The Philomathic Debating Club:

The Philomathic Debating Club, 1898-1950 Ralph A. Raimi, 1991 The Philomathic journal Philomathic institution, 1824 Valedictory Address Delivered Before the Members of the Philomathic Society by the Vice-president. ... Session 1874-75. [- Session 1878-79.] University of Edinburgh. Philomathic Society, 1875 Jesuit Colleges and Universities in the United States Michael T. Rizzi, 2022-07-15 Provides a comprehensive history of Jesuit higher education in the United States weaving together the stories of the fifty four colleges and universities that the Jesuits have operated successfully and unsuccessfully since 1789 It emphasizes the connections among the institutions exploring how certain Jesuit schools like Georgetown University gave birth to others like Boston College by sharing faculty financial resources accreditation and even presidents throughout their history The book also explores how the colleges responded to common challenges including anti Catholic prejudice in the United States the push from government authorities to modernize their shared curriculum and the pull from Roman authorities to remain loyal to Catholic tradition It covers themes like the rise of the research university in the 1880s the administrative reforms of the 1960s and the role of Jesuit colleges in racial justice women s education and other civil rights issues College of Charleston Voices Katherine E. Chaddock, Carolyn B. Matalene, 2006-01-07 In 1770 the founders of the College of Charleston realized their dream of establishing an institution built upon the goal of instructing young minds with a traditional liberal arts education As the oldest institution of higher learning in South Carolina the College of Charleston has played an integral role in the development of a variety of young men and women from the Palmetto State and beyond Numbering in the hundreds of thousands this group of students current and former has enjoyed a unique college experience that they have chronicled and shared in letters to family and friends diaries student newspapers journals and more recently e mails These personal accounts reveal the effect that the College of Charleston has had on its students for generations and the ways in which those students have shaped the college s long history This engaging book features a collection of correspondences written by College of Charleston students from the school s earliest years to the present day Individually these writings offer a candid glimpse into students daily lives during several periods throughout the college s history Considered together the thoughts concerns and opinions found within paint a fascinating picture of the past at the College of Charleston Separatism and Subculture Paula M. Kane, 2017-10-10 Kane explores the role of religious identity in Boston in the years 1900 1920 arguing that Catholicism was a central integrating force among different class and ethnic groups She traces the effect of changing class status on religious identity and solidarity and she delineates the social and cultural meaning of Catholicism in a city where Yankee Protestant nativism persisted even as its hegemony was in decline Contest(ed) Writing Mary Lamb, 2013-01-14 This collection is about writing contests a vibrant rhetorical practice traceable to rhetorical performances in ancient Greece In their discussion of contests cultural work the scholars who have contributed to this collection uncover important questions about our practices For example educational contests as epideictic rhetoric do indeed celebrate writing but does this celebration merely relieve educators of the responsibility of finding ways for all writers to succeed Contests designed to reward single winners and singly authored works admirably celebrate hard work but do they over emphasize exceptional individual achievement over shared goals and communal reward for success Taking a cultural rhetorical approach to contests each chapter demonstrates the cultural work the contests accomplish The essays in Part I examine contests and riddles in classical Greek and Roman periods educational contests in eighteenth century Scotland and the Lyceum movement in the Antebellum American South The next set of essays discusses how contests leverage competition and reward in educational settings medieval universities American turn of the century women s colleges twenty first century scholarship essay contests and writing contests for speakers of other languages at the University of Portsmouth The last set of essays examines popular contests including poetry contests in Youth Spoken Word popular American contests designed by marketers and twenty first century podcasting competitions This collection then takes up contests as a cultural marker of our values assumptions and relationships to writing contests and competition

Year Book of the University of Denver and Colorado Seminary University of Denver,1896 Mount Pleasant Mara Cherkasky,2007 Mount Pleasant Samuel P Brown must have thought the name perfect when he chose it for his country estate on a wooded hill overlooking Washington City The name also suited the New Englanders who settled in the village that Brown founded near Fourteenth Street and Park Road just after the Civil War Around 1900 the once isolated village began its transformation into a fashionable suburb after the city extended Sixteenth Street through Mount Pleasant s heart and a new streetcar line linked the area to downtown Developers constructed elegant apartment buildings and spacious brick row houses on block after block and successful businessmen built stately residences along Park Road Change arrived again with the Great Depression and then World War II as the suburb evolved into an urban exclusively white working class enclave that eventually became mostly African American In addition a Latino presence was evident as early as the 1960s By the 1980s the neighborhood was known as the heart of D C s Latino and counterculture communities Today these communities are dispersing however in response to a booming real estate market in Washington D C Student Life and Customs Henry Davidson Sheldon,1901
