

The background is a reproduction of a painting, likely by J.M.W. Turner, depicting a pond with numerous lily pads and water lilies. The water is a deep, textured blue, while the lily pads and flowers are in various shades of green, yellow, and pink. The overall style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a focus on light and color.

in the Family Sharon Graham Niederhaus,John L. Graham,2013-02-14 As the nation reels from the impact of the Great Recession many families are finding new ways to live together including creating multigenerational households to save money and consolidate resources Indeed as the authors point out the concept of nuclear family living is an aberration in our history that stemmed from post World War II prosperity mobility and the associated baby boom However the threatened failure of American social security and healthcare systems is forcing us all to rethink how we live and care for one another This book covers the financial and emotional benefits of living together proximity and privacy designing and remodeling your home to accommodate adult children or elderly parents overcoming cultural stigmas about interdependent living financial and legal planning and making cohabitation agreements

International Communities of Invention and Innovation Arthur Tatnall,Christopher Leslie,2016-11-30 This book contains revised selected papers presented at the IFIP WG 9 7 International Conference on the History of Computing HC 2016 held in Brooklyn NY USA in May 2016 The 13 full papers included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers cover a wide range of topics related to the history of computing and focus on the history of pre existing relationships and communities that led to triumphs and dead ends in the history of computing This broad perspective helps to tell a more accurate story of important developments like the Internet and provide a better understanding of how to sponsor future invention and innovation They reflect on histories that foreground the international community along four broad themes invention policy infrastructure and social history
