Children's Services Betsy Diamant-Cohen, 2010-05-31 Diamant Cohen past president of the Maryland Library Association's Children's Services Division gathers 18 examples of outreach partnerships to serve as inspiration for librarians and library administrators. Librarians from around the country describe their award-winning programs including reading readiness initiatives, story times for children with speech and language delays, serving children of incarcerated parents, and teaching storytelling to youth. The ideas are grouped in sections on partnership with community organizations, law enforcement, academic institutions, children's museums, cultural institutions, and business. Publisher: A Report of the First Statewide Survey of Children's Services in Public Libraries of Wisconsin, 1981, 1981 Measuring What Matters for Child Well-being and Policies OECD, 2021-07-01 To design, implement, and monitor effective child well-being policies, policy makers need data that better capture children's lives, measure what is important to them, and detect emerging problems and vulnerabilities early on. Despite improvements in recent decades, there are still important gaps in both national and cross-national child data. Countries can achieve progress if the right actions are taken.
