This National Monument is located in the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum, a site of historical interest and a source of education of legend and lore.

The volunteers and staff at the monument devote to the old west style and participate in living history demonstrations. The reconstruction of ranching and domestic activities can be observed as you step back in time on your tour of Winter Castle, a pioneer fort built in 1870 for protection from the Indians.

The many displays of pioneer and Indian history will stimulate your imagination. This nostalgia and new way to visit a National Monument will educate you about this unique old west lifestyle.
