralist theologians can best be met by reappropriating the missionary thrust at the heart of the gospel The book ends with suggestions challenging to pluralists and conservatives alike as to how the gospel needs to be communicated in a multifaith world Gods That Fail, Revised

Edition Vinoth Ramachandra,2016-02-12 The globalizing world of late modernity is heavily awash with pseudo gods Gods That Fail provocatively deploys the theological concept of idolatry to explore the ways in which these gods blind their devotees and wreak suffering and dehumanization Many of these pseudo gods have infiltrated the life of the Church and compromised its witness Combining lively social critique with fresh expositions of familiar biblical stories this book engages with a variety of secular discourses as well as the sub Christian practices that accompany and undermine Christian involvement in the public square Christian Mission, Contextual Theology, Prophetic Dialogue Irvin, Dale T.,Phan, Peter C.,2018-12-20 While the intent of the editors is to honor Steve Bevans SVD a towering figure in the field of missiology and a longtime author of Orbis books on missiology this book will be designed less as a festschrift than as a textbook for classroom use Designed around the three main foci of Bevans theology mission contextual theologies and dialogical theory it will appeal to teachers of courses in Christian mission theological method contextual theologies and contemporary Third World theologies The contributors are a who s who of contemporary mission studies in a global context including representatives from various Christian traditions and from throughout the global church Spirit Power Heonik Kwon,Jun Hwan

Park,2022-08-02 Spirit Power explores the manifestation of the American Century in Korean history with a focus on religious culture It looks back on the encounter with American missionary power from the late nineteenth century and the long political struggles against the country s indigenous popular religious heritage during the colonial and postcolonial eras The book brings an anthropology of religion into the field of Cold War history In particular it investigates how Korea s shamanism has assimilated symbolic properties of American power into its realm of ritual efficacy in the form of the spirit of General Douglas MacArthur The book considers this process in dialog with the work of Yim Suk jay a prominent Korean anthropologist who saw that a radically cosmopolitan and democratic world vision is embedded in Korea s enduring shamanism tradition The Way of the Sea Roald Kverndal,2008-01-01 The sea has been both a source of bounty and a bridge of communication through the ages The Way of the Sea explores the unique role of seafarers in promoting the revealed plan of the Creator and Redeemer of both land and sea As a follow up to The Seamen s Mission Kverndal s comprehensive survey of maritime mission presents both historical and current perspectives While The Way of the Sea provides a much needed tool for the developing field of maritime Missiology people from all walks of life will learn from the rich history and culture of kingdom minded seafarers Beyond Fragmentation Bernhard Ott,2011-06-17 Beyond Fragmentation is an inquiry into the development of mission studies in evangelical theological education in Germany and German speaking Switzerland between 1960 1995 This is carried out by a detailed examination of the paradigm shifts which have taken place in recent years in both the theology of mission and the understanding of theological education David Bosch s proposal of an emerging ecumenical mission paradigm is examined with reference to the schools in membership with the Konferenz Bibeltreuer Ausbildungsstätten KBA The KBA schools have been greatly influenced by the work of Peter Beyerhaus and the Frankfurt Declaration 1970 and as such defend a conservative theological position and resist the challenge of Bosch s mission paradigm shift the key issue being that of hermeneutics Ott further explores the emerging new paradigm of theological education in both the Western and Two Thirds World contexts While the evangelical Bible school movement has historically embodied many of the features of this new paradigm they nevertheless have jeopardized these by their pursuit of academic accreditation Ott believes that theological conservatism has caused the KBA schools to resist changes in the areas of contextual and inductive learning Finally Ott studies the schools pattern of change and change resistance through combining the insights of Thomas Kuhn Hans Kung and Alasdair MacIntyre to hermeneutical and epistemological issues Fishing for Souls Stephen Friend,2018-01-01 Fishing for Souls explores the origins and development of fishermen s missions in Britain focussing particularly on the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This book is the first to view the entire picture of a significant although not broadly known part of British history and to add new relevant perspectives Dr Stephen Friend FRSA establishes an historical outline of the development of the churches work among British fishing communities and explores why a mission specifically concerned with fishermen was not initiated until the industry entered a period of economic decline during the early 1880s The factors relating to the development of British fisherman s missions are complex involving not only social and technological changes inside and outside the fishing industry but also changing theological perceptions that had a significant impact on attitudes to social conditions With its honesty and objectivity about developments especially those that were difficult and painful for the fishermen s mission societies at the time Fishing for Souls reveals the magnificent work that the various societies did and in some cases continue to do making it evident to all the readers Engaging Globalization (Mission in Global Community) Bryant L. Conner, 2011-07-06 How might a church infused with missional theology change the way it approaches Christian practices Interacting both with the missional theology of George Hunsberger and Darrell Guder and with the theology of Christian practices laid out by Craig Dykstra and Dorothy Bass Benjamin T Conner argues that allowing these two disciplines to inform one another can enhance the nature of the church s witness its congregational discipleship and its theological education Framing his work with real world narratives and applications inspired by his work as a minister to adolescents with special needs Conner shows how a practical missional mindset can redefine and reinvigorate the spirit and purpose of a congregation

God So Loves the City Charles Edward van Engen, Jude Tiersma, 1994 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city
